

LAST PROGRAMS AT CHAUTAUQUA HOLD OUT INCREASED INTEREST

Ten Days' Session Marks Great Success—Plans Laid for Future.

"The longer the better," is the universal verdict of this year's Chautauqua. The weather conditions this morning could not be better. Just enough sunshine to make everybody feel happy without the discomfort of sweltering heat. The grounds are entirely devoid of dust, and instead of the sear and burnt appearance that Gladstone park usually presents at the close of the assembly, there is this year the freshness and beauty of spring. And it is having a rejuvenating effect even upon the matron, whom her friends thought had long passed the sentimental age, was heard to remark in the woman's club tent the other day:

Real Lover's Retreat.
"What a place for lovers! Every path a lover's retreat. I don't think more young people don't come to Chautauqua! While a burst of laughter put the joke in the speaker, this very wonder is in the minds of many."
Chautauqua is not all sermons, sacred music and a general church going time. There is lots of fun and frolic for those who want it in a clean, pure way, but it is not and never will be the resort of the hoodlums.

A general expression of regret was mingled with the many words of appreciation that were exchanged between teachers and pupils this morning when they realized the beginning of the end was at hand, and that on the morrow the word of farewell must be spoken.

In every class the lesson was preparatory to closing, yet the same interest was manifest that showed itself on the opening morning more than 10 days ago.

University Students Come.
A feature of today will be a visit from nearly a hundred of the students of the Portland university, who will come in a body. They are a fine set of young men and every hospitality will be extended to them.

The forum hour was particularly interesting this morning and one which appealed to everyone; to the little child no less than the gray-haired man, to the boy who bounded in from his athletic class to the sedate mother who there determined to teach the little one at her breast the principles of "peace on earth" toward the beautiful featured creatures as well as to one another.

William L. Finley, president of the National Audubon society, gave a talk on "The Bird and the Man." Mr. Finley is the truest bird lover and he knows how to touch the tender chords that will bring the same love and response from others.

William Selvaan Talks.
The second speaker was William H. Selvaan, who was a delegate to the national peace conference that was recently held at Chicago. All who followed the proceedings of that meeting will know how able he was to discuss the subject of this morning, "The Dove of Peace."

At noon every car that came in disgorged crowds of people, who, realizing that the season is nearing an end, begin to appreciate its worth. And again the fame of Dr. Matt Hughes of Pasadena, Cal., has gone forth, since his magnificent lecture of last evening, and hundreds have been drawn to the grounds today to take advantage of this last opportunity to hear him.

Miss Grace Keller will open the program this afternoon with a vocal solo. Miss Keller's solo work through this session has been remarkable, as have been the piano performances of her sister, Miss Luella Keller.

Have Pleasing Personalities.
Added to their musical accomplishments, both young women have charming personalities, and their handsome appearance and dignified bearing have won them hundreds of friends in the audience.

Preceding the program yesterday afternoon the officers and directors had a half hour meeting, in which they were assisted by several interested speakers in presenting the claims of Chautauqua.

An eloquent appeal was made, backed up with facts and figures, to those who enjoyed Chautauqua, to those who believed in it, and who recognized in it a great source of good to the entire community, to back up this confidence by becoming shareholders in the association, thereby putting more money into the concern, which is badly needed before the park and grounds become ideal from a sanitary and educational standpoint.

point; and that by a greater number of stockholders there would be an assurance that no organization can afford to neglect the annual assembly.

Must Be More People.
It has become a self-evident fact that there must be more people or less classes, and no organization can afford to neglect it, should either go forward or stop, and it is believed that loyalty to this Chautauqua will be the hands of the stars of war to go forward.

In W. C. T. U. headquarters there was a delightful gathering of friends for the noon hour yesterday. At 3:30 a discussion on purity was led by Mrs. Marshall, whose wide experience through travel and the mingling with the public of our entire country made her an admirable leader. Interest has been aroused by some of these conferences. Today a reception was given to Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis, of Washouville, and the manager of the school, which was the most representative social function held, so far during the season. Mrs. Anna Gates was the hostess for Thursday.

Athletic Entertainment Tonight.
Tonight will be given the athletic entertainment by the Y. M. C. A. of Portland, whose athletic director, Professor Griley. This is an annual program and is always considered one of the best, and like children's play, the management saves this best for the last—or so near to the last it is almost considered so.

But tomorrow night promises to be an exception for at this last week day program the famous Knickerbocker quartet will give their last concert, and they will furnish a number on Sunday afternoon's entertainment.

Yesterday afternoon the young men who compose the quartet literally covered themselves with glory. Every number was applauded to the echo, and encore after encore was demanded, not resisting it—called them back so often that Manager Cross had to announce that only 10 minutes of the time remained for the program and they must still several numbers to be heard. This quieted the audience but not gracefully.

The solo work of Messias, Cross and Larsen was of the highest order and the audience proved it could appreciate classical music when it heard it. Miss Keller's work was also notably fine, and words of praise and appreciation were bestowed upon Professor Pennell for the fine work which his pupils had accomplished in so short a time.

Tomorrow will be patriotic day, and even if they say today many people have "flung their banners" to the sky and tomorrow, no doubt, the park will look like a G. A. R. encampment. All G. A. R. men will be the guests of the Chautauqua.

Tomorrow's Program.
8 to 11—Chautauqua summer school.
11—Chautauqua forum, "The Emancipator," Rev. William Walter Matins, presiding elder, California-Oregon, A. M. E. Zion church.
11:30—"The Song Triumphant," Lewis H. Dawley, attorney-at-law Portland.
12—Drum corps, G. A. R.; jubilee singers, colored quartet, A. M. E. Zion church.

1:15—Concert, Chemawa Indian school band.
2—Reading by Montaville Flowers, Soror solo, Keller, Ketter, Patriotic lecture, "Sights and Scenes of War," by Dr. Bill McClell of Los Angeles.

3—Baseball.
7:15—Concert, Chemawa Indian school band.
8—Concert, the Knickerbocker quartet, assisted by Alvin E. Gillett and Miss Luella Keller. Fireworks after evening's entertainment in Auditorium.

AT THE THEATRES
"The Blue Mouse" at the Lyric.
Tonight, tomorrow matinee and night are your last chances to see Clyde Fitch's latest success, "The Blue Mouse," at the Lyric. This attraction is the talk of the town, a laughing scream.
Musical Comedy Coming.
The Imperial Musical Comedy company returns to the Lyric next week, commencing Sunday matinee, in "The Pagoda," a new and dainty musical comedy of Japanese life. New principals and a larger chorus of beauty broilers.
His Grannon at Orpheum.
His Grannon, singing comedienne, is at the Orpheum for one week. She has a number of most charming songs and a voice of exceptional excellence, added to a personality which is extremely pleasing.
Grand Fireworks Display.
At the Oaks Saturday night will be a grand display of Pains fireworks postponed from July 4. In this display will be many of the new nitro-radium rockets. The Bickett family also.
Drapery Dancer Supreme at Pantages.
"Huntress," the celebrated impersonator and dancer, who is appearing at the Pantages theatre next week, in the presentation of his colored drapery dances he uses 600 yards of the finest silk.
"Commencement Days" Next Week.
The principle feature attraction at Pantages theatre, next week, will be Phyllis Lee and her six singing cadets, in a one act musical comedy, "Commencement Days." A carload of special scenery.
Orpheum Next Week.
Sit up. Sam Chip and Mary Marble so pleasantly remembered as co-stars in the musical comedy "Dream City" are making their first appearance in vaudeville and will be at the Orpheum next week.
Seats Selling for "Three Weeks."
"Three Weeks" will be the attraction at the Orpheum for one week, beginning next Sunday night, with a matinee on Sunday. The brilliant and fascinating actress, Evelyn Hope will be seen as "The Queen of Sardinia."
MRS. EDDY IS 88 YEARS OLD TODAY
Boston, Mass., July 15.—Notwithstanding the recent reports alleging her to be dead or very near to death, Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder of Christian Science, today added another milestone to her life, and, according to those in closest touch with her, she passed the day in accordance with the routine she has followed for several years. At her beautiful home in Chestnut Hill she spent the morning in reading and writing and after luncheon she took her customary drive. This daily drive Mrs. Eddy has seldom missed since she removed to Brookline from Concord, N. H., two years ago. Naturally enough, Mrs. Eddy does not think much of birthdays or of their cumulative effects and in accordance with her wish there was no observance of the anniversary at Chestnut Hill. Her views in regard to the matter are well known to her followers and friends, and as a consequence she received few congratulatory messages or floral tributes.
Mrs. Eddy was born in Bow, N. H., 21 years ago, and those who have had the privilege of meeting her recently declare that for a woman of her age she is remarkably vigorous and active.
Sunday School Teachers Meet.
Biloxi, Miss., July 15.—During the next seven days the Tri-State Training school for Sunday school workers will hold forth at the Seashore Camp grounds, near this city. The gathering is held under the joint auspices of the State Sunday school associations of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi. The program prepared for the occasion is addressed by a number of the most noted Sunday school workers of the country. The principal officer in charge of the gathering is Dr. W. A. Lowry, president of Mississippi college.

MECCA FOR THE SCHOOL TEACHER
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 15.—Clatsop county has shown the greatest increase during the past year in the average salary paid teachers of any county that has yet been reported to the superintendent of public instruction. In 1908 the average salary of male teachers was $34.00, while during the past school year the average salary of male teachers has been $39.56. There has been an increase in the average salary of female teachers of from $31.90 last year to $32.97 in 1909.
Clatsop county, however, as the result of consolidation, perhaps, employed only 75 teachers during the past year, while during the school year of 1908-9 teachers were employed. This county also shows a decrease in the school population, that is the total number of those between the ages of 4 and 20 years. Last year the school population of Clatsop county was reported as being 4121, while this year it is but 4101 according to Superintendent of Schools Emma C. Warren.
The enrollment in Clatsop county was increased over last year. It was 2858 in 1908 and is 2833 this year. The decrease in population may be because of a more careful census. More than $24,000 was expended for school purposes in Clatsop county last year, while during the year before the disbursements reached $24,130.74.

BROKEN LEGS KEEP DR. PITTS BUSY
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Point Arena, Cal., July 15.—Dr. A. D. Pitts, while going to set the broken leg of B. Overton, near this place, fell from his buggy and so injured his own leg that he was unable to move, and was found several hours later by Dr. B. Biddle, who had been called to set the broken leg of an unknown man who had been injured in an accident some distance from the town.
Biddle found his fellow physician's leg was severely injured and took him to town in his automobile. Returning to make his call, he found Mrs. H. Hirsch lying by the roadside near the spot where he had found Dr. Pitts. Mrs. Hirsch's horse had become frightened by an automobile and she had been thrown to the ground, sustaining severe fracture of the right leg.

After conveying Mrs. Hirsch to a nearby farm house and attending to her injury, Biddle hurried to his patient, who he found died during the afternoon.
Returning to Point Arena, he stopped at the Overton home and did the work for which Dr. Pitts had been called.

May Be Stevens's Body.
Tacoma, Wash., July 15.—The badly decomposed body of a man apparently about 45 years of age was found last night floating in the Puyallup river. Thus far the remains have not been identified, but may be those of E. W. Stevens of Puyallup who has been mysteriously missing for weeks.
Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure.

To Be Sacrificed at Once to Make Room for a Big General Shoe Business

Down Go the Price Bars

C. H. Baker of California has decided to enter the Portland shoe field. The firm already operates five stores in the southern state and transacts a tremendous shoe business on boldly original lines. Many of the best known shoe brands in the world are carried at the Baker Shoe Stores—no one factory being versatile enough to produce all of the grades and shapes of shoes demanded by their broad patronage.

Here are two uncommon points to be remembered about this sale: The shoes are all new—including the most exclusive shapes, patterns and designs of the present shoe season. The prices are established AT THE FACTORY and stamped plainly on the shoes. The reductions here indicated, therefore, mean just what they say.
