An impostor representing himself to be a member of the firm of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. victimized a number of manufacturers and large wholesale houses in the east recently by purchasing vast quantities of merchandise under an assumed name. Following was the method of procedure:

He would select from $1000 to $3000 worth of goods, order them shipped by freight to our firm in Portland, Or., then select a few samples of various sorts, which he would take with him, giving in payment for these samples a check. By this method he would procure the samples, and generally from $100 to $200 on the check.

We have received large shipments of merchandise from various houses, and one concern—the Poughkeepsie Queen Undermuslins Co.—asked us to dispose of the shipment of their goods. In this sale we have positively no jurisdiction over the prices, and no interest whatsoever in the selling, being guided entirely by the instructions from the Poughkeepsie Queen Undermuslins Co.

We will say this much—that the prices they have instructed us to sell this muslin underwear at is a great deal less than the goods cost to manufacture, and is without doubt the biggest muslin underwear bargain ever offered to the shoppers of the city of Portland. These goods are displayed in three Third street windows at three prices—namely, 25c, 85c and $1.29. On sale Monday.

Lot 1, $3.50 Vals. $1.29 SKIRTS AND GOWNS

These skirts are made of fine nainsook and longcloth. Are full width and trimmed with cluster tucks, deep flounce of fine embroidery, lace insertion, beading and ribbon. The gowns are made of fine nainsook and longcloth, square neck and round neck, trimmed with fine embroidery, laces, beading and ribbon. Also an assortment of ladies' combination drawers and corset covers. Values to $3.50 apiece.

Lot 2, $1.85 Vals. 85c Drawers and Corset Covers

Drawers and Corset Covers, made of cambric and longcloth. The drawers come in open and closed styles, with cluster tucks, trimmed in lace and embroidery and insertions with beading and ribbons. Corset covers are made of cambric and longcloth, in a variety of dainty styles, trimmed tastily with laces and embroidery, beading and ribbons. The values run easily to $1.85.

Lot 3, 60c Values 25c CORSET COVERS

Corset Covers, made of cambric, in square neck styles, trimmed with two rows of lace insertion, beading and ribbon. These corset covers are trimmed front and back. Also an assortment of corset covers in circular neck, trimmed daintily with lace, beading and ribbon. The values of these corset covers run easily to 60c.

THE WIENER SUIT CO. REQUESTS US TO SELL---

300 Union Linen Tailored Suits, which were sent to us under the same conditions as the muslin underwear. In this sale, as in the muslin underwear sale, we have positively no interest excepting to dispose of these goods for the Wiener Suit Co. The suits offered in this sale compare favorably with our own stock that we sell regularly for $6.50 to $8.00 each. The manufacturer, realizing the impossibility of having these goods returned to New York and sold this season, has wired instructions to sell these suits on Monday at $3.95. This price we have never seen quoted on this class of goods. The assortment of colors and range of styles is broad, taking in every standard spring shade, such as tan, azure, rose, white and stripes. The coats are fashioned as per illustration, trimmed with pearl and horn buttons. The skirts are made in the new flare fashion. In summing the matter up, we think it is the greatest suit bargain in well-made, well-fashioned wash fabrics that has ever been offered in the city of Portland.
