Fessenden Avenue Viewers.—L. B. Chipman, S. B. Norton and G. W. Goodnow were appointed viewers to assess the benefits and damages to be derived by property holders along Fessenden avenue through the widening of that street. The appointments were made by Mayor J. F. Hendricks at the close of the council meeting at St. Johns last night. This marks the close of several months of litigation entered into by the city of St. Johns in order that the much needed widening of Fessenden might be brought about. As soon as the work of the viewers is completed the contract will be let.

Sunday School Convention Ends.—With an address on "The Future of Sunday School Field" by Dr. Edgar Blake as the main feature of the program, the final session of the Methodist Sunday School convention was held last evening in the First Methodist church. Third and Taylor streets. Rev. J. H. Burton, D. D., presided. The convention was opened by Rev. E. S. Lewis also addressed the convention, attended by a number of officials of the Methodist Sunday school workers. The convention has been one of the most successful of its kind ever held in the northwest.

The services at Reedville will be held at 3 p. m. Rev. William Hiram Foulkes will preach the installation sermon. Rev. Henry Marvotian will offer the installation prayer and charge the people, and Rev. Charles Hays will charge the pastor.

A Milwaukee Lady was told by her oculist she could never do without glasses. Rev. Green's rational faith method healed her eyes in six weeks three years ago. They are still healed. Green was a pastor here four years, and is well and favorably known. His methods actually heal the eye without drugs. He can be seen at 549 East Twenty-sixth street, on "W-W" carline, afternoons. Phone Sellwood 333.

At the June meeting of the directors of the Florence Crittenton Home, the report of the household committee told of empty jars in the fruit closets. It is thought many women would gladly give of their last year's fruits to help the home into the cheaper fruit season and until those on the premises ripen. Any donations will be called for on notifying the matron. Telephone East 316.

Will Boost for School Building.—Rose City Improvement club meets tomorrow night, June 17, at 8 p. m., in Hartman & Thompson's office, Sandy Road and Cully avenue. All property owners and taxpayers in the adjoining additions are urged to come and help boost for a new school building and other needed improvements.

Honored by Women

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Everywhere there are women who bear witness to the wonder-working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering sex from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stubborn ills.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG
IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her confidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

BEGIN TO BOOST

Commercial Club Being Organized by Public Spirited Residents.

Sellwood is to have a commercial club. At a meeting held last night extensive plans were laid and a committee of 10 prominent business men of that section was appointed to organize what is to be known as the Sellwood Commercial club.

"Boost" is to be the motto of the club, and everything that can be done to bring Sellwood to the front will be a matter of common interest to the club members. A fund of $1500 is to be raised to start the club with and from this fund it is expected to provide and furnish quarters. Later special advertising stunts will be taken up, all of which will be in the interest of the suburb of Sellwood.

The Commercial club organization committee is composed of D. M. Donoghue, J. A. Miller, J. W. Campbell, Peter Hume, W. M. Morehouse, Dr. R. S. Stearns, J. W. Caldwell, H. S. Upham and R. W. Edwards. Dr. Stearns is the temporary chairman and J. W. Campbell the secretary of the committee. A meeting will be held Friday evening at which the organization of the club will be formally planned.
