Despondent Man's Suicids—J. H. Johnsen of Colorado Springs, Colo.; committed suicide at 4 p. m. Yesterday by drinking the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid at Second and Harrison streets. Johnson was a man 50 years of age and had been out of work for some time and it was despondency which caused him to end his tife. He bought the poison at the Acme Pharmacy at Third and Burnside streets yesterday afternoon, crossed the city and in full view of several passers-by drank the contents of the bottle. G. E. Phillips and A. H. Robertson saw the man drink the poison and demanded the bottle. He turned it over to them, walked to First and Harrison streets and there collapsed. He was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital, but died on the way there. A slip of paper was found in his pocket giving his name and address, and a pawn ticket was also found on hes person. The body was removed to the morgue.

Call to Frayer—The Woman's Christian Temperance union earnestly requests all those in the city to unite with them in observing Wednesday, May 26, as a day of fasting and prayer that a man may be chosen as mayor in the coming election who will best advance the cause of purity and righteousness, and for his guidance in the management and succeasful outcome of the coming statewide temperance campaign. By order of the state evangelist, Mrs. C. U. Badgley. An hour will be spent in prayer for our city and state at Central W. C. T. U., meeting at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at room 500 Goodnough building. Mrs. L. H. Additon will speak on "Temperance and Labor." Call to Frayer-The Woman's Chris-

Bishop's Title Changed — Bishop Charles E. Scadding of the diocese of Oregon has filed supplemental articles of incorporation changing the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States in and for the State of Oregon" to "Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Oregon." The original incorporation papers were filed by Bishop B. Wistar Morris in 1874. Bishop Morris died in 1906 and was succeeded by Bishop Charles E. Scadding. The change was made as set forth in the supplemental articles of incorporation filed today for the purpose of abbreviating the name of the corporation.

Wife and Child Missing—R. T. Dick-inson of 512 Patton road reports his wife and 7-year-old daughter Pearl missing since last Saturday afternoon. They left home then and have not been seen since. He describes his wife as being 29 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches tall, weighing 190 pounds, and as being a blonde. When last seen she was wearing a blue hat, a black skirt and a blue jacket. He has requested the police to assist him in locating his wife.

Suit Over Painting—The case of Sutcliffe & Blied versus J. A. Buckley and the Oregon Real Estate company is on trial before Judge Cleland. The plaintiffs brought suit to recover $104 for labor and material furnished in painting a house in Holladay addition. Judge Morrow is trying the case of the Portland Sash & Door company against K. E. Parker, a suit brought to recover $300 for material furnished in the construction of a house in Ivanhoe addition.

has reported to the police station that the son of City Engineer Taylor was operating an automobile, No. 1254, on Washington street, between Seventh and Park, yesterday afternoon at aspeed of about 20 miles an hour. He stated that young Taylor admitted exceeding the speed limit, but said he had to do so to avoid a collision with a Twenty-third street car. No warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Two New Deputies—City Building Inspector G. E. Dobson is to have two more deputies to help handle the growing business of the office. The ways and means committee of the council yesterday recommended that the deputies he provided for constant. ties be provided for, one at a salary of $125 and the other at $100 a month.

June 3. These acts will be selected from the programs for that week at all the houses in the city and are expected to draw an immense crowd.

This woodsawing contest is to be a hummer. Ten of the husklest theatrical managers in the city are to be started at the job of sawing wood as they used to when they were kids, the one sawing three pieces quickest to be given a huge solid silver loving cup, the gift of Jaeger Bros. The cup will be placed on exhibition at Swetland's tomorrow. Rivalry over the possession of this on exhibition at Swetland's tomorrow. Rivalry over the possession of this cup is intense and everywhere in the theatres they are wondering who will be the champion woodsawer of the profession. George L. Baker, because of his tremendous size and the reputation which he gained in the council chambers for sawing wood, is at present a favorite. He has no cinch, however. Probably today or tomorrow the implements of war, namely the saw and sawbuck to be used by each contestant, will be placed on exhibition in down town windows.

One of the head liners is to be an town windows.

One of the head liners is to be an original little comedy by Miss Louise Kent, the popular member of the Baker stock company. The playlet is called "Sold" and was written only recently by Miss Kent, herself. She is to be assisted by Miss Donale Benrino, late of the S. Miller-Kent Co., but now of this city and another member of the Baker stock company, yet to be selected.

Baser stock company, yet to be selected.

Miss Marguerite Egbert, a monologuist, and Leo Shapirer, a trick planist, both local people are billed for short stunts, while the rest of the program is to be made up from the local vaude-ville houses.

Well Known Character Accused by Margaret Cosgrove of Assault.

Charged with pursuing and shooting at 14-year-old Margaret Cosgrove, of 550 Front street, a warrant has been issued for the arrest of "Umbrella Jim" Sheridan, a well known character of the south end of the city. The little girl swore out a complaint before the district attorney this morning, charging Sheridan with assault with a dangerous
