Terms to Suit

This chair is made of highly polished golden oak throughout. The full box seat is either of solid wood or upholstered in real leather. The panel back and top rail are gracefully shaped. The stock is exceptionally strong and the bracing very rigid. With wood seat, $2.39; with leather seat, $2.98.

THE various items that are grouped on this page tell a story of economy for you. The telling of this tale was made possible by some fortunate and timely buying on our part.

We might just as well have sold these goods at full regular prices and pocketed the difference, but that isn't the "Powers" way.

We not alone sell you these goods at exactly the same reductions we bought them at, but allow you to name your own terms of payment on them—and the price will be the same—cash or credit.
