Trial for Damages-Today a jury in Trial for Damages—Today a jury in Judge Gantenbein's department of the circuit court is hearing evidence in the $7500 damage suit brought by Joseph Ehalainen, administrator of the estate of Antii Joatinell, against Paquet, Gelbisch & Joplin, a contracting firm which did considerable work on the Brooklyn sewer. Joatinell was killed, with two others, while working in the sewer. The present case is the second of a series of three brought by Ehalainen who acts as administrator for the three men killed against the contracting com-pany. In the case of Frank Mattson, the first tried, the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. T. S. Linscott

The International Newspaper Bible Study club is for the purpose of promoting in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, barring only ordained clergymen. All who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compets for the prizes.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes, and the back questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes, and the back questions may be obtained by addressing this office.

This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly in both the Saturday and Sunday Issues of The Journal. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

Conditions of the Contest.

Conditions of the Contest. 1. Each contestant, or his or her family must be a subscriber to this paper, in order to qualify for membership in the Internstional Newspaper Bible Study club and this local club.

2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Sunday, March 14, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed 200 words in length and may be less. Each answer must be set the pattern of the paper with the potition.
