

Vacation Time in Oregon

"Where to go" brings the question "Where have you been?"—for you should see all of Oregon—the greatest Outing State fully to appreciate its unequalled scenic, angling, seaside and mountaineering delights

Comfortably Equipped Trains, Dining Cars, Pullman Sleepers
Special Rates to All Resorts

The Upper Columbia River

A way of palisades and waterfalls, affords a trip by O. R. & N. train, with observation car, without equal. Cloud Cap Inn, a Mount Hood resort, is reached from Hood River by auto or stage.

Newport, Oregon

Reached via Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railways. Sea food found nowhere else in the world but the South of France. Surf bathing, agate hunting, hot sea baths, good hotels.

Down the Lower Columbia

To NORTH BEACH, Wash.—a superb river trip, with surf bathing, crabbing, clam-digging, riding, and good hotels at the end of it. Every seaside pleasure.

Crater Lake National Park

Reached via Medford, Or., on the Southern Pacific, from whence by stage or auto over the famous Rogue River road, or via Weed and Klamath Falls, presents attractions to be found nowhere else in the world. See Crater Lake this summer.
