

ALBANY RACES MAY NOT BE HELD

Dispute Between Directors of Association and Owners of Track Results in Cancellation of Dates in September.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., July 31.—The race meet of the Albany Fair association has been called off. The directors and the owners of the track are unable to come to a proper understanding concerning the future lease. This means that there will be no races in Albany this fall. The dates with the Williamette valley circuit formerly made for September 23 and 24, have been cancelled.

S. S. Bailey, treasurer and president of the association, has a lease on the property for two years longer but can not secure the same for a longer period and will make no improvements. At present there are 75 horses working daily on the track and Mr. Bailey has a payroll of $10,000 per year, meaning a big thing for Albany.

The association was incorporated recently for $400 and the work will be carried on next year on other grounds. An attempt will be made to secure entries on the Salem, Portland and Spokane circuits.

STRANGE LOOT FALLS IN CONSTABLE'S HANDS

Yesterday was a freak busy day in the office of Constable Wagner when the constable and his deputies were kept busy all day in making attachments and in serving garnishments. The constable's array of property attached has filled the office and homes of the constables with a peculiar array of goods. Yesterday there was brought into the office an old violin, valued at $200, owned by a struggling old musician; seven volumes of a cyclopedia of architecture, an entire book black stand, a bass horn and a shotgun. In addition there was brought in a building which had been removed to the home of one of the deputies, two horses which were also seized by a deputy, and 300 cement blocks at Grand avenue and Belmont street, which were attached and left where they were.

During the day the constables also attached and closed the doors of one saloon, one drug store, one grocery store and the plant of the Belmont Automatic Gas company. Bellwood. All were nailed up as soon as the papers were served.

The fact that yesterday was the last day of the month, as well as Saturday, brought the number of garnishments up to an unusual number. In all about 60 of these papers were served and about that number of working salaried people had to report home in the evening without their wages and monthly pay envelopes, or at least with the amounts enclosed therein sadly diminished.

MAN ARRESTED HERE WANTED IN ALBANY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., July 31.—Sheriff Smith returned today from Portland with J. W. Murphy of Shelburn, charged with a statutory offense. Murphy was indicted last October, and his bonds were fixed at $1000. He was thought to have been in Portland until recently, when arrested in Portland for carrying concealed weapons. Sheriff Smith, hearing of his arrest, went to Portland for him. Murphy is now in jail here. He says he is innocent. No one has offered to go to bail, and he will have to wait until October for his trial.

LARGE PRIVATE IRRIGATION PLAN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Kennewick, Wash., July 31.—What is thought to be the beginning of one of the largest individual reclamation projects in this part of the country was made here today when J. S. Burley of Spokane purchased 500 acres of irrigable land near the mouth of the Yakima river of Joseph B. Grant. A 200 acre island in the Columbia was included in the transfer. Mr. Burley will begin at once to develop the tract. It is not known what method will be employed.

WM. A. COVELL, NOW MANAGER FURNITURE DEPARTMENT OF GEVURTZ

William A. Covell this week assumed the management of the furniture department of J. Gevurtz & Sons, the well known home furnishings. Mr. Covell was formerly connected with the Covell Furniture Co. He grew up in the furniture business in this city—understands it from Alpha to Omega—and has many thousands of friends in Portland, whom he would be pleased to greet at his new post of duty, either in a social or business way. He assures

COOL SLOPES OF OLD HOOD CALL PORTLAND PEOPLE PEASANTLY GREAT GOOD IS RESULT OF FESTIVAL

Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery of the Third Presbyterian church and family are camped at the snow line on Mount Hood. Mr. Montgomery having established his camp there last week. They will spend August there.

Rev. H. H. Pratt and wife are also at Mount Hood and Rev. Clarence True Wilson of Centenary church will spend the next two weeks at Rhododendron, Tavern and Mount Hood. He and Mrs. Wilson drove out to McIntyre's the last of July, where they remained several days, and then drove on to the tavern last Thursday. Dr. Wilson and wife have their own conveyance and are moving whenever they feel like making a change. They will climb Mount Hood the coming week.

Professor N. W. Bowland and family of Montavilla are camping at the T. Gate and expect to remain there until September. He is spending his time fishing and exploring the surrounding mountains. There are many streams here, including the Zig-Zag, Still creek and Devil creek, all good fishing streams.

Miss A. L. Dimick, principal of the Brooklyn school, is staying in a tent at Rhododendron tavern and will probably remain through August. At this tavern nearly 400 Portland people were registered during July. Among these were 18 Y. M. C. A. young men under A. M. Griley, on their way to climb Mount Hood. D. L. Ash, Newberg, Or. C. C. Hind, H. Hall, L. E. Martin, S. W. Blesed, Professor A. E. Hephner, C. A. Lewis, John W. Baker and wife, Edward Hall and wife, J. A. Strupbridge and family, W. L. Stevens, L. Leonard, Edith Gibson, M. A. Mayor of New York, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Turpley, Miss Sophia Corey, Washington, D. C., Miss

Van Schuyver, W. C. Van Schuyver, C. H. Schenck, F. R. Bailey and family, Mrs. Charles Beebe, John D. Wilcox, Ralph Hoyt and wife, D. C. Reynolds, Warren C. Hishout, D. D. Polson, W. E. Woodward, Newberg, Or. F. I. Fuller, Paul V. Morris, Mrs. and Mr. A. W. Feroson and family.

July 30 guests came up from Portland. L. G. Holden, formerly battalion chief of the Portland fire department, is in charge of Welch's camp. There has also been a big list of Portland people. The recent rains drove many people out of the coming week the roads will be in fine condition and people will pour into the mountains around Welch, Rhododendron, the Toll Gate and Mount Hood.

Considerable money has been spent on the Mount Hood road by Clackamas county as it is in need of repair. While there are still a few places where some more attention is needed, the McIntyre hill is in need of repair. While the weather is dry there is no trouble on this hill, and even the low power automobiles can get over it, but during a rain storm mud pours into the road which gives the high power autos trouble to get over it. If the county will plank about the foot of this hill and put down the brush on both sides of the road, there will be no trouble.

A telephone line is being built from the Sandy to the toll gate. The poles have all been gotten out and holes dug. This telephone line will be of immense value to the people of the mountains with Portland. It is being built by the government to give better protection to the forest range and to give the Portland headquarters. It will also be of great advantage to the general public.

HUFFY GOT HUFFY THEN HE FIRED

Discharged Employee Takes Shot at C. F. Ruegg Who Discharged Him.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of William Huff for an attack upon C. F. Ruegg of Linnemann, near Gresham, Or. A year ago Huff worked on Ruegg's ranch near Gresham and was discharged. He left swearing revenge but did not appear again until Friday shortly after noon when he came on the Ruegg farm armed with a revolver. Huff engaged in a struggle with Ruegg and was shot in the arm. Huff was engaged in hauling hay with a number of his farm hands and he at once started toward Huff to put him off the place but was met by a pointed gun and the remark, "Don't come any closer, or I'll shoot." Instead of halting, however, Mr. Ruegg became only more enraged and kept on toward the man, who fired point blank at a distance of less than 15 feet.

"I certainly was surprised when he shot," stated Mr. Ruegg yesterday afternoon after arriving at a complaint before Judge Olsen charging Huff with assault armed with a dangerous weapon. "He did not think he would shoot and hardly see how he missed me although the bullet whizzed just past my ear. As soon as he shot I started toward him and he ran away. He had returned to the hayfield he had disappeared toward Friday."

An amusing incident in connection with Ruegg's filing the complaint was that Ruegg had arrived from the district attorney's office telling that Ruegg had dropped his gun on the floor of the office and inadvertently left that document there.

The fact that yesterday was the last day of the month, as well as Saturday, brought the number of garnishments up to an unusual number. In all about 60 of these papers were served and about that number of working salaried people had to report home in the evening without their wages and monthly pay envelopes, or at least with the amounts enclosed therein sadly diminished.

GOLDENDALE MECCA FOR HOMESEEKERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Goldendale, Wash., July 31.—The Goldendale city council is having an ordinance prepared for the building of cement sidewalks and permanent improvement of the streets. The school district is erecting a new $10,000 building and the county has called for bids for the enlarging and remodeling of the courthouse.

The largest brick kiln ever put up in this county is now being burned at Goldendale. Many homesekers are locating in Goldendale.

Companies Incorporated. (By Journal Leased Salem Wire.) Salem, Or., July 31.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state today as follows: Automatic Rocker Manufacturing company, principal place of business Portland; capital stock, $25,000; incorporators, Oscar E. Allen, Arthur E. Hastings and Theodore Rothchild. Garibaldi Beach company, principal place of business, Portland; capital stock, $25,000; incorporators, W. W. Ridenbaugh, J. F. Shorey and A. L. Finley.

WM. A. COVELL, NOW MANAGER FURNITURE DEPARTMENT OF GEVURTZ

William A. Covell this week assumed the management of the furniture department of J. Gevurtz & Sons, the well known home furnishings. Mr. Covell was formerly connected with the Covell Furniture Co. He grew up in the furniture business in this city—understands it from Alpha to Omega—and has many thousands of friends in Portland, whom he would be pleased to greet at his new post of duty, either in a social or business way. He assures

BIG APPLE TRACT IS SOON TO BE IMPROVED

Ben Riedland and Harlan J. Miller have been authorized to acquire a tract of apple land in Hood River valley. The property was owned by the Oregon lumber company and consists of a logged off slope of 500 acres. It is located between the east and west forks of Hood river and is protected from all cold winds by a high cliff on the north and west and also by a high mountain on the east. The elevation is 1000 feet above sea level.

It is the intention of the present owners to promote a company for the purpose of taking over the tract, planting it in apples and then placing it on the market in 10 acre tracts.

New Lincoln Cent Ready. Washington, July 31.—Distribution of the new cents, which bear the head of Lincoln instead of that of the Indian which has ornamented them for so many years, will begin Monday. The Philadelphia mint has a total of over 30,000,000 of the new cents on hand with which to supply the orders that are coming in from banks throughout the country. As there are 1,650,000,000 pennies in the old style in circulation, however, it will probably be a good many years before the Lincoln coin entirely supplants the familiar Indian head.

President Ralph Hoyt Finds California People Take Great Interest in Portland Rose Feast—Many Letters Tell of Enthusiasm.

Ralph W. Hoyt, president of the Rose Festival association and cashier of the Merchants National bank returned yesterday from an automobile trip through California. He had been away since July 14, and in that time saw much of the northern part of California and southern Oregon.

In the party with Mr. Hoyt were Walter M. Cook of Portland, Walter E. Moore and Robert Moore, sons of ex-Governor Moore of Washington, and A. Campbell of Spokane. They were in two machines, a Knox and a seven passenger Franklin. They took a complete camping outfit and camped along the way making stops wherever it was possible.

Mr. Hoyt was amazed to find the lasting impression which the Rose Festival had made upon people of the southern state. In San Francisco he was eagerly seized by the management of the San Francisco Portland Festival which is to be given October 19-23, and many of the Portland ideas will be used in the southern festival. It is to be a celebration of the anniversary of the entrance of Gaspar de Portola, a French navigator, into the San Francisco harbor.

"The festival is wonderfully advertised throughout California," said Mr. Hoyt, "and we are today getting thousands of dollars in advertising from the festival and will get it for some time to come. They all say they hope to come to Portland for the festival next year."

HAZMAS WILL START MONDAY

Half a Hundred People Will Make Interesting Trip to Mount Baker.

Leaving Portland at midnight on Monday, a party of about 50 Hazmas will start on their annual camping trip—their destination this year being Mount Baker.

The Hazmas will arrive in Bellingham at 1:15 Tuesday afternoon, and will be entertained there both in the afternoon and evening, when a reception will be given in their honor by the board of trade.

Wednesday morning the party will drive in automobiles via Deming, to the end of the wagon road. From this point they will start on their long hike of 15 miles to the summit of Mt. Baker. Half way to this camp they will spend the night, and complete the tramp the next day.

C. S. Biles is charged with the party, and has written home to the secretary, the most enthusiastic reports of the camp which he is establishing. It is at the southwestern base of Mt. Baker, and is most happily situated for fishing and conveniently located for the excellent side trips to be taken in the Mt. Baker region.

The excellent management of the officers and committee in advance for their relief the tramps of nearly all the petty inconveniences which usually accompany such excursions. The Hazmas are looking forward to the Mt. Baker trip as the best trip they have ever taken.

The ascension from the south side is decidedly easier than the Baker climb and that fully 50 will make the trip. Among those who will go are Dr. L. F. and Mrs. Frisell of New York, Miss Lewis, Professor and Mrs. Baker, Dr. Burrell, H. H. Riddell, M. B. Brosseau, Mrs. J. E. Hahn, D. D. Mulder, M. W. Gorman, C. H. Shaw, Miss Anna Rankin, J. Wheelock Marsh, Miss Eleanor Gile, F. W. Benefield, Miss Polson and Walter Armstrong, Mrs. Jack Montgomery, Mrs. Helen E. Voorhies, Miss Maude Holliday, Miss Sadie Sattlemire, Miss Margaret Goldapp, Mrs. Y. B. B. Stone, M. A. Wyman, Miss J. Pfeiffer, Miss Alice W. Hayek, E. H. Loomis, Dr. and Mrs. Otis F. Akin, Charles B. Allen, Mrs. A. L. Larrabee and two sons, Miss Elizabeth David, Dr. White, Dr. Bernard Hahn, Dr. W. C. Adams, and John A. Lee.

The officers of the Hazmas are: M. W. Gorman, president; L. J. Hicks and Otis F. Akin, vice-presidents; Eleanor M. Gardiner, recording secretary; Frank B. Riley, corresponding secretary; Francis W. Benefield, financial secretary; E. H. Loomis, treasurer, and Gertrude Metcalfe, historian.

The party will be in charge of the outing committee, headed by John A. Lee, secretary, and C. H. Baker, chairman. The other members of the committee are Miss Anna L. Rankin, Miss Eleanor Gile and Dr. W. C. Adams.

HIGH WINDS PREVENT BALLOON ASCENSION

Balloonist Harry Wright did not make an ascension with his big 50 foot gas bag at Council Crest Saturday afternoon as he was scheduled to do, because of heavy winds that whirled and twisted about the heights. He declared he would make an attempt this afternoon.

Hoping to witness a thrilling ascension, a large crowd gathered on the crest. The big gas bag was filled and sent up for a short distance at the end of a rope, but was deflated and sent down by contrary air currents and gusts of wind, the balloonist postponed the ascension, and the gas bag was hauled down.

Hundreds of people who watched for the balloon to appear over the city were disappointed. A crowd gathered at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets and excitedly watched the flight of a toy balloon, thinking it was the Wright bag.

Wright will attempt an ascension between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon from Council Crest.

SOL BLUMAUER BOOSTS ROSE FESTIVAL WHEN HE TRAVELS IN EUROPE

Sol Blumauer, of the firm of Blumauer & Root, has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, during which he had occasion to visit the famous carnival of Nice and the Festival of Flowers at Cannes. He was surprised to find that those widely known affairs did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival here and hereafter that he had no doubts in telling people whom he met that he was from the finest city in the world.

"The carnival of Nice was the better of the two," said Mr. Blumauer, "but that did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival. They have two nights of carnival in which they take liberties which an American man would be ashamed to do, but do it all in a spirit of fun."

"I found that many people were registering themselves in different places as being from New York when in reality they were from western cities. As a result the foreigners have heard but little of any city but New York. I boosted Portland and Oregon every chance I got and would not be a bit surprised if some of the people I met came here in the future. I invited them all."

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES

"Berkeley will never be the state capital," said Ray Farnsworth, Berkeley, Cal., at the Oregon today when we had merely a boom scheme fanned by the real estate interests of the Rockies and no one who knew the state of the situation believed that there was any hope whatever of moving the capital from Sacramento.

"I came here on a visit, just to see the Pacific, and not for the purpose of looking for another location," said J. W. Howard, Brookfield, Mo., at the Perkins today. "I saw the ocean two days ago, and I have purchased a 10 acre tract of land. I will move my family to this state as soon as possible. I never knew before that there was such a wonderful country."

"I have heard it stated many times recently that people who live near water have finer developed brains than those residing in the interior," said O. E. Stead, Birmingham, Ala., at the Imperial last evening. "It is said that they are able to think clearer and that they are less apt to be pessimistic. Sounds odd, but reasonable to me."

D. O. Wheatley, Josephine county, Or., at Meritt, near Grants Pass, a large tract of land will soon be ready for settlement, brought about by the enterprise of a real estate man of Grants Pass. This tract includes some of the very best land in the Rogue River valley. The Grants Pass valley, the metropolis of the Rogue River valley within the next three years, or less.

D. B. Seely, Grants Junction, Colo., "Grand Valley, Colo., is forging ahead faster than any section of the state of Colorado. Our fruit is becoming known all over the world and Grants Junction's 'peach day' is a fixed institution that is eagerly looked forward to by people all over the state."

"The west has a great run on fruit just now," said A. R. Carruthers, Wayne, N. H., at the Imperial. "It is a sort of a fad. I may say. I don't believe there is any doubt but that if the fruit raisers would take the same care of their trees as do the growers on the Pacific coast the fruit would be equally as good as that grown here."

"Some day the great cities over the country will rise up and demand the demolition of the billboard and other unsightly advertising features," said D. G. Berry, Hallowdaine, Ohio, at the Perkins. "And it will be a mighty good thing for all concerned. Portland is affected by the advertising agent awfully. A good deal of fine scenery is ruined by it."

PERSONALS

From the Charleston News and Courier. Prohibition is a device of the saloon men to escape paying taxes.

Prohibition.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Broadfield returned home last Thursday from a three weeks' trip to Alaska and Seattle fair.

Mr. George F. Robertson, 514 Ashbury street, has as her guest Mrs. John J. McDougal of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Broadfield returned home last Thursday from a three weeks' trip to Alaska and Seattle fair.

When Mr. Hoyt got back he found a number of letters awaiting him. From other sources showing of the inestimable value which the festival has been to the city of Portland. They are from prominent citizens of Bellingham, Walla Walla, etc. They are as follows: W. Hoyt, Portland Rose Festival, Portland, Or.—Dear Sir: We are going to have a flower parade here during our celebration and I would like to get some pictures of your Rose Festival. If you have them and will send them to me with the bill for same I will greatly appreciate your favor. If you have any yourself and will kindly refer this letter to some one who can fill the order, I will thank you very much.

"Many of our people get the Portland papers and read a good deal about the festival, while a great many others were not so fortunate. The event is a source of pride and interest to all who know it was a big success and am glad it was. Events of this kind are held in a location far distant.

"Thanking you in advance for your favor, I am, your truly,

"CHARLES M. CASEY,"
"Secretary, The Fearless Prophets."

Bellingham, Wash., July 31, 1909.—Ralph W. Hoyt, President Rose Festival, Portland, Or.—My Dear Sir: We were very sorry that you were unable to attend our "Rose show," which recently closed successfully.

"We do not have the gorgeous carnival features which make the Portland Rose Festival" so famous, but we do have roses of an exceptionally beautiful quality, and another year we hope that you may find it convenient to visit our exhibition. Yours sincerely,

"ROLAND G. GAMEWELL,"
Walla Walla, Wash.

"Walla Walla, Wash., July 31, 1909.—Manager, the Portland Rose Festival, Portland, Or.—Dear Sir: This, the Commercial club of Walla Walla, is awakening to the fact that your annual carnival deserves a representation from Walla Walla, or should I say Walla Walla deserves a representation from your carnival? Will you therefore send me whatever printed matter may be available so that I can inform us as to ways and means of taking part in your carnival? In short, I would like to be made about the undertaking.

"I believe that I can assure you that hereafter this city will make a strong effort to be included with the other five communities that are represented. Respectfully yours,

"L. E. MEACHAM, Publicity Man."

Others Pay Rent We Collect Rent

Who Can Sell the Cheapest?

SOL BLUMAUER BOOSTS ROSE FESTIVAL WHEN HE TRAVELS IN EUROPE

Sol Blumauer, of the firm of Blumauer & Root, has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, during which he had occasion to visit the famous carnival of Nice and the Festival of Flowers at Cannes. He was surprised to find that those widely known affairs did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival here and hereafter that he had no doubts in telling people whom he met that he was from the finest city in the world.

"The carnival of Nice was the better of the two," said Mr. Blumauer, "but that did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival. They have two nights of carnival in which they take liberties which an American man would be ashamed to do, but do it all in a spirit of fun."

"I found that many people were registering themselves in different places as being from New York when in reality they were from western cities. As a result the foreigners have heard but little of any city but New York. I boosted Portland and Oregon every chance I got and would not be a bit surprised if some of the people I met came here in the future. I invited them all."

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES

"Berkeley will never be the state capital," said Ray Farnsworth, Berkeley, Cal., at the Oregon today when we had merely a boom scheme fanned by the real estate interests of the Rockies and no one who knew the state of the situation believed that there was any hope whatever of moving the capital from Sacramento.

"I came here on a visit, just to see the Pacific, and not for the purpose of looking for another location," said J. W. Howard, Brookfield, Mo., at the Perkins today. "I saw the ocean two days ago, and I have purchased a 10 acre tract of land. I will move my family to this state as soon as possible. I never knew before that there was such a wonderful country."

"I have heard it stated many times recently that people who live near water have finer developed brains than those residing in the interior," said O. E. Stead, Birmingham, Ala., at the Imperial last evening. "It is said that they are able to think clearer and that they are less apt to be pessimistic. Sounds odd, but reasonable to me."

D. O. Wheatley, Josephine county, Or., at Meritt, near Grants Pass, a large tract of land will soon be ready for settlement, brought about by the enterprise of a real estate man of Grants Pass. This tract includes some of the very best land in the Rogue River valley. The Grants Pass valley, the metropolis of the Rogue River valley within the next three years, or less.

D. B. Seely, Grants Junction, Colo., "Grand Valley, Colo., is forging ahead faster than any section of the state of Colorado. Our fruit is becoming known all over the world and Grants Junction's 'peach day' is a fixed institution that is eagerly looked forward to by people all over the state."

"The west has a great run on fruit just now," said A. R. Carruthers, Wayne, N. H., at the Imperial. "It is a sort of a fad. I may say. I don't believe there

SECOND SEM-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Arm Chairs at Cost Odd Diners at Cost

We are closing out at cost a number of Arm Chairs that are desirable for office chairs. These are from lines that we have discontinued and merely desire to cash them in and get the space which is so badly needed.

We have about 75 Dining Chairs in broken lots, one to four of a kind, which we are closing out at cost. Among these we have two swell sets in the golden finish—quartered oak—and two in weathered finish; also have some cheaper sets.

High Class Diners Cheap

We are dining chair specialists; have the largest stock and variety in the city; and our prices are 25 per cent lower than elsewhere. Below we picture some of our newest chairs, with prices.

NO. 1270 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $4.25

NO. 812 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $3.15

NO. 816 Full quartered oak, claw feet, box seat, black leather, golden finish, $3.60

NO. 456-1 Substantial hardwood chair, $1.70

Turkish Rocker

Karpen Turkish Rocker, special, $32.50

Number one leather oil tempered springs, fully guaranteed, value, $45.00

Matting Remnants

We have a number of one yard lengths matting, 5¢

All remnants, 2 to 5 yards, per yard, 10¢

All remnants, 6 to 15 yards, per yard, 15¢

This is all 30 to 35 cent matting.

Carpet Remnants

1-3 yards green-tan Velvet, 65¢

3 yards red-green Velvet, $1.80

3½ yards red-green Velvet, $2.00

5 yards tan Velvet, $2.50

8½ yards red Velvet, $5.00

9 yards green Tapestry, $5.00

10-13 yards Velvet, $6.00

12½ yards green Axminster, $7.25

These remnant prices are much below the wholesale price of the carpet by the roll. 10 cents per yard for sewing and laying.

Others Pay Rent We Collect Rent

Who Can Sell the Cheapest?

SOL BLUMAUER BOOSTS ROSE FESTIVAL WHEN HE TRAVELS IN EUROPE

Sol Blumauer, of the firm of Blumauer & Root, has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, during which he had occasion to visit the famous carnival of Nice and the Festival of Flowers at Cannes. He was surprised to find that those widely known affairs did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival here and hereafter that he had no doubts in telling people whom he met that he was from the finest city in the world.

"The carnival of Nice was the better of the two," said Mr. Blumauer, "but that did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival. They have two nights of carnival in which they take liberties which an American man would be ashamed to do, but do it all in a spirit of fun."

"I found that many people were registering themselves in different places as being from New York when in reality they were from western cities. As a result the foreigners have heard but little of any city but New York. I boosted Portland and Oregon every chance I got and would not be a bit surprised if some of the people I met came here in the future. I invited them all."

"Berkeley will never be the state capital," said Ray Farnsworth, Berkeley, Cal., at the Oregon today when we had merely a boom scheme fanned by the real estate interests of the Rockies and no one who knew the state of the situation believed that there was any hope whatever of moving the capital from Sacramento.

"I came here on a visit, just to see the Pacific, and not for the purpose of looking for another location," said J. W. Howard, Brookfield, Mo., at the Perkins today. "I saw the ocean two days ago, and I have purchased a 10 acre tract of land. I will move my family to this state as soon as possible. I never knew before that there was such a wonderful country."

"I have heard it stated many times recently that people who live near water have finer developed brains than those residing in the interior," said O. E. Stead, Birmingham, Ala., at the Imperial last evening. "It is said that they are able to think clearer and that they are less apt to be pessimistic. Sounds odd, but reasonable to me."

D. O. Wheatley, Josephine county, Or., at Meritt, near Grants Pass, a large

SECOND SEM-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Arm Chairs at Cost Odd Diners at Cost

We are closing out at cost a number of Arm Chairs that are desirable for office chairs. These are from lines that we have discontinued and merely desire to cash them in and get the space which is so badly needed.

We have about 75 Dining Chairs in broken lots, one to four of a kind, which we are closing out at cost. Among these we have two swell sets in the golden finish—quartered oak—and two in weathered finish; also have some cheaper sets.

High Class Diners Cheap

We are dining chair specialists; have the largest stock and variety in the city; and our prices are 25 per cent lower than elsewhere. Below we picture some of our newest chairs, with prices.

NO. 1270 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $4.25

NO. 812 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $3.15

NO. 816 Full quartered oak, claw feet, box seat, black leather, golden finish, $3.60

NO. 456-1 Substantial hardwood chair, $1.70

Turkish Rocker

Karpen Turkish Rocker, special, $32.50

Number one leather oil tempered springs, fully guaranteed, value, $45.00

Matting Remnants

We have a number of one yard lengths matting, 5¢

All remnants, 2 to 5 yards, per yard, 10¢

All remnants, 6 to 15 yards, per yard, 15¢

This is all 30 to 35 cent matting.

Carpet Remnants

1-3 yards green-tan Velvet, 65¢

3 yards red-green Velvet, $1.80

3½ yards red-green Velvet, $2.00

5 yards tan Velvet, $2.50

8½ yards red Velvet, $5.00

9 yards green Tapestry, $5.00

10-13 yards Velvet, $6.00

12½ yards green Axminster, $7.25

These remnant prices are much below the wholesale price of the carpet by the roll. 10 cents per yard for sewing and laying.

Others Pay Rent We Collect Rent

Who Can Sell the Cheapest?

SOL BLUMAUER BOOSTS ROSE FESTIVAL WHEN HE TRAVELS IN EUROPE

Sol Blumauer, of the firm of Blumauer & Root, has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, during which he had occasion to visit the famous carnival of Nice and the Festival of Flowers at Cannes. He was surprised to find that those widely known affairs did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival here and hereafter that he had no doubts in telling people whom he met that he was from the finest city in the world.

"The carnival of Nice was the better of the two," said Mr. Blumauer, "but that did not nearly compare with the Rose Festival. They have two nights of carnival in which they take liberties which an American man would be ashamed to do, but do it all in a spirit of fun."

"I found that many people were registering themselves in different places as being from New York when in reality they were from western cities. As a result the foreigners have heard but little of any city but New York. I boosted Portland and Oregon every chance I got and would not be a bit surprised if some of the people I met came here in the future. I invited them all."

"Berkeley will never be the state capital," said Ray Farnsworth, Berkeley, Cal., at the Oregon today when we had merely a boom scheme fanned by the real estate interests of the Rockies and no one who knew the state of the situation believed that there was any hope whatever of moving the capital from Sacramento.

"I came here on a visit, just to see the Pacific, and not for the purpose of looking for another location," said J. W. Howard, Brookfield, Mo., at the Perkins today. "I saw the ocean two days ago, and I have purchased a 10 acre tract of land. I will move my family to this state as soon as possible. I never knew before that there was such a wonderful country."

"I have heard it stated many times recently that people who live near water have finer developed brains than those residing in the interior," said O. E. Stead, Birmingham, Ala., at the Imperial last evening. "It is said that they are able to think clearer and that they are less apt to be pessimistic. Sounds odd, but reasonable to me."

D. O. Wheatley, Josephine county, Or., at Meritt, near Grants Pass, a large

SECOND SEM-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Arm Chairs at Cost Odd Diners at Cost

We are closing out at cost a number of Arm Chairs that are desirable for office chairs. These are from lines that we have discontinued and merely desire to cash them in and get the space which is so badly needed.

We have about 75 Dining Chairs in broken lots, one to four of a kind, which we are closing out at cost. Among these we have two swell sets in the golden finish—quartered oak—and two in weathered finish; also have some cheaper sets.

High Class Diners Cheap

We are dining chair specialists; have the largest stock and variety in the city; and our prices are 25 per cent lower than elsewhere. Below we picture some of our newest chairs, with prices.

NO. 1270 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $4.25

NO. 812 Full quartered oak, padded leather box seat, golden, weathered and fumed finish, for only $3.15

NO. 816 Full quartered oak, claw feet, box seat, black leather, golden finish, $3.60

NO. 456-1 Substantial hardwood chair, $1.70