Olson Wants Salary.—Attorney John F. Logan acting for Justice G. H. Peace Fred L. Olson yesterday filed papers in the mandamus suit against the county court. Circuit Judge Gatons last night issued an order upon county judge and commissioners ordering them to order County Clerk Fields to draw a warrant for Olson's salary.

A trained and experienced nurse, with organic heart disease, was unable to sit up in bed for weeks under skilled medical aid, began rapid improvement at once under our national faith healer, and after three months of our successful work was perfectly healed.

Outs Throat and Repents—Repenting an attempt to end his life by slashing his throat with a razor, Frederick K. Foster, late of Philadelphia, crawled to the telephone in his room at the Sargent hotel last night, and summoned the night clerk, and his screams and secured a physician. Foster was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, where today it was said he would live.

Police Hear of Robberies—Several robberies were reported to the police today. One was that of the cash drawer at the Old Hut saloon, Fourth and Alder streets, of $25. U. M. Barrett, 515 Rose-lawn avenue, reported that he had his watch taken from him while standing in the plaza next to the courthouse about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Remarkable Crop of Roses—Mrs. D. C. Freeman of 127 Commercial street, who is one of the most enthusiastic rose culturists in the city and gives careful attention to something like 300 bushes in the yard at her residence, contributed 10 boxes of superb blooms to the Elks club for decoration purposes.

ORPHEUM HAS PLEASING BILL

By G. I. W. Horse races and a sermon do not seem rightly to belong to the same show, except it be in some of the modern sensational pulpits, but they follow each other suitably enough at the Orpheum this week.

And the horse race immediately following him—well, it makes no difference how these stage races are fixed and how well you know that the marked horse will pull to the lead just before the curtain falls.

Then there is Fraulein Vera Berliner, who plays the violin well enough to please even the musicians, who usually sneer at vaudeville musicals. She is the slim modest looking kind of girl that you like to applaud, too, and you forgive her the last gallery number, which she really must play after doing some good work.

Rheumatism

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief.
