Funeral of C. C. Hutchinson—The funeral of Clinton C. Hutchinson, who died at his late residence, 486 East Everett street yesterday morning, was held from Holman's undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Luther R. Dyott of the First Congregational church conducted the services in the chapel and later at the grave in Riverview cemetery. Mr. Hutchinson was a native of Vermont but spent most of his life in Kansas, where he founded the city of Hutchinson and to this day is known there as the father of the place. He came to Oregon in 1894, and for the past eight years resided in this city. Soon after coming to Oregon, he became interested in irrigation projects in the eastern part of the state and secured the first water rights on the Deschutes river, which he afterwards sold to eastern capitalists. Mr. Hutchinson is survived by a widow and the following children: Arthur, living in Denver; Mrs. James Cabbledick, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. E. B. Mac Naughton and Misses Helen and Alice Hutchinson of Portland.

Funeral of Mrs. Collier.—The funeral of Mrs. Jeremiah Collier, who died last Friday evening at the family residence, 553 Clay street, will be held at St. Mary's cathedral at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow, Wednesday, morning, followed by the interment in Mount Calvary cemetery. Mrs. Collier was a graduate of St. Mary's academy, and for several years a teacher of the Portland public schools. She was also state president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and an earnest worker in the committee for advancing the study of Irish history. Mrs. Collier is survived by a baby girl, 1 year old; her mother, Mrs. James Frainey, and the following sisters: Mrs. M. Driscoll, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. J. Fournier and Misses A. and W. Frainey.

Travels in Male Attire—Dora Dellinque, 18 years old, was arrested last night by Officers Thompson and Long while she was camping at the head of Washington street about two blocks west of the city park. The young woman was attired in blue overalls and in men's attire throughout and it was on a charge of masquerading in men's clothing that she was haled into police court this morning. She stated that she was travelling with her husband and another man over the country and that she used this attire as a matter of comfort. The charge was dismissed by Judge Van Zante.

For Summer Kindergarten—The first meeting since the union of the Mothers' congress and the Home Training association will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the city hall. All members of all the circles in the city are especially urged to be present, as there is much business to be transacted and many matters of importance to be discussed. The summer kindergarten at Chautauqua is one of the important phases of work to be determined upon. Mrs. E. B. Colwell, president of the State Congress of Mothers, and Mrs. C. F. Clarke, president of the Home Training association, will make addresses.

Will Plead Tomorrow.—Pleas will be entered on criminal charges in circuit court Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Frederick von Falkenstein, Addie Cox, Bessie Williams and Isaac Dangerfield, all of whom were arraigned yesterday before Presiding Judge Bronaugh. Falkenstein is accused of stealing books from Hyland Bros.' book store, Addie Cox and Bessie Williams of stealing $20 from George Brown last month, and Dangerfield of stabbing Sim Reynolds. The last named three are negroes.

Objects to Pet Names.—"Liar" and "fool" are terms to which James W. McFarland objects. Thebitha McFarland is the wife of his bosom, whom he asserts applied such and others to him, and yesterday he began suit for divorce in the circuit court. Furthermore, McFarland complains that she informed him he was not fit to associate with hogs. The two were married on Christmas, 1907, and McFarland alleges that he has twice tried to live with her. He makes a score of complaints.

Union Avenue Lot Sold—Dan J. Malarkey has purchased from J. R. Miller of Seattle a lot on the west side of Union avenue, between East Couch and East Burnside streets, for $11,000. The former owner had completed arrangements for the erection of a two-story brick building on the site. Mr. Malarkey will probably carry out the plan and put up the building.

At Unitarian Chapel—Tomorrow afternoon in the First Unitarian chapel from 2 until 5 o'clock, the women of the church will hold a seasonable sale. Rugs for the summer cottage, generous aprons for the fruit canning season and a limited supply of genuine Vermont maple sugar, delicious for delicate syrups, candies or cake filling, will be offered for sale.

Mission Circle Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Florence Meade Mission circle of the Universalist Church of Good Tidings will be held at the home of Mrs. James Humphrey, corner East Eighth and East Ankeny streets, Thursday afternoon, May 13, at 2:15. The topic of the afternoon will be missionary work in the Philippines. Mrs. M. W. Stoops will be the leader.

Gives Many Reasons—Alleging that Henry S. Cram has such a bad temper that she cannot live with him longer, Lucy E. Cram has begun suit for divorce in the circuit court. She also charges that he shows poor taste in choosing his language, and that he has told her he will not permit her to live with him. They were married on Christmas day, 1905.

Carpenter Injured by Elevator—T. M. Simpson was severely injured yesterday evening by being struck across the face with an elevator which had been unexpectedly lowered at the Oregon hotel where he was employed at carpenter work. His jaw and nose were broken and his face badly cut. He is recovering from his injuries at St. Vincent's hospital.

Chinese Gamblers Arrested — Two raids on Chinese gambling houses were made by Detectives Tichenor and Howell last night and resulted in six Chinamen being arrested under a charge of gambling and frequenting a house where gambling is going on. The first place raided was at 97 North Fourth street in what is known as new Chinatown. Here three Celestials known as Ah Jung, Ah Fow and Lee Fow were taken into custody. Going from the Fourth street house to Second street another raid was made at 89 Second street and here again a well appointed game of fan tan was found going on and here Ah Sam, Ah Sing and Ah Jim were placed under arrest. The detectives gathered in a lot of paraphernalia as evidence. The case was continued for hearing until May 13.

Retail Grocers' Meeting—An important meeting of the Portland Retail Grocers' association will be held tonight in Alisky hall, Third and Morrison streets. After the regular business meeting an open session will be held to which all the jobbers in the city are invited. The legal aspect of the national pure food laws will be the subject treated upon by A. B. Winfree, a member of the firm of Teal & Minor. He will tell the grocers about the many subterfuges and the labelling question as the law sees it. Cigars and sandwiches will be served.

Woman Sent to Jail—Ethel Ferguson, a woman arrested in Denney's place on Third street a few nights ago on a charge of vagrancy, was sentenced to do 60 days penance in the city jail by Judge Van Zante this morning. The woman was mixed up in the theft of $15 and a certificate of deposit amounting to $215.50 from David Howell, a Willamette valley farmer. She denies taking the money but admits sending a girl to the room where Howell was sleeping at the time he was robbed.

Mother Wants the Girl.—The custody of 13-year-old Grace May Dunckel will be determined by Juvenile Judge Bronaugh today. The child's father and mother have been divorced. The man was given the custody of the child, but is understood to have later turned the girl over to her mother. The mother married Ed Dunckel of Kelso, and is said to now be seeking a divorce from him. She wants the permanent custody of the girl.

Damage Case Is Unfinished.—Today in Judge Gantenbein's department of the circuit court a jury is hearing the evidence in the case of Joseph Ehalainen, administrator of the estate of Frank Mattson against Paquet, Giebisch & Joplin for $7500 damages for Mattson's death. Mattson was killed while at work in the Brooklyn sewer, on which the defendant company did considerable contract work.

Fined for Assault on Chinese—George Quinn was fined $25 in police court this morning on a charge of assault on Frank Obey, a Chinaman employed in a Sixth street restaurant. Quinn had believed he was overcharged for a meal and started a fight. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined.

Suit Over Commission — In the suit brought by W. H. Chapin and E. C. Herlow against C. W. Pallett for the recovery of $250 commission on a real estate deal which was not consummated, a jury in Judge Cleland's department of the circuit court last night found for the defendant.

Second House Party.—The second of the house parties under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Universalist Church of Good Tidings, will be held at the home of Mrs. Nellie Clapp, 53 Milburn street, Kern Park, Wednesday afternoon, May 12, from 2 to 5.

Page Company Incorporated.—Articles of incorporation of the Page Investment company, the capital stock of which is declared to be $50,000, were filed in the office of the county clerk today. The incorporators are J. H. Page, Fanny Page and F. H. Page. The company proposes to handle real estate.

Women's Press Club.—The annual meeting of the Women's Press club will be held this evening at 7:30, at the residence of the vice president, Mrs. Emma Sockles Marshall, 652 Multnomah street. The meeting is for members only. Election of officers will be held.

Mrs. Sleeth Will Speak.—Mrs. M. M. Sleeth will talk on "Bible Wines and Non-Alcoholic Medication," Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Central W. C. T. U. room, 606 Goodnough building.

Many Attorneys in Case—Today's session of Judge Morrow's department of the circuit court will be entirely taken up by the case of the J. K. Armsby company brought against the Northern Box Manufacturers' agency. The Armsby company demands $58,233 damages, alleging that the agency agreed in March, 1906, to furnish box shooks on 12 days' notice, but failed in the last three years to fill the orders, compelling the company to purchase shooks at a higher price. Each side is represented by some seven or eight attorneys. The morning session was taken up largely by arguments.

Sues Street Railway company—In Judge Gatens' department of the circuit court this afternoon a jury is being impaneled to try the case of Robert T. Stewart against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company. Stewart asks for $5000 damages for personal injuries. Stewart was driving a furniture van, and alleges that he was permanently injured when a streetcar collided with his equipage at the corner of East Twelfth and East Morrison streets.

New York Society—The New York State society of Oregon will meet this evening at Mrs. E. W. Gillespie's school of Expression, 524 Morrison street, corner of Seventeenth. There will be an entertaining program, and arrangements will be made for the summer meetings and the reception of visiting New Yorkers. All New Yorkers, either visitors or residents, are urged to attend.

Sent to the Asylum—Jean J. Boinsett, a native of France, 27 years of age, was committed to the state asylum for the insane at Salem yesterday. Boinsett was examined by Dr. E. D. Johnson, whose report states that the man believes his stomach sends such a force to his head that he grows tired and can not work. Boinsett is a glass blower by trade, and has been in the United States eight months.

Trust Company Incorporated—C. S. Nicklin, M. R. Lewis and L. L. Nicklin filed articles of incorporation of the Western Trust company, capital stock $2000, with the county clerk today. The company will do a general real estate and trust business.

NOT FOR AUDITOR TO JUDGE NAMES

Counsel in Municipal Lighting Bill Case Advances Contention.

That the city auditor should presume every initiative petition presented to him to be legal, and that he should file it and give it a place on the ballot unless he has proof of its illegality, was the contention made by Martin L. Pipes yesterday in arguing that Auditor Barbur should be required to place the municipal lighting question on the ballot. The same reasoning applies to the excise petition and the new bridge petition.

It was also the contention of Pipes that the auditor has no authority to check over the petitions by the registration books, because there may be any number of legal voters who have not registered, and the law says that any "legal" voter is qualified to sign. He was willing to concede that if the auditor found forged names on any page of a petition he had a right to look on all other pages filed by the same circulator with suspicion.

L. A. McNary, defending the city ordinance which bears his name, under which the auditor checked over names by the registration list, contended that a city ordinance should be given the same effect within its jurisdiction that an act of the legislature is given in the state, and that it should be upheld unless clearly in conflict with the constitution. Therefore, he held, the manner provided for checking over the petitions should be sustained, this being the only practical way of telling whether or not petitions are genuine.

City Attorney Kavanaugh made an argument sustaining the position of the auditor, and another talk on the same line was made by Ralph E. Moody. Among the interested spectators were Roger B. Sinnott, attorney for the liquor men, who is interested in keeping the excise petition off the ballot, and G. S. Shepherd, who would like to see the new bridge petition go on. Judge Bronaugh, when he passes on the question argued yesterday, will also decide the main point involved in the excise and bridge petition cases.

MUSTACHE GOES UP WITH SEATTLE GAS

Tests of gopher gas, a new explosive, manufactured in Seattle, have proven disastrous in Oregon. The complaint made by experimenters and by those who have endeavored to put the gas to practical use is that the explosion comes dangerously soon after the fuse has been lighted and there seems to be no method by which the time of the explosion can be regulated.

B. M. Dimick of Woodburn, Or., was nearly blinded by a premature blast. His face was badly burned and the skin blown from his right hand. S. A. Peterson of Mount Angel, Or., was badly burned about the face and a mustache, of which he was very proud, was completely removed. At the time he was lighting the fuse attached to a quantity of the gopher gas. The explosion followed immediately and Peterson now considers himself lucky to have lost only his mustache.

BUILD CHURCH AT ROSE CITY PARK

Home Mission Committee Gets Permission From Presbytery.

At the meeting of Portland presbytery yesterday afternoon at Calvary church, the home mission committee asked the presbytery to give authority to organize a Presbyterian church at Rose City Park and to begin a canvass for $400 which is needed to complete the purchase of a quarter block at Forty-fifth and Hancock streets for that purpose. This committee also asked indorsement of the presbytery to the request of Mount Tabor church for a loan from the board of church erection, not to exceed $5000, for a new church building.

While the indorsement of the presbytery of Rev. Edgar P. Hill's candidacy for moderator of the general assembly was unanimous, an interesting debate arose as to whether the commissioners from Portland presbytery should go instructed to work for Dr. Hill or whether the indorsement should be understood to carry that authority and the delegates be left free to use their own discretion; the resolution was finally passed as first proposed, instructing the commissioners from the local presbytery to vote for Dr. Hill and to endeavor to get the Washington delegates to stand with them; also to do anything legitimate which would further Dr. Hill's election. A resolution was passed indorsing Rev. E. M. Sharp, of the Mount Tabor church, for the position of pacific coast secretary made vacant by the death of Dwight E. Potter of San Francisco, this resolution to be forwarded to the board of foreign missions.

Dr. Sharp in response to the nomination, replied briefly saying that he was not greatly concerned over the probability that the general board of foreign missions would not act upon the suggestion of Portland presbytery, but that if anything should come of it he would give the matter his careful consideration.

Miss Marie C. Brehm of the general assembly's committee on temperance spoke in behalf of agitation and education in temperance work and urged the necessity for individual work.

P. P. Leche and O. M. Scott of the Presbyterian Brotherhood urged the ministers present to give their best efforts in stimulating interest in the convention of this organization to be held June 8 and 9 in this city.

A NEW DEPARTURE
The cost of interments have been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.
Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
