Gigantic Sale Trimmed Hats at $6.98

Lunch in Our Cosy Tea Room

See the Three Big Windows, Fifth and Washington Streets

The tremendous success of our sale two weeks ago, gave us an opportunity to surpass the values that we offered that time—and they stood for the climax in millinery bargains in Portland. The last sale was even more of a success than we had hoped it COULD be, and we sold all the hats bought long ere we expected. The prestige given us by this tremendous deal reached the ears of another wholesaler whose name is synonymous with quality wherever fine headgear is known. He wanted a large operator to take an immense surplus off of his hands and we were wired to come and inspect his line. Our millinery chief made a flying trip and made the "buy of his life." Says that in ordinary times he can't buy hats like these for less than TWICE FOR WHAT HE'LL SELL THEM FOR NOW. Paid cash on the nail for every hat in the lot and brought them with him. THE ENTIRE LOT OF 2280 HATS GO ON SALE TOMORROW, FRIDAY.

LOT 1 is made up of rich and tasteful, original and stylish hats in flower trimmed effects, and the regular values in this assortment run up to $25.00. Large or small shapes, all sorts of colors and all sorts of combinations in trimming. Ribbons, flowers, wings, silk, and other decorations are freely used. Worth to $25.00, choice

$6.98

LOT 2 is made up of Trimmed Hats in the piquant, jaunty models that have been in vogue this spring among only the good millinery shops and have sold in nearly all stores at up to $12.50. Your choice

$50.00 Dresses at $10.98

Note the illustration. It shows you one of the silk dresses and one of the Worsted models in this superb assortment. Seldom anyone gets such an opportunity as this to purchase high-class attire at absurdly small prices. The materials are wool, poplins, light-weight broadcloths, fine wool voiles, with silk linings, Rajah silk, taffeta silk, Messaline silk and pongee silk. There is a wide diversity of choice as to style, color, pattern and trimming. Fastidious and hard to please, indeed, would be the woman who, among this magnificent selection, could not choose at least one dress. It is one of the best bargain-day offers we have ever made. All the best colors are well represented. Values to $50.00; choice at the low price of $10.98
