COMMITTEE OF 15 FAVORS RICKY

reports. My personal opinion is that it would give a more business like city government.

H. H. Newhall is also for the new plan. "I am in favor of the charter proposed," said, "and signed the petition to the board asking it to be submitted to the voters of the city for their approval. I favor it because it takes the responsibility upon the officials of the city and makes them directly answerable to the people for their official acts."

Finds Many Good Points.
O. A. Ritan is enthusiastic over the new plan.

"It is the real thing," he says. "I was not in favor of it at first, but now I am very much so. The more I looked into its merits the more I liked it and I think it is the only practical system for the government of a city."

T. R. Wilcox is in favor of the plan, though he has more strong upon the careful selection of public officials than upon the form of the charter.

"When the charter was under discussion I took occasion to make a few remarks," said Mr. Wilcox. "I said it was not so much a question of a charter as of the people who would hold the offices. If the people would give the same careful attention to finding good men to hold office, get good government under any charter, I do not oppose the new charter, but I believe that the proper thing to do is to see the grade of the men who administer the affairs of the city."

S. Grutze is not in favor of the commission plan. "I do not like the commission plan, but am in favor of a happy medium between that and the present system," he said. "I believe that the commission has gone a little too far. My principal objection is that when men are elected to office, as under the present system, it will be hard to get men to head the different departments who are qualified to train the public in the proper way. If we are to go that far, the election of a mayor who has the power of appointing the different departments from a list of men especially qualified by experience and training to fill the position required."

Greater Dispatch and Efficiency.
L. W. Montague summarizes his reasons for favoring the proposed charter. He says:

"The chief advantages offered by the proposed charter are (1) greater dispatch and efficiency in the conduct of public business (2) definite location of responsibility (3) the fact that the council are made actually answerable to the public for results; and it is impossible on the one hand to have the shortcomings of the present system, and on the other hand good work is sure to be known of all men. (3) By providing good salaries and requiring the entire time to be at least offered to the opportunity to do honest and skilled work for honor and money, and to the city justice and not devote practically his whole time to it."

"And lastly, by providing means and by diminishing the number to be chosen at a time we will quite certainly secure a better class of men. The better teaching out of theory alone but of actual experience."

Senator Gearin Favors It.
Senator Gearin is also in favor of the proposed charter and believes its adoption would bring good results to the city.

There are two principal points of merit in the charter as it is proposed," said Senator Gearin. "One is the elimination of politics from the elections of the administrative officers of the city; the other is that the six councilmen and the mayor are to be placed in good salaries, and are to be required to give their whole time and attention to the conduct of the offices held by them."

The indications are for a change to the new plan and it should pass for the good of the city government.

In addition to these the remaining members of the committee of 15, Dr. H. Chapman, Dr. J. H. Beach and F. E. Beach are all understood to be in favor of the proposed charter, though Frederick Y. Herman had a minority vote on the charter plan and is opposed to its adoption.

FOR NEW READERS

Big Enterprise Inaugurated by The World's Work to Increase Its Subscriptions.

There is the keenest sort of competition among the many magazines to add subscribers, and this accounts for the remarkable effort of The World's Work in now making a list of all the magazines published in the United States, and attracting public attention from a literary, educational and business viewpoint. The magazine has been able to get itself the task of quickly securing a large number of additional regular readers.

This magazine realized that to accomplish this task it must do something out of the ordinary, which it did, by proceeding to arrange for the entire edition of the great Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia and Atlas, the idea being to bring down the cost of the book to the people by distributing it in this way. This was accomplished by printing the latest edition ever before prepared, by cutting out the big commissions that had been paid to book agents, and by selling the work, and by making other economies, in no way interfering with the high standard of the magazine, but, per printing and binding, which had always characterized the Century.

And so what is left of the original big edition has been set aside for certain favored libraries, and the large cities as distributing points, and several hundred sets for Portland are being placed through the hands of the J. K. Gill company, where those who apply promptly may now secure the splendid work at a price that almost everyone can afford and also on convenient terms of payment.

RICKEY ASSOCIATE IS UNDER ARREST

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, June 1.—I. Hirschfeld, once associated with the T. B. Rickey banking interests in Nevada, is in custody here charged with embezzlement. He was arrested on an indictment brought by the grand jury of Esmeralda county, Nevada. He was arrested last evening at the St. Francis hotel while in the company of Earl Rogers, attorney for Patrick Calahan. Hirschfeld was formerly cashier of the State Bank & Trust company of Nevada, of which T. B. Rickey was president. When the bank failed about a year and a half ago, Hirschfeld was indicted. His arrest, it is thought by the police, was wanted by the Nevada authorities to clear up the alleged connection with the Rickey failures. He is at present identified with Bakersfield oil interests.

U. of O. Seniors Prepare Theses.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, June 1.—The senior theses of the engineering department this year will be of a practical nature. Four seniors are designing a power plant while two others are conducting a test of cement mortar. Others are working on railway construction, irrigation systems, mine surveying and architecture.
