San Francisco, June 19.—Judging by the advance sale of seats and the interest manifested in the bantam weight championship fight, the bout between Frankie Neil and Monte Attell on tap this afternoon at the Mission street arena, one of the largest crowds of the season will be present. The men were examined by a doctor and found to be in perfect condition.

The Smith-Perry set to be started going at 1:45 and the welterweights will follow at 2:30. Smith, a 10-7 favorite this morning while even money still prevails between Krantz and Green.

Frankie Neil was up bright and early over in Shannon's at San Rafael. He was allowed to take a short walk to limber up his muscles, but found himself hovering so close to the weight problem that he did not have to hit the road. Frankie chatted gaily with his trainer and followers and seemed to express an unconcerned air in regard to the engagement he has on his hands.

The Neil party, composed of Manager Heine Rafael, Joe Sullivan, Bob Evans, Johnny Loftus and Leach Cross, left San Rafael on the 8 o'clock train this morning and were met at the ferry by a large gathering of followers. Neil is full of confidence and freely commented on what he was going to do to Attell. After exchanging greetings, Neil was shoved into a big automobile and whiffed away to Corbett's where he weighed in.

Both Under Weight.

Neil and Attell weighed in this morning at Tom Corbett's, both boys being under the stipulated 116 pounds. Neil stripped bare, stepping on the scales and barely budged the bar. Attell weighed in with his underclothing on but did not even make the bar tremble.

While preparing for the weighing in process, the little fighters "kidded" one another. Frankie telling Monte what he was going to do to him in the ring and Monte replying in kind. After getting into his street attire, Neil drank a cup of beer and then set out for a restaurant, where a good meal awaited him. Attell repaired to his home, where he will remain until it is time to leave for the arena.

The betting this morning was at even money, both sides sending in plenty of cash. Joe Kelly, a New York sportsman who arrived early in the day with a big bundle of money to lay on Neil and he succeeded in placing a good portion of it.

"FATHER TOM" WILL BOOST OREGON BOYS

By Hiland Baggerly.
San Francisco, June 19.—Father Tom Kelly, who coached the University of Oregon team, will recommend to the Coast League managers some young players this fall. Kelly has looked over the talent of the Coast Bay league and he thinks he has discovered some corners. Already he has written a local scout about three players and their names are Collins, Portland and Johnson. Danny Long may give them a trial this fall when he is hunting for talent.

Caffyn, who was called east by sickness in his family, will join Vernon today. When he gets in harness Hogan will detail Stovall to take his regular turn in the box. Vernon signed Jesse for pitcher, but his outfit has been broken up so much that he has appeared there more than in the box. Willett, formerly with Portland, has made good with Hogan, who will use him regularly in the box hereafter.

Pueblo is negotiating with Happy Hogan for pitcher. Hogan, who has not performed any too brilliantly for him, Coy is a graduate of the Northwestern league.

Jim Wiggs is the tough luck pitcher of the league fast enough. He has lost his last eight games and about every one has been his fault. Yesterday, he beat him out of a 12 inning bout but Jim was largely responsible for his defeat. If he had fielded his position better Oakland might have won.

Sports of All Sorts.
1845.—At Hoboken, N. J., the first match game of baseball was played. The New York club defeated the Knickerbockers in four innings, the rules then giving the victory to the club first making 21 runs on even innings.

1871.—At New York, Cyrille Dion defeated Melvin Foster in billiard match for champion cup and $200.

1875.—At Chicago, the Chicago and Hartford baseball clubs played 11 innings, the former then scoring the only and winning run.

1875.—At Peoria, Ill., first regatta of the Mississippi Valley Amateur Rowing association.

1880.—Coney Island Jockey club's new racetrack at Sheepshead Bay first opened.

1903.—At Milwaukee, Charlie Neary and "Buddy" Ryan went six rounds to a draw.

Here is a reason why the game went to the Beavers outside the 15 bingles: Seven sacrifices hits and five stolen bases. That's playing the game.

Terrible Swede Slams Ball
in Twelfth With Breen
On Third Base.

Once more our distinguished fellow citizen, Ole Johnson, saved the fair fame of Beaverdam with a stinging single to right that rushed Dick Breen across the plate for the winning run in the twelfth frame yesterday. Ole's handy wall was good for two bags had it been necessary for the hard hitting captain to score a man from second base. The score was 7 to 5, and the game was as well an exhibit as any that has preceded it during the week.

Portland's squad of heavy hitters opened up young Mr. Eastley in the second inning for three singles that netted two runs. In all they made 12 safe swats off the Seal, including a triple and five doubles. A sacrifice and a single made the score 7 to 5.

With a margin of two runs in the second, the Beavers again opened on Eastley in the third, when Ryan smashed the ball in right center for three bases. Ryan walked, stole second and reached third when Ryan scored on McCardle's error. Ryan scored home.

After making one in the third on Eastley's single and Zeider's double, the Seal tied the score in the fourth on a couple of errors, a sacrifice and two hits.

In the fifth Olson was safe at second, when Zeider threw his grounder low to Zeider. Breen sacrificed and Olson scored on Ryan's double. Ryan sacrificed Ryan to third, whence he scored on Johnson's double.

San Francisco tied the score again in the eighth, when Bodie was safe on Olson's error and registered with Melchior on the latter's home run that dropped between the fences in right.

The teams battled to the twelfth inning, when Breen plucked a double, Ryan bunted him to third and after Spens' couple of errors, a sacrifice and two hits.
