ter First Frame—Colts Run Wild.

With big Bill Chinault belching forth an array of benders, twisters and tumblers that made the Tigers turn white with rage, and the Colts behind him kicking the very stuffing out of the sphere, Portland defeated Tacoma yesterday 6 to 2. Except for the first inning, when an error, four stolen bases, a single and a double, let in two runs, Chinault had the felines helpless. Until the ninth not a man reached first base but one, and he was doubled out. One man walked in the ninth, died on first.

Portland scored in the first inning when Bassey hit and stole second, and Kennedy doubled. In the second Fournier's double and Chinault's single brought the backstop home. Two more were put over in the sixth on singles by Kennedy and Garry, an error, stolen base and Crocker's pretty single.

Another brace was shoved across in the seventh when Bassey and Kennedy registered on a pair of passed balls and two steals. Score:

Holds Visitors Helpless Af- Earns Right to Play With California Girl - Cup Play Tomorrow.

It has been definitely decided that Miss Hotchkiss will play the challenge round in defense of the Ainsworth cup Saturday afternoon, and as it is not likely that W. A. McBurney will be here to defend the Fiske cup. Miss Hotchkiss match will be the big feature of the tourney. Owing to the defeat of Miss Fording by Mrs. Fouilhoux this morning the lists have narrowed down to Miss Fouilhoux or Miss Ryan who will play the challenge round and intense interest is centered in the finals which will decide between them. They have both been playing splendid tennis and the outcome of their meeting is hard to predict.

the outcome of their meeting is hard to predict.
Considerable interest centered in the match between Mrs. Foulthoux and Miss Fording this morning in which the former defeated Miss Fording 6-1, 6-2. Miss Fording has been the best local player until Mrs. Foulthoux, who is former champion of Pennsylvania, came to Portland, and there has been considerable speculation as to which was the better player.

Garibaldi, the Italian centerfielder, whose name appeared on the score sheets as "Garry," was slipped the release package yesterday. Garry has not been hitting well of late, although he has been fielding nicely. He was helpless against Southpaws and his tendency to strike out was his weak point.

Mrs. Foulhoux beat Miss Campbell 0, 6-0; Miss Ryan beat Miss Robert n, 6-2, 6-2.

This purse is the largest ever offered for so limited an engagement and the offer is regarded with some doubt by pugilistic followers here. The fact that the nromoters plan to stage the bout in the Philadelphia American league baseball park, however, where an immense crowd may be accommodated gives ground for the belief that the gate re-ceipts might justify the offer.

Recently a wealthy relative of Murphy died in Los Angeles, bequeathing $25,000. District Attorney Eugene Washhorst has interested nimself in Murphy's case. Miss Hotchkiss treated the gallery to ome splendid playing in practice games with Brandt Wickersham yesterday.

LADY JENNER SUES FOR HER ALIMONY

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, July 16.—Lady Nora Helen Gertrude Jenner, wife of Sir William Jenner, physician to King Edward, and daughter of the late British Field Marshal Stewart, is plaintiff in a suit filed in this city to collect $27,160 from Bertram Samuel Murphy, a millionaire clubman of this city.

Lady Jenner was divorced from Murphy in 1895 and the money that is the object of the suit, she alleges is due her as alimony from November 18, 1898, to March 18, 1808. Murphy's brother, Daniel Murphy, is also named as a defendant, the allegation having been made in the suit that he conspired with his brother to avoid payment of the allemony by a realty transfer to which both were parties. nony by a realty transfer to which both were parties.

The present suit of Lady Jenner is the second brought against Murphy in two years. The first litigation resulted in a judgment against the Murphys by the appellate court, for $9000. The new suit is filed to compel the payment of this amount plus the accruing alimony. Both the Murphys are well known in London and Paris. A sister, Theresa, is the wife of Sir Charles Michael Wol-

WASHINGTON EDITORS MEET AT SEATTLE

New York, July 16.—Jack McGuigan, well known to fight followers throughout the country, and Harry Edwards, today offered $25,000 for a six round battle between Sam Langford and Champlon Stanley Ketchel, the fight to be pulled off in Philadelphia.

Langford's manager, Joe Woodman, is said to look upon the match favorably, and will accept McGuigan's proposition unless Tex Hall and his Ely, Nevada, promoters increase their bid for the husky coon's services to $10,000. Woodman also wants a guarantee of $2500 for training expenses. Seattle, July 16.—A three hours sightseeing trip about the city this morning opened the entertainment program for the members of the Washington State Editorial association and their families, who are in Seattle to attend the annual convention.

The first business session of the association is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Fine Arts building at the exposition, when the editors will be welcomed by J. H. McGraw, vice president of the fair, and by R. W. Raymond, assistant to the director of the exploitation. Albert Johnston, president of the association, and F. A. Hazeitine, treasurer, will respond.

The business sessions of the newspapermen will be far enough apart to permit them to enjoy the exposition. This evening an informal luncheon will be given the visitors on the exposition are could by Lemes A. Wood director of
