

TRACK DIAMOND

TWENTY SWATS COLTS PORTION

LANGFORD PUTS JOE TO FLIGHT

McGreevy looks better every day.

Hogan tried to kick in the first inning but was silenced so effectually that he never started again.

Stovall's poor judgment twice yesterday. The first time when he misjudged Olson's fly and then missed the catch, allowing the clever shortstop to get away with a double play in the sixth, when he got out one base on Olson's wild throw over Ort's head.

Wonder if there are too many left-handed batsmen on that Vernon team? You bet there are. They are the life line of the lineup. A great many cellar champions seem afflicted that way. Notice the Vernon team of 1910, and 1911, and years ago, the Aberdeen team and any number of others. None of them was a left-handed pitcher. I think that they had too many left handed bats for perfect balance.

•

Ort's kicking in the sixth was useless and senseless too, for he was out a block at second. Kennedy's kicking was a waste of time, as he was running in

was also out a mile.

Eagan showed some of the old Tar-mo-ny head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He muffed it, but succeeded in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Ron Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Quinn are outfielding awesomely, at Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomical Cuban pitcher, for some big league for several players to bolster the

Was also out a mile.

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun First base. McGowan relayed to him the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He made a throw to McGowan to keep Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that "Pon Raftery and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but McGowan is not doing so well as not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough."

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league team. However, relating to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, Portland would do well to send in this extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire is needed, for the three are fighting for every inch of ground.

Collis Dwyer, the Portland manager,

was also out a mile. ♦ ♦ ♦

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head work when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun him, but the crowd didn't relate to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

♦ ♦ ♦

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

♦ ♦ ♦

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing well. The latter is a good pitcher. Gray is moving along swimmingly, but Danzig and Heltnmuller are not burning up. Both, however, are promising enough.

♦ ♦ ♦

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league for several players to bolster up the south. The south offers him more than made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

♦ ♦ ♦

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would do well to send out a scout to get the best players to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire is needed, for the clubs are fighting for every inch of ground.

♦ ♦ ♦

Colly Drahott, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out to him. He might have worn it on Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and they will be out in force to help him start for the first time in several years.

♦ ♦ ♦

By the way Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Danny Shea, instead of letting him get away with a flyer. He is a very good ball player for the Laruppers. He would be a great backstop for Casey's Colts to

was also out a mile.

.....

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun him, but was caught by Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

.....

Breen recovered beautifully in the eighth. He was completely grounded. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

.....

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Raftery and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

.....

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal outfielder and catcher, for some big league for several players to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made for Lewis, but he is in no hurry to leave and not money that they are after.

.....

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would do well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These two places are where an additional umpire is badly needed for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

.....

Colly Druhot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, has popped up in the lineup yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. He will be a lot of friends here, and they will be in line to force to see him start for the first time in several years.

.....

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Bunny Shea. Instead of giving him an offer to Seattle, Shea is catching heat ball for the Larupers. He would have made a great catcher for Casey's Colts to help out Murray. He would have filled in to a nicety in the coast league.

.....

WALKER PREPPING FOR MEXICAN INVASION

(Edited From Los Angeles Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter man of the Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma "burr" head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun a third or two, but Matt's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Breen recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He muffed it, but recovered in time to tag Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Peunie and Helminger are not burling up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league for extra money to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would do well to send the extra umpire, Kinison, north to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire is needed, for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave him the nine o'clock pitch the little southpaw Sunday. "I might pitch for Casey's club here, and they will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years."

By the way, Manager Mac should have tied the same flyer with Danny Shea. Instead of losing him to Seattle, Shea is catching great ball for the Larupers. He would have made a great backstop for Casey's club to help Tom Murray, or he would have filled in to a nicety in the coast league.

WALKER TREPPING FOR AN AMERICAN INVASION

(United Press League Wire.)

London, July 28.—Lassie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter man of the United States and Europe during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracks, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another crack at the champion of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated was also out a mile.

• • •

Edden showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun the catcher in the seventh. More relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

• • •

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on a single, and he muffed, but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

• • •

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are making some progress. Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

• • •

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal outfielder, for some of the money for several players to bolster up the Oakes. Several cash offers have been made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

• • •

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, Wednesday evening won't do well to send this extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where the umpires are most needed, and the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

• • •

Colly Drahot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. He is a good enough slugger that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and they will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years.

• • •

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Dunny Shea, instead of letting him get away from Seattle. She is catching great ball for the strapping pitcher who has made a great buckaroo for Casey's Colts to help Tom Murray, or he would have filled in to a nicety in the coast league.

• • •

WALKER PREPPING FOR A AMERICAN INVASION

(Edited Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cranks, and would see the once of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in London.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American, and he is of the opinion that at anytime the difference of opinion that exists on either side of the Atlantic regarding the speed of the two cranks.

Walker said today that after leaving South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9 2-5

was also out a mile.

Eagan heard some of the old Tacoma head wags when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun the bases. But that's the way to nab the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He made a fine throw. Mom's relay to Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Joe Raftery and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Dingle and Detmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league for several million to bolster the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would very well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire is needed, for the Reds and the fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahut, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might come to bolster the Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and they will be out in force to give him a heart for the first time in several years.

By the way, manager Mac should have taken the sumo wrestler, Danny Shea, instead of letting him get away to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball and he might really would have made a great backstop for the team. He would help Tom Murray, or he would have filled in to a nicety in that league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracks, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in 1924.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all in the difference of opinion that exists on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cracks. Walker said today that before leaving South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9 2-5 seconds on three occasions.

A. E. Postle, an Australian sprinter, is possible that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, a

was also out a mile.

Shaw showed some of the old Tarzans. Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun the other way. But Ed's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth. But he was out when he muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Raftery and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are doing extremely well. Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trade. But few deals. He phenomenal Oakland outfielder is some big league for several players to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made for him. But he is not ready to leave and not money that they are after.

By the way, Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week. President Ewing would do well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places, where an additional umpire is needed, for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Druhot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw against the big lefty of the Giants here, and they will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years.

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Bunny Shea for the big league. He is bound to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball for the Laruppers. He would have made a fine pitcher in the Colts to help fill Tom Murray, or he would have helped in to a nifty in the league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(United Press—Lensed Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracker preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in the 100 meter race.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all on the difference of opinion that has arisen on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cracker.

Walker met today, before leaving South Africa, in a 100 yard race in 9 2-5 seconds on three occasions.

A. E. Postle, an Australian sprinter, who is expected to accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captains

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5. (P. R. Poff staff correspondent.)

A meeting of the baseball team and a meeting of the basketball team were held today. P. R. Poff was elected captain for next year. This is Poff's second year on the team, and he has been in the left field and at the bat has helped with many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratifies students and team members.

At the basketball game, the team won the northwest conference championship by winning two out of three games with

was also out a mile.

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun the bases and that he would relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Hogan's grounder. He made a beautiful throw to catch Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from east that Don Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Dazie and Buttimore are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league club for several players to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made the Oakland club, but it is players and not money that they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing wants to send them his extra umpire, Atkinson, to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire is needed, for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and they will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years.

By the way, manager Mac should have taken this summer with Bunny Shea, instead of letting him get away to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball and that is the only reason he has made a great backup for Casey's left arm. Help Tom Murray, or he would have filled in to a nicety in the coast league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracks, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. He is in excellent trim, and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in 1924.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all, to the difference of opinion that exists on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cracks. Walker said today that before leaving for South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9.25 seconds on three occasions.

A. E. Postle, an Australian, is now in London. It is probable that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, at a meeting of the baseball team today, was elected captain for next year. This is Poff's second year on the team, and his steady playing in left field and at the bat has helped win many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratifies students and team mates. The O. A. C. team claims the Northwest championship for 1924 by winning two out of three games with the University of Oregon.

was also out a mile.

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun third, and was correct. Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth on a grounder from Poff. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the Cleveland scout, Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are doing well in swimming. Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some team for several players to bolster up the Onks. Several cash offers have been made and they are club, but it is played for and not money that they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, Portland feeling would do well to send this extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where a good and loyal umpire is needed for players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahbot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here and they are all in for to see him start for the first time in several years.

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Danny Shea, instead of letting him get away to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball for the Laruppers. He would have made a good backstop for Casey's Colts to beat them. Tom Murray, or he would have filled in nicely in the coast league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(Culted Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracker, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in London.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all time the difference of opinion that exists on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cracker. Walker said today that before leaving South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9-2-5 seconds on three occasions.

A. E. Pottle, an Australian sprinter, is here. It is possible that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, at a meeting of the baseball team today, was elected captain for next year. This is Poff's second year on the team, and he is steady playing in left field and at the bat has helped with many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratified students and team mates. The O. A. C. team claims the northwest conference championship by winning three of its three games with the University of Oregon.

Also again out a mile.

.....

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun third, and was correct. Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

.....

Breen reacted beautifully in the eighth, instead of being hindered. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Huppy at first with a quick throw.

.....

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

.....

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, for some big league for several players to bolster up the Oaks. Several cash offers have been made, but it is doubtful if any players and money that they are after.

.....

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would do well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where an additional umpire will be needed for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

.....

Colly Druhot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down to Oakland, is letting a Beaver suit yesterday. Manager Mac gave word that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and they will be in line to see him start for the first time in several years.

.....

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Danny Walker as he let him get away to Seattle. She is catching great ball for the Larupers. He would have made a great backup for Casey's Colts to have, and they will be in line to be filled in to a nicety in the coast league.

.....

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(Quoted Press Leased Wire.)

.....

London, June 5.—Roggie Walker, the crack South African player, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cranks, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Recto of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in London.

.....

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all this difference of opinion that has existed on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cranks. Walker said today that before leaving London he had beaten six Americans in 9-2-5 seconds on three occasions.

.....

A. E. Postle, an Australian sprinter, is sure it is possible that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

.....

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, at a meeting of the baseball team today, was elected captain for next year. This is Poff's second year on the team, and his steady playing in left field and at the bat has helped win many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratifies students and team mates. The O. A. C. team claims the Northwest conference championship by winning two out of three games with the University of Oregon.

.....

How to Make Whiskies

.....

key production of Kentucky is llons, consisting of good, bad whiskies—principally indifferent. Mean whiskies used for making and concoctions, and usually sold at a "low price."

was also out a mile.

Eagan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrun third, and was correct. Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Breen recovered beautifully in the eighth inning on Horst's ground ball. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Rafferty and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Prudden swing around swimmingly, but Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trading Duffy Lewis, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league for several players to bolster up the Onks. Several cash offers have been made, and a strong club, but it is played more for money than they are fighting.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing would do well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight places are where the occasional umpire is needed for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahbot, the Portland boy, who went up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw Sunday. Colly has a lot of friends here, and the word will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years.

By the way, Manager Mac should have taken the same flyer with Danny Shea, instead of letting him get away to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball for the Larappers. He would have made a great backstop for Casey's Colts to help Jim Murray, or the Coats would have thrived in the coast league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(Coltured Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cracker, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Recker of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in London.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all time the difference of opinion that exists on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cracker. Walker said today that before leaving South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9 2-5 seconds on bare occasions.

E. Postle, an Australian sprinter, is here. It is possible that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, at a meeting of the baseball team today, was elected captain for next year. This is Poff's second year on the team, and at this steady playing in left field and at bat has helped with many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratifies students and team mates. The O. A. C. team claims the northwest conference championship by winning two out of three games with the University of Oregon.

How to Make Whiskies

Key production of Kentucky is whiskeys, consisting of good, bad whiskeys—principally indifferent. Cheap whiskeys used for making and concoctions, and usually sold as "fine Kentucky whiskeys" of raw materials in

H. McBrayer's

"Old Buckle" 1909

Bottled in Bond

formula of 62 years ago, prohibits handing it for cheapening purloin is allowed to remain 8 years in g bottled in bond, which makes it distill whiskeys produces. The distillery is in Anderson County—heart of the region—home of fine whiskey.

Also eaten out a mile.

Engan showed some of the old Tacoma Tiger head worn when he caught Kennedy at the plate in the sixth. He had an idea that Ed would overrule the third and was correct. Mott's relay to the plate had Ed beaten a mile.

Green recovered beautifully in the eighth inning to throw out the runner. He muffed it but recovered in time to nab Happy at first with a quick throw.

Jim McGuire, the Cleveland scout, brings word from the east that Tom Raftery and Teddy Easterly are doing nicely in the big brush. Groom and Gray are moving along swimmingly, but Danzig and Heltmuller are not burning up the leagues. Both, however, are promising enough.

There is some talk in the south of trial in Dunsmuir, the phenomenal Oakland outfielder, to some big league for several players to bolster up the club. The money cash offers have been made the Oakland club but it is plain that they are not cash they are after.

With Sacramento and Portland fighting hard for third place next week, President Ewing won't do well to send his extra umpire, Atkinson, north to help out. These tight grounds where an additional umpire is needed, for the players are fighting for every inch of ground.

Colly Drahot, the Portland boy, who was shut up to the big league and down again, appeared in a Beaver uniform yesterday. Manager Mac gave it out that he might pitch the little southpaw a great backstop for Coey's College here, and they will be out in force to see him start for the first time in several years.

By the way, Manager Mac should have had the same flyer with Danny Shea, instead of letting him get away to Seattle. Shea is catching great ball for the Larupers. He would have made a great backstop for Coey's College. Help Tom Murray, or he would have fallen in to a necty in the coast league.

WALKER PREPPING FOR AMERICAN INVASION

(United Press—Lensed Wire.)

London, June 5.—Reggie Walker, the crack South African sprinter, who defeated the fastest 100 meter men of the United States and Europe, during the London Olympic games, is indulging in a series of matches with local cranks, preparatory to his invasion of the United States. Walker is in excellent trim and has expressed his desire of another meeting with Jimmie Rector of the University of Virginia, whom he defeated in London.

Walker appears confident of repeating his victory over the speedy American and would settle once and for all the difference of opinion that has existed on either side of the Atlantic regarding the abilities of the two cranks.

Walker said today that before leaving South Africa he ran 100 yards in 9 2-5 seconds on three occasions.

A Portland Australian sprinter, is here. It is possible that he will accompany Walker to America to meet the best men of the states.

Portland Boy Captain.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 5.—P. R. Poff of Portland, at a meeting of the baseball team today, was elected captain for next year. This is the Poff's second year on the team, and this is why playing in the field and at the bat has helped him with many victories for O. A. C. The choice is a popular one, and gratifies students and team mates. The O. A. C. team claims the northwest conference championship by a 4-0 record in the games with the University of Oregon.

How to Make Your Whiskies

The key production of Kentucky is whiskeys, consisting of good, bad whiskeys—principally indifferent, mean whiskeys used for making and concoctions, and usually sold as "fine Kentucky whiskeys" of raw materials in

H. McBraver's
Old Kentucky 1909
Bottled in Bond

formula of 62 years ago, prohibits handling it for cheapening purloin is allowed to remain 8 years in glass bottled in bond, which makes it the best whiskey Kentucky produces. The distillery is in Anderson County—heart of the region—home of fine whiskey, and wherever good liquor is sold.

Anderson, Brook Distillery
Lynchburg, Ky.

Today's Schedule—Starting 4 o'Clock

Rheumatism

such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of

Chamberlain's Liniment

is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and

DISEASES

ult. or complete
ESS." CON-
BLOOD POI-
LE and all re-permanently.

ST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS
you the very best opinion, guided by out of town. In trouble, write if you canto proper home treatment and cure.
9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and Sundays from

DR. TAYLOR.
The Leading Specialist.

TAYLOR CO.

EN IN PORTLAND
T OUR FREE

OF ANATOMY
(STAIRS), Bet. 4th and 5th Sts.
COLLECTION OF LIFE-LIKE
DEMONSTRATING PERFECT
SEX CONDITIONS OF MEN.

VE CURE

WEAKNESS, BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, SORES, ULCERS, SWOLLEN GLANDS, KIDNEY, BLADDER AND RECTUM, PROSTATE GLAND DISEASES, ALL CONTRACTED DISEASES OF MEN.

CONSULT US TODAY
Mon., and Sundays from 10 to 12.
Medical Institute
4th and 5th, Portland, Oregon

MAN

Life into You

man who is thin, puny and unnourished for a few weeks, with the proper it into the muscles and tissues, and five pounds to his weight, double vitality and transform him into a as I have often done. Look at the born Electro-Vigor and you will see men of power and confidence, men themselves and are respected and admired by all men.

It saturates every nerve and tissue with invigorating electricity. It builds up strength and removes the cause of pain. It supplies new power to every organ. Every organ is in a strong, healthy condition no pain.

oupon and mail it to me. It will id, free, my 100-page book describut, and with illustrations of fully and women, showing how Electro-
It will tell you how to be strong,
y. Don't wait a minute; cut out free. Office Hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p.

J. HALL CO.
2nd Ave., Seattle, Wash.
Prepaid, your free 100-page illus-received 2-6, beat Miss Fording and Miss Leebetter 11-13; 5-3, 6-4.
6-4-09

Today's Schedule Starting 5 o'Clock

Goss and Wickersham versus Harrigan and Warriner; Mrs. Cook and Northrup versus Mrs. Judge and Miss Campbell; Miss Schaefer and Wilder versus Miss Goss and Wakeman.

Rheumatism

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp muscles, due to cold or dampness or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. Price 25c; large size, 50c.

Chamberlain's Liniment

DISEASES

his gland is e and complete
all.
-ESS." CON-
-BLOOD POI-
LE and all re-
permanently.
ST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS
out the very best opinion, guided by out of town, in trouble. Write if you canto proper home treatment and cure.
2 a. m. to 2 p. m., and Sundays from

DR. TATLOR,
The Leading Specialist.

TAYLOR CO.

1000 STREET,
1000 STREETS, PORTLAND, OREGON

EN IN PORTLAND
T OUR FREE
F ANATOMY
 (TAIRS), Bet. 4th and 5th Sta.
 COLLECTION OF LIFE-LIKE
 DEMONSTRATING PERFECT
 SED CONDITIONS OF MEN.
VE CLUBE

ly and Thoroughly WEAKNESS
VARICOSE VEINS, HYDROCELE, IMBILITY, BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ULCERS, SWOLLEN
PENIS, BLADDER AND REC-
TUM, PROSTATE GLAND DIS-EASES AND ALL CONTRACTED SPE-CIES OF MEN.

TREATMENT AND EXAMINATION
If you cannot call, write for question book.

CONSULT US TODAY
Monday, and Sundays from 10 to 12.

MAN
Life into You

For a few weeks, with the proper use of it into the muscles and tissues, and lose five pounds to his weight, double his vitality and transform him into a man as I have often done. Look at the worn Electro-Vigor and you will see signs of power and confidence, men themselves and are respected and ad-mirable men.

It is an electric body battery, applied to the body. It saturates every nerve and tissue with energizing electricity. It builds up strength and removes the cause of pain and supplies new power to every organ, and the organ is in a strong, healthy condition with no pain.

GIVE IT FREE.
 coupon and mail it to me. It will id, free, my 100-page book describnt, and with illustrations of fully and women, showing how Electro-
 It will tell you how to be strong,
 ay. Don't wait a minute; cut out

Free. Office Hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. gs; 10 to 1 Sundays.

J. HALL CO.
 Second Ave., Seattle, Wash.
 a, prepaid, your free 100-page illus-

6-1-03
