

(Continued from Page Two.)

die Jackson, Leonide Fleury, Winifred Abbott, Kate Brazel, Edna Patterson, Clara Howard, Charlotte Ballin, Edith Sheehy, Dorothy Ramsdell, Nina Guthrie, Tessie Dent, Wilma Plake, Letta Guthrie, Margaret Smith, Gladys Howard, Geraldine Courson, Dorothy Gill, Gertrude Stevens, Kathleen Farrell, Eva Yates, Lola Lind, Ethel Morris, Nellie Preble, Alice Wehrung, Harriet Wylie, Ella Dootie, Marie Howell, Maud Mashek, Gladys Ross, Louise Williams, Clara MacEwan, Nellie Willis, Lucile Fenton, Nell Troy, Ada Burke, Louise Paulson, Philomena Barnes, Miss Ward, Miss Coleman, Miss McDaniels, Miss Guthrie, Miss Bockenroth, Miss Snodgrass, John Latourette, Sydney Peterson, Ned Murray, Richard Hathaway, Judge Kramer, H. E. Montgomery, Harold Chamberlain, Jerome Thorm, L. I. Thompson, Lonner Ralston, Frank McDaniel, Kenneth McAlpin, Dr. Banton, Mr. Hawkins, John R. Holman, John C. Veatch, Glenn Scott, Dr. Eggman, Arthur Fields, Roy Fields, Ted Holden, Mr. Brooks, Mr. Bradley, Glen Selgel, Lewis Thomas, Roland Chapman, Lynn Covert, Edward Holmes, Wilson P. May, Chester Starr, Lester Horton, Dr. Whitney, the faculty and cadets of the academy and many others.

Mrs. I. Frohman has returned from a prolonged trip east. Miss Estelle Frohman is visiting friends in New York and New Jersey.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Helen Holbrook and Dr. Thomas Wynne Watts, which was celebrated Monday, May 31, in New Orleans. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Phil Holbrook of this city, and is very popular with the younger set. The past year she has spent mostly in travel and visiting with friends in Mexico. Prior to that she attended school at Chevy Chase, in Washington. She is an unusually handsome girl. Dr. Watts is in the government quarantine service and is physician of some prominence. At this time he could not secure a long furlough, and so the marriage was celebrated in New Orleans among friends. They will spend their brief honeymoon in the southern states, and then will return to Frontera, Mexico, to make their home.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Shea and William Prior Castleman was celebrated quietly Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shea. Only the immediate relatives and friends were in attendance. Her sister, Mrs. Irving Rogers Starns attended the wedding. The bride and groom left at once for Louisville, Ky., to visit his mother, and then to go to New York to sail for Europe. Mr. Castleman will return to grand opera in which he has made a substantial record, and will have an enviable reputation when his health broke down and forced him to seek rest on this coast. He has made many friends here during his stay. His bride has a pretty contralto voice which has numbered her among the most popular of the young singers, and as she is a girl of most attractive appearance and a winning personality she has many friends here.

Miss Ethel Chamberlain entertained informally Thursday evening with a going away party at the Fred D. Chamberlain apartments at the Marlborough. The girls, mostly school friends of the hostess from St. Helen's hall, dined with her and the favors were suggestive of a journey. Later the boys came in for cards and German whist was played. The prizes were miniature trunks filled with candy. The guests were Miss Carrie Short, Miss Dorothy Effinger, Miss Nellie Willis, Miss Clara MacEwan, Miss Clara Wold, Dick Jones, Ralph Charlton, Walter Gleason, Glenn Scott, Frank Anderson and Harold Chamberlain. Miss Short, Miss Willis and Miss Effinger leave for Europe after St. Helen's hall closes, for Honolulu. Miss MacEwan leaves presently on an eastern trip, and Miss Chamberlain plans to leave early in September for school in New York.

Miss Helen Rosenfeld and Dr. Jonah B. Wise are being much entertained prior to their wedding Wednesday, June 23. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Clifford Marshall entertained with four tables of bridge for the bride-elect, who was one of the bridesmaids at her wedding. This week Mrs. Solomon Hirsch will be a dinner hostess for her and Dr. Wise and several other affairs are planned for them. The marriage is to be an elaborate affair. The bride is from Israel, for which 600 invitations have been sent out. Rabbi Merritt of Evansville, Indiana, a college friend of Dr. Wise, will officiate with him in Europe. The reception afterward at the Rosenfeld home on King's Heights will be for the immediate relatives only, who number some 50.

San Francisco has been devoting a good deal of attention the past week to Monsieur and Madame Jusserand of Washington, who visited there en route to Seattle. Both the French colony and the Americans showed them marked attentions.

Monsieur Jusserand is the French ambassador to America and Madame Jusserand is a most attractive woman prominent in diplomatic circles in Washington and Paris. Her father is G. T. Richards, a prominent banker of Paris, and her mother was a member of an exclusive New York family. The Jusserands are expected here next Friday.

Mrs. C. C. Geer, who was Miss Mollie Maxwell, a bride of the week.

and there will be some elaborate entertaining for them if they stay will permit.

Mrs. H. B. Nicholas and Mrs. Byron K. Nicholas gave a tea Friday afternoon for the latter's sister, Mrs. Arthur J. Draper. About 20 guests called during the afternoon. Receiving with the hostesses and Mrs. Draper was Miss Calvin of California, who is a guest of Mrs. Thomas L. Elliot. At the table in the dining-room were Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Fielding S. Kelly and Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw. Assisting them in serving were Miss Henrietta Elliot, Miss Beulah Nicholas, Miss Nan Robertson and Miss Rose Parker and in the library Miss Alice Strong. The day marked also the sister of Mrs. Byron Nicholas, who was Miss Nancy Voorhies.

Major and Mrs. W. A. Bethel are expected here the latter part of the month from the Presidio at San Francisco. Major Bethel has just received a special appointment which will take him to West Point and en route they will visit with Mrs. Bethel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Strong, for about two months. With them will be their cute little twin girls and their infant daughter who has not yet visited Portland. Mrs. Bethel is an attractive young woman who was decidedly prominent in the younger set before she left here. She is a woman of quick intellect and athletic inclinations, especially devoted to tennis and golf. She is a sister of Harry Stinson Spaden and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Portland.

Miss Edith Nickerson and William Foster Hidden were quietly married yesterday afternoon at the First Methodist church by Rev. Benjamin F. Young. Only a few relatives and immediate friends attended. They went away on a short trip and will be at home after this week in Vancouver, where Mr. Hidden is in business. He is a cousin of Miss Beatrice M. Hidden, pianist, and Reginald Hidden, violinist, formerly of Portland. The bride, who was a guest in marriage by Mr. E. Wakeman, at whose home she formerly lived, came west from Norwich, Conn., three years ago, and all her relatives are in the east.

There is a great deal of interest felt in the reception tomorrow for which Consul Y. Numano and Mrs. Numano have issued cards. The honor guests will be Rear Admiral Hichi and the officers of H. I. J. M. cruisers Aso and Soya. The officers were extensively feted during their visit in San Francisco and much attention is planned for them in Seattle, where they go by train to join their ships. The business men of Portland, too, will entertain the visitors.

Mrs. Zera Snow entertained at luncheon at the golf club Friday in compliment to Miss Frances Lewis, who will be married this month, and Mrs. Effinger of Honolulu, who has been spending some months in the city. Covers were laid for 14 and the other guests were Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Miss Carrie Flanders, Miss Lou Flanders, Mrs. Harry Corbett, Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols, Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Andre Foulhouse and Mrs. W. S. Biddle.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating on Portland Heights. Miss Louise Kary of Quincy, Ill., and Frank A. Freeman of the Lumbermen's bank were married by Dr. Luther R. Dyott, and a few of the immediate friends attended. The rooms were pretty with masses of Scotch broom. Mrs. Freeman is an unusually attractive young woman, a handsome brunette with winning manners. They will make their home in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Fox Frizzell of New York and their three children, Louis Varick Frizzell, Phelps Montgomery Frizzell and Antoinette Frizzell, arrived yesterday for a two months' visit. They will be with Mrs. Frizzell's sister, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell. Mrs. Frizzell was an exceedingly attractive girl as Miss Antoinette Montgomery and numbers many friends who are planning to entertain extensively for her.

Mrs. F. A. Knapp has gone to Seattle to meet her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Albert J. Braze and her four little children who were due to arrive from Manila yesterday. Mrs. Braze will make a long stay in Portland and a good deal of entertaining is planned for her after she is rested from her long journey. Captain Braze is still in the islands and will join her in about a year's time.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas entertained informally Tuesday afternoon with a musicale in compliment to Miss Bruere of New York. Her guests were prominent musicians in town. The Lakme quartet, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. May Dearborn Schwab, Miss Evelyn Hurley, Miss Katherine Daly and the McKenzies Cabill and Miss Elizabeth Harwar contributed numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCrea of Philadelphia, who were expected to arrive Thursday, were delayed by a trip to the interior of the state. They arrived yesterday for a short visit and will be entertained by the Montgomeries and Burrells. Mrs. McCrea was the late J. B. Montgomery's sister. In their party are Mr. and Mrs. Childs of Pittsburgh and Miss McCrea.

Mrs. James McI. Wood entertained at luncheon last week in compliment to Miss Marjorie Barrows, Miss Wood's friend, and Miss Susan Clarke, a recent acquisition in the younger set. The other guests were Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Kathleen Burns, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Russell Hawkins, Miss Smyser, Miss Lise Koehler and Miss Josephine Smith.

Mrs. E. Dewitt Connell and her adopted daughter Jane expect to leave tomorrow for New York to sail for Europe. They expect to spend a year abroad, visiting Switzerland and Paris and attending the musical festival at Bayreuth. In the fall Dr. Connell will go across to join them. They plan to see the famous Passion Play next summer.

Mrs. Richard Koehler gave a luncheon Friday in honor of Mrs. E. L. Griffith, a guest of Mrs. William R. McKenzie. The other guests were Mrs. McKenzies, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard L. Mather, Miss Arthur C. Minott, Mrs. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. William M. Ladd.

Miss Theresa Friendly of Eugene is the guest of Miss Henryette Lauer, her cousin. Late this week Miss Lauer will return to Eugene with Miss Friendly to attend as maid of honor the wedding of Miss Lulu Reushaw and Harry S. Dunbar of Eugene. Miss Lauer will return to Portland in time for the wedding of Miss Helen Rosenfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilcox entertained with a children's party at the golf club Friday evening for their daughter, Miss Claire who celebrated her sixteenth birthday. About 50 children filled the private links. Miss Lise Koehler, Miss Lisa Wood, Charles Holbrook and Raymond Wilcox assisted the hosts.

The annual baseball game for the benefit of the Flower mission will be played June 18 at Multnomah field between the doctors' and lawyers' team and the bankers' team. This affair is always generously patronized by society and prominent matrons lend their names to its support.

A good deal of interest is felt in the coming of "The Merry Widow," the operetta which has been so popular in the east. The prima donna who plays the part of Sonia here is Rosemary Goss, who spent one winter in Portland, where she was known by her married name, Mrs. Race Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot entertained at dinner Friday evening for George E. Moffett, president of the Oregon Electric, who is in Portland for a few days. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Slevin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corbett and Mrs. Wallace.

Mrs. P. J. Jennings entertained with a large tea at her home Thursday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. James Noud, who has recently come to Portland to make her home. Mrs. Charles Ross, Mrs. Katherine Daly and the Misses Grace and Pearl Jennings assisted in receiving.

The cards are out for the wedding of Miss Frances Lewis and Henry Fairbanks of New York, Wednesday, June 23, at Trinity Episcopal church. The immediate relatives alone will attend the ceremony and a large reception will follow at Mrs. C. H. Lewis' handsome home.

The tennis tournament at the Irvington club has attracted a good deal of attention the past week and there has been a large attendance of interested friends each day. Every summer sees the ranks of tennis devotees considerably enlarged.

Among the Portland people who attended the Seattle exposition opening day were Mr. and Mrs. William Masters, Mrs. Fred D. Chamberlain and Miss Ethel Chamberlain, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Miss Mabel Howe and Mrs. J. N. Brown.

Arthur Rosenfeld returned last week from Johns Hopkins and Henry Fairbanks the wedding of his sister, Miss Helen Rosenfeld. The other brother, James, has remained to complete some work, and will not be here till the middle of July.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Warrens gave a delightful lawn dance Thursday night at their home on the Mount Zion road. About 50 of the young marrieds and the unmarried ones went out and enjoyed dancing in the hay loft.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. John K. Kollock served tea yesterday afternoon at the rose tea given at the Baby Home. Little Helen Ladd and several of her friends assisted them.

Elmer L. Williamson and Harriet Etta Pascom were united in marriage

BON TON CORSETS

Lend Irresistible Charm and Grace to Every Figure.

YOU cannot successfully attain the slender-appearing sylph-like figure of prevailing fashion until you are scientifically corsetted in one of the new BON TON models.

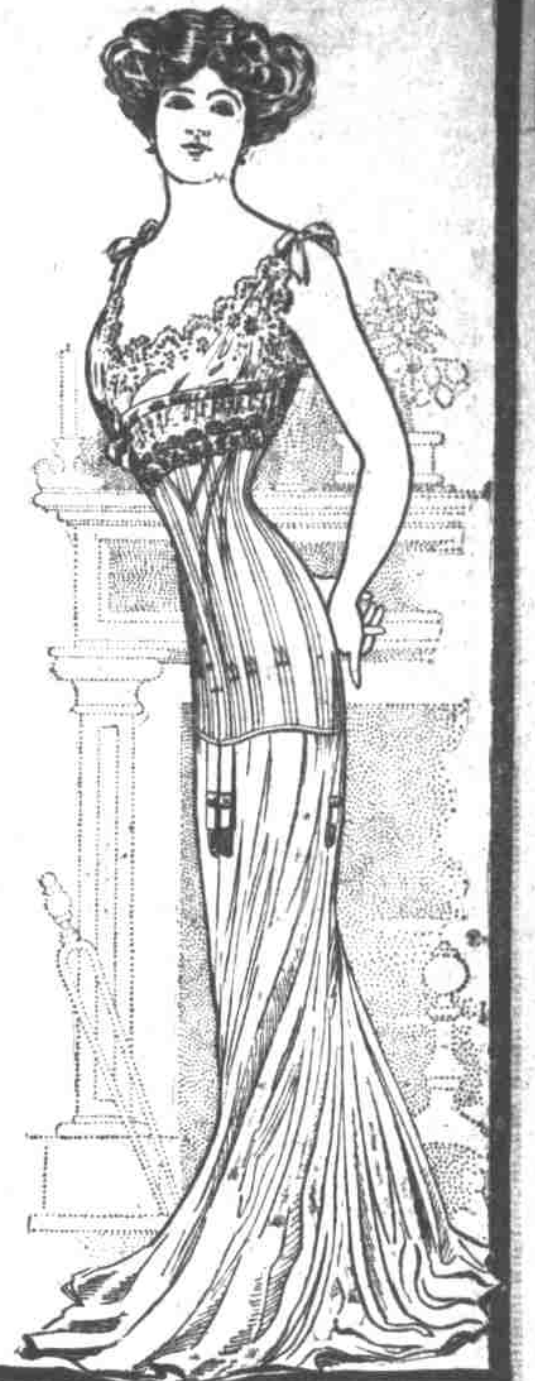

They reveal how the figure may be wonderfully improved in Symmetry, and how the wearer may acquire Slimness and Height, and they mould and shape the form into proportionate lines of beauty. SOLD BY LEADING DEALERS, $3.50 to $12.00 per pair.

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSET CO., 728 MISSION STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

MAKERS ALSO OF

The popular and moderately priced ROYAL WORCESTER Corsets and ADJUSTO Corsets at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational church, by the Rev. J. J. Staub last Wednesday afternoon.

SEND FOR THE 1909 ROYAL BLUE BOOK.

Oliver Ray Greene and Miss Leona Brown were married Wednesday at the Epworth parsonage, 383 York street, the Rev. Charles T. McPherson officiating.

Mrs. George Davis of the army circles and Mrs. Harriet Mayer of San Francisco have been guests of Mrs. Cecil Bauer the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman, who recently visited here with the Edward Furmans, have gone to San Rafael to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards will arrive tomorrow from Hay Creek to visit the Walter F. Burrells and the David T. Honeymans.

William H. Tienken and Miss Anna

Schatz were married Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational church, the Rev. J. J. Staub officiating.

The annual Patton home tea will be given Tuesday afternoon, June 15, and elaborate preparations are under way for it.

Mrs. George F. Brice a committee to arrange the program for next season. Mrs. W. Y. Masterson, Mrs. George W. Caldwell and Mrs. George W. Stapleton were selected to make arrangements for a club picnic and tallyho party to be given in the near future. An interesting letter from Mrs. G. B. Callars was read, in which she thanked the members for a beautiful palm which they had sent her when she was detained at the Good Samaritan hospital after undergoing a serious operation. The members were much pleased to learn that she is rapidly gaining strength and will soon return to her home. After the business session of the club cards were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. George F. Brice and Mrs. J. B. Hosford.

Mr. and Mrs. Montrose M. Ringler

(Continued on Page Four.)

objects. It was decided at Tuesday's meeting to devote the club funds this season to the Flower Mission Day Nursery. The president appointed Mrs. G. B. Callars, Mrs. Oglesby Young and Mrs. George F. Brice a committee to arrange the program for next season. Mrs. W. Y. Masterson, Mrs. George W. Caldwell and Mrs. George W. Stapleton were selected to make arrangements for a club picnic and tallyho party to be given in the near future. An interesting letter from Mrs. G. B. Callars was read, in which she thanked the members for a beautiful palm which they had sent her when she was detained at the Good Samaritan hospital after undergoing a serious operation. The members were much pleased to learn that she is rapidly gaining strength and will soon return to her home. After the business session of the club cards were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. George F. Brice and Mrs. J. B. Hosford.

If Seeking the Newest You'll Find It at the "Style Store"

Festival Week begins tomorrow—we'll make merry by offering selling events, the importance of which can hardly be overestimated. You'll enjoy bringing your friends to the "Style Store," where shopping is a pleasure.

NEW SHIRT WAISTS At Notable Prices

The Separate Waist reigns supreme for everyday wear. Our latest shipments are specially attractive. Sheer lingerie with pin tucks and Val. lace, or others with yoke of embroidery or lace, high collar and long sleeves $1.35

Tailored Waists of Linon, in plain white or pin stripe of black on white, broad and narrow tucks, stiff collar and cuffs. Same style in Madras $1.75

Plain Tailored Taffeta Silk Waists, in navy, brown, tan, gray, reseda. Have broad and narrow tucks, high collar and new long sleeves $3.50

Summer Hosiery Specially Priced

Plain black, white, navy, tan and gray lisle; also same colors in lace boot style. Fancy embroidered novelties and the new stripes. Sold elsewhere at 50c. Our price 35c

Fancy Back Combs

Help to dress the head attractively. We have just 125 Combs left, the Melba and many other styles, in gold-mounted, plain or fancy set— 95c

Charge Accounts Solicited:

It is optional with you to pay cash or to have your purchases charged, remitting weekly or monthly.

MEN'S CORRECT ATTIRE For All Occasions

Our Clothes are their own argument. Designed by the BRADBURY SYSTEM, they are the perfection of clever tailoring, fit and fabric. Come and try on a few models and you will be convinced of their superiority. We show them in models for every figure, every new shade in all seasonable fabrics. No tiresome try-ons or suit postponements—you're pleased on the spot. They range in price from

$18 to $40

Nobby Footwear for Summer

A tired foot makes a long day, while a trim, low-cut shoe bespeaks the good dresser and makes walking a delight. We will guarantee to fit you properly in all the advanced styles in tans, oxblood, gunmetal, patent leather, one or two-buckle, three rings, from

$3.50 to $5

The Bradbury System THE BEST CLOTHES MADE

The Store Where Your Credit Is Good

STORE YOUR FURS

In our absolutely Fire and Moth Proof Cold Storage Vaults. This is the only known method to insure perfect care and protection. We are now remodeling Furs at special summer rates—a saving if you contemplate altering or renovating furs. Phone us and our messenger will call. Both phones. Main 24, A-2440.

Our rate for storing furs includes the entire season, expiring Dec. 31, 1909.

H. LIEBES & COMPANY

John P. Plagemann, Manager.

288 Morrison Street.

Corbett Building.

Washington and Tenth Streets

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.