Monster Sale Silk Dresses Worth to $55 $14.95

Even with the wonderful record we have established for greater than elsewhere bargains, this sale is one that eclipses any value we have yet offered. Nearly eight hundred of the richest garments we have ever seen that could possibly be sold for less than double the price these are marked at. Our Miss Barnard made a wonderful purchase when she secured these silk dresses in New York at an average of one-third their regular wholesale price, and the entire purchase is offered in one tremendous sale. They're made of messaline, taffeta, foulard and rajah silk. Most of them are in messaline—the most popular silken weave for this season's wear. Every possible shade is included in the assortment. They are trimmed simply and in good taste with tucks and pleats or elaborately garnished with Persian braids, lace, nets, braids, drop trimmings, and in many styles. There are Princess or Empire models. Such a chance as this to save on fresh new goods has never come before, and may never come again, and these values completely eclipse any you've had an opportunity to share in this year. SEE THE DISPLAY IN FIFTH STREET WINDOWS. Values up to $55.00, choice for Friday's selling at $14.95
