

UNIVERSITY SENDS SHOW TO SEATTLE

"Bridge of the Gods," Depicting Indian Life, Daily Attraction.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 20.—Contracts between Professor F. Wesley Orr, head of the department of drama and public speaking, and the management of the Alaska-Pacific-Yukon exposition, whereby the students of that university will present the play, "The Bridge of the Gods," as a regular attraction at the exposition during the summer. By the terms of the agreement, the students will present the drama every evening in the large amphitheatre, where an outdoor setting and natural scenery, conducive to the wild Indian sentiment of the play, will be available.

The play is a dramatization of the famous novel by the class of '05, and was presented in the Irving theatre, Portland, two years ago with remarkable success. By rewriting and working over several parts of the play, Professor Orr has eliminated the amateurish tone which was somewhat criticized in the early productions.

Depicts Indian Life.
The drama gives a picture of the life of the aborigines before being influenced by the civilization of the white man, and is an accumulation of the Indian legends concerning the bridge of the gods which is supposed to have hung across the Columbia river near the Dalles. It portrays the confederacy formed by the Willamettes, which was destroyed after the fall of the bridge. The story brings in many of the missionaries and pioneers who worked among the redmen.

Professor Orr will play the part of Gray, the mission man. W. E. Owen, the victor of the Pacific coast prohibition oratorical contest last week, will carry the role of Sulmonah, the chief of the Willamettes and head of the confederacy. The other members of the cast are: Snouqualmie, J. R. Ward; Atahiah, D. A. Moley; Tolomiah, Silverman; Wallulah, daughter of Mulnomah; Grace Payne; Wahouacus, Norcross; Wagner, Wainwright; H. E. Farr; also about 50 runners, chiefs and warriors.

BIG PRODUCTION BEGINS TONIGHT

The great dramatic event of the year is the coming of the Heilig theatre players and the Russian Symphony orchestra. This combination numbers over 100 people. In the orchestra alone there are 60 musicians, under the leadership of Modest Altschuler. Mr. Greet's company is composed of 35 players, dancers and singers.

The works of Shakespeare have served as inspiration to some of the greatest composers, and their music will be used with these presentations. This promises to be one of the most splendid spectacles ever witnessed in the west.

The opening performance will be given in the Heilig theatre this evening. For this night "A Midsummer Night's Dream" has been selected, and with it will be rendered Mendelssohn's exquisite musical setting. Saturday afternoon and evening the same play will be repeated. Included in the orchestral renditions will be all the familiar Mendelssohn selections.

There will be a grand final chorus of faeries, and incidental to the play Miss Grace Clark Yachler will sing solos, "The Spotted Snake" and "Through This House." Mr. Greet not only has the personal supervision of the whole dramatic production, but he also takes an important part in the plays. In this case he will give a wonderful portrayal of Bottom, the Weaver, and "Hermia" will be played by Miss Irene Rooke, "Hippolyta" by Miss Grace Halsey Mills, "Queen of the Fairies" by Miss Ruth Vivian, and "Titania" by Miss Violet Vivian. "Puck" will be attractive in the hands of George Vivian, and Milton Rosmer will be "Oberon," the Fairy King.

Sunday night "The Tempest" will be given, with incidental music by Sir Arthur Sullivan. "Tchaikovsky's" "Overture Fantasia" will also be rendered, and between two of the scenes an interlude, "Isle of Love," by Glazounow, from the suite, "The Middle Ages," will be given. The interlude is presented by spirits and is featured by a fair-like dance by Miss Ruth Vivian—scotte, an enchanted island. Mr. Greet will play Caliban; Milton Rosmer, Ferdinand; Miss Irene Rooke, Ceres; Miss Grace Halsey Mills, Iris; and Miss Violet Vivian, Miranda.

THOUGHT GASOLINE WAS WATER; BURNED

(United Press Special Wire.)
Haywards, Cal., May 21.—Professor John Gamble, principal of the Haywards high school, is in agony from burns he sustained when a bottle of gasoline exploded in his hand and the little children who were attending a birthday party at his home narrowly escaped serious injury.

Professor Gamble lost the sense of smell some years ago, and when he wanted a bottle of distilled water to fill a teakettle on a hot stove, he took the bottle of gasoline by mistake.

The 10 children were gathered in the kitchen where candy was to be made, when the professor started to pour the gasoline into the kettle. The explosion went flames all over him and he was seriously burned about the breast, face and hands. The children were panic-stricken, but none was badly hurt.

PAINFUL TREATMENT OF SCIATICA

Of the many forms which rheumatism takes, that which is popularly known as sciatic rheumatism probably tortures its victims more than any other. That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured this stubborn as well as painful trouble is a fact proved by the following statement, and no sufferer who reads this can afford to let anything stand in the way of trying this treatment.

Statement of Mr. George E. Owen, of No. 44 Lincoln Street, South Framingham, Mass., is convincing proof of the superiority of the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills over the usual medical treatments for sciatica. Mr. Owen is an engineer with the Dennison Mfg. Co. where he has been employed for over 35 years. Of his cure, Mr. Owen says:

"Through overwork and a bad cold, which settled in my back, I was attacked by sciatica in my right leg several years ago. I was bent over with pain which was continually present. It grew so much worse that the doctor recommended a blistering plaster. Then my leg was lanced and the pain relieved by injections of morphine. After all this treatment for the sciatica I was left in a run-down condition and my doctor failed to build up my strength. My blood was in poor shape and I had no appetite. I was restless at night. There was a constant dull ache across my back. During my sickness I was often confined to my bed and lost in weight from 165 pounds to 115 pounds.

"I was in despair of ever getting better but fortunately Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me by some friends. The pills soon had my blood in good condition, but I took them steadily until I was fully restored to health. I am very grateful for the benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills gave me and always recommend them."

If you are suffering from sciatica and the treatment you are taking is not relieving you, if you are actually getting worse while taking other treatment, then do not delay but give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a thorough trial. The remedy that cures others will cure you.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

PRETENDED WEALTH HIS DOWNFALL

Roseburg, Or., May 21.—Two men were sentenced today by Judge Hamilton to the penitentiary. One was George F. Meyer, man of many aliases, who pretended to be the possessor of a vast fortune in Colorado, by which means he pretended to buy the leading hotel in this city. While the deal was being fixed up, he forged two checks, one for $200 and the other for $75, both of which were cashed by a local bank upon the recommendation of the parties he was dealing with and upon the strength of two or three telegrams he sent for money in Denver. Meyer got two years. The other was a fellow 22 years of age, who pleaded guilty to robbing a rooming house, and on account of his age received a sentence of one year.

New Masonic Temple.

Sheboygan, Wis., May 21.—The new Masonic temple was dedicated in "due form" today, the ceremonies being more elaborate and imposing than any before seen in this city. In honor of the occasion many business houses were tastefully decorated with bunting and Masonic emblems. Prominent Masons from all parts of the state attended the ceremonies, among them being Reviving Master James E. Durkin of Racine, and Grand Secretary W. V. Perry of Milwaukee. The ceremonies were under the direction of Sheboygan lodge No. 1, which was chartered in 1847.
