Pension Day at Courthouse—"Pension day," the date upon which pension vouchers from all the eastern agencies may be executed, added a great deal of detail work to the office of Clerk Fields today when over 250 veterans of the civil war appeared and verified their claims upon the generosity of Uncle Sam. Four times a year these vouchers have to be executed, old soldiers from practically every state in the union being in the list of men who call at the office and certify to their right to the sums appropriated through acts of congress. So strict is the government in considering the claims of pensioners that if one word be misspelled or if the slightest omission is made on the execution of any of the vouchers, payment is withheld until correction can be made.

Land Company Incorporated—The American Land & Improvement company filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk this morning. The company is organized to buy, sell and improve land, to buy and sell personal property and do a general real estate business. The incorporators are George V. Fletcher, James Cole and Bartlett Cole. The capital stock is fixed at $50,000, with shares at $1 each.

Hibernians Celebrate—Woodmen's hall at Eleventh and Alder streets, was the scence of a patriotic meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians yesterday. A large crowd of members and their friends was present. John C. McCue, Otto J. Kraemer and A. G. Farewell were the speakers, while a musical program with Miss May Breslin, Robert Bruce Driscoll, Rose Friedel and Miss Evelyn Keating was rendered.

Office Opens August 1.—August 1 has been set as the day for the opening of the new Sellwood postal station by Postmaster John C. Young. It has been nearly three years since Sellwood has had a station, and the residents are accordingly planning a stampede upon the new office when it first opens. Three carriers are to be assigned to the new office.

MARIS TELLS OF INSPECTION TRIP

Dairy Inspector Finds Filthy Methods But Hopes for Improvement.

R. C. Maris, deputy state dairy and food commissioner, returned from a trip of inspection of the daries of the state last night, the first he has made since being regularly appointed one of the dairy inspectors. He covered considerable territory during the trip and reports fine progress.

"I found the farmers were most of them waiting to see if we really intended to enforce the law," said Maris this morning. "They knew well enough what the law required as to the care of their cream and milk, but were content to wait and see whether or not they really had to do as the law says they shall. Many of them were really surprised to find that we intended to make them do these things.

"Our only course now will be to keep on with the inspection work and, when in the course of a month or so we have an opportunity to again cover this territory, arrest those dairymen who have not complied with the law. Just now the farmers are busy haying, and soon they will be harvesting, so that they are paying but little attention to their cows.

"While many of the dairymen are living up to some of the dairy laws there are hundreds of them that are not. I found some of the filthiest cream separators I have ever seen, and in most of the cases these dairymen were turning out sour cream for the creameries. In one day I inspected three dairies, however, every one of them clean and well kept, while the cream was cared for properly after having been separated.

"These three men had a way of cooling their cream in water, which is not in general use, which kept it sweet much longer than ordinary. They were giving sweet cream to a cream hauler who came but twice a week. A half mile away I found persons sending cream that was absolutely rotten coming from cows equally as good as their neighbors'. They were not taking the proper pains either with their separator, pans and cans or with the cream once it was ready for shipment. I expect much better results from another trip."

AT THE THEATRES

Mrs. Fiske at Bungalow.

Tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock the attraction at the Bungalow theatre, Twelfth and Morrison streets, will be Mrs. Fiske and her excellent supporting company in her latest play success, "Salvation Nell." Matinee tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

"The Servant in the House."

Seats are now selling at box office the Bungalow theatre for the Henry Miller's associate players, who come to the above theatre for three nights beginning next Thursday, July 8, with a special price matinee in the interesting drama, "The Servant in the House."

"The Three Donals"—Orpheum.

The three Donals, direct from European triumphs, are appearing at the Orpheum this week. They are gymnasts extraordinary, their performance is one of herculean feats of strength never before accomplished by athletes, and is causing a positive sensation.

Marie Doro Monday Night.

Charles Frohman will present the brilliant American actress and comedienne, Marie Doro, and her talented supporting company at the Bungalow for four nights beginning next Monday, in the delightful comedy, "The Morals of Marcus." The advance seat sale will open next Friday.

Musical Comedy at Lyric.

At the Lyric this week the Imperial Musical Comedy company is presenting "The Miffiffiff of Mullvullubullulu." There are a dozen song hits. Dorothy Newman has planned some exquisite numbers for the chorus of beauty broilers. Costumes are bright and new, and the comedians are slaying sorrow.

A Peculiar Bride.

There is an illusion at the Grand this week which is little short of wonderful. It is called "The Bridal Chamber" and is presented by the world famous magician, Albini. This illusion is the acme of cleverness and mystified the thousands of people who attended the Grand yesterday.

Music, Mimicry and Mystery.

The original Svengali Trio, who are appearing at the Pantages theatre this week in Music, Mimicry and Mystery, have an act that is entirely new. Scarcely is the audience allowed time to marvel at one astonishing exhibition before a still more remarkable character is sprung upon them.

Hear Good Music at the Oaks.

A delightful ride of five minutes takes you to the Oaks, where you can enjoy the splendid band music by Donatelli's famous Italian band. The Bickett family, aerialists supreme, are the feature for the next two weeks, afternoons and evenings.

INNES BAND HOLDS UNIQUE POSITION

Innes' orchestral band of New York, which will give two performances at Multnomah field on July 13 and 14, holds a unique position in the world of music. The organization is the only one of its kind, occupying as it does a field midway between the symphony orchestra and the so-called concert band. This result is brought about partly by a novel combination of instruments, but in the main it is owing to the original methods of Innes himself.

Even as a young lad, playing an instrument in the band of her majesty's first life guard, Innes had in him the undeveloped making of a great director. He was a tireless worker and restless thinker, and he soon began to see that there were great possibilities in a band. He saw it could be made to appeal to all classes, both to those who loved music for the rhythm and brightness it brings, and to the scholarly musician who enjoys the technical side and perfection of the proformance.

"THE BLUE MOUSE" TO HAVE NOVEL SETTINGS

A Fitch play is always characterized by novel stage settings and beautiful costumes. Being a master of stagecraft it goes without saying that this remarkably clever playwright also chooses wisely in organizing a company of players. A happier combination, it is said, has never been had than with "The Blue Mouse," which will be seen at the Lyric theatre for one week, beginning next Monday.

It is no use prescribing the gospel to a sick world unless you commend it by a healthy life.

FOREST SERVICE TESTS OLD LOGS

The Portland office of the forest service recently commenced an investigation to determine how long timber will stand after being burned before it decreases in commercial value. This investigation is now well under way. In this connection the forest service has also undertaken to determine the relative strength of green and fire-killed timber.

The material which is to be tested is being sawed at the mill of the Eastern & Western Lumber company of Portland, Or., where it will be surfaced to exact sizes and then transported to Seattle, where tests will be made in connection with the forest service exhibit at the A.-Y.-P. exposition.

The fire-killed trees which are to yield material for these tests were selected by forest service representatives on the holdings of the Clarke County Timber company of Portland, Or., near Yacolt, Wash. This timber was burned over about seven years ago and represents fairly well the average of burned timber found in the Pacific northwest. The logs, which vary from three to four fet in diameter, were sawed into 32-foot lengths. These are being manufactured into 16-foot floor joists and bridge stringers.

The results of these tests are being anticipated with great interest by forest service engineers and by the lumbermen of the northwest, because they are expected to disprove the opinion generally held regarding the strength of fire-killed timber.

A Better Substitute.

FINE FRAMING OF PICTURES

Is a specialty for which this store is famous.

A picture is often spoiled by an improper frame, and a beautiful frame is often spoiled in the making by careless workmen. The charm of a choice picture is always much improved by a proper and artistic treatment.

Our Art Department is manned by men of taste. They are past masters in the art of selecting frames and in making them, and oftentimes their advice in the selection of a picture or the proper way to hang it will be of value to you.

Consult them often. They will gladly answer all your questions.

A NEW DEPARTURE

The cost of interments have been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
