WASHINGTON CADETS CAMP AT SEATTLE

State College, Pullman, Wash., June 11.—Three hundred and fifty college cadets and nearly 100 of Pullman's population left Pullman last evening on the "Cadet Special" and will arrive in Seattle this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The regiment will immediately proceed to the A.-Y.-P. exposition grounds near which the encampment will be held.

The state college track team of 15 men headed by Coach J. F. Bohler and Manager Herbert V. Woxler, left yesterday and expect to arrive in Seattle today at noon. The men are in good fighting trim and expect to make their competitors hustle.

Governor M. E. Hay left Pullman this morning for Olympia, having for the past day and a half been a guest at the college. Senator H. O. Fishback is still at the college and in the day examining the books of accountants office.

"Night Trains During Rose Festival Week" The Oregon Electric Railway company will have special cars leaving Portland for Salem and intermediate stations at 11 o'clock and for Hillsboro and Forest Grove at 11:30 each evening during the Rose Festival week.

BARBUR AT LEAD OF WHOLE TICKET

Auditor Compiles Official Election Returns—16,966 Votes.

Official election returns compiled by the city auditor, show that Joseph Simon received a majority over all other candidates for mayor of 114 votes. His plurality over Judge M. G. Munly, the Democratic nominee and his nearest competitor, was 3923. The total vote cast for all mayoral candidates was 16,966. City Auditor A. L. Barbur received the highest number of votes accorded to any one contestant. He was re-elected by almost unanimous consent of the voters, 13,246 votes being cast for him.

COOKING DEMONSTRATION

Mrs. Wheelock, of National Reputation, As a Caterer, is in Town. Mrs. Wheelock, the author of what is said to be the best cook book on the market, is staying at the Portland for a week. During her visit to the city she will deliver a course of free lectures in the range department of Tull & Gibbs. Each morning this week from 10 o'clock until 12 Mrs. Wheelock is giving her individual attention to instructions in the culinary art at the Tull & Gibbs establishment. Judging from the crowds that attend her lectures are very much appreciated. Next week Mrs. Wheelock will give afternoon talks in addition to her morning lectures.

STUDYING SOCIETY WHILE WALKING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., June 11.—Professor Battelli, claimed to be a representative of the La Tribune, of Rome and of four Italian papers published in America is in Pendleton on his walking tour of the world. He will proceed to Portland, then to Seattle. Professor Battelli is one of the four men who are walking around the world for sociological research. The other three pedestrians are French, German and American, respectively. They all left New York October 7, the object of their tramp around the globe being to write a book. This will be in four languages and will set forth the political, economical and industrial conditions of the world, as by taking different routes the four men will give
