

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

Edward Sewall. They motored up from San Francisco last week and with them were Dr. Sewall's Portland brothers, Clarence and Russell. They have been visiting in California. Mrs. Holman came to Portland by rail and joined her husband here and both went to Seattle for a visit.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery gave a dinner at the golf club in compliment to Mrs. Charles B. Wood of New York, who is her guest. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hansen of Toronto, Mr. Joseph K. Clarke of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Frisell, of New York. Miss Mary Montgomery, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Thomas Kerr, W. D. Wheelwright, Frank Wilder and his brother, Mr. Wilder of London.

Miss Genevieve Thompson entertained with a large party Monday evening at the Mary Adele Case concert in compliment to her guest, Miss Withington, who left for Canada the next day. Dr. D. P. Thompson chaperoned the party and the others in it were Miss Louise Carey, Miss Helen Wilson of Vancouver, Harry Montgomery, Harold Sawyer and C. Henri Labbe.

Lieutenant Robert Sears, son of the late Judge Sears, has been ordered to Vancouver barracks as his first assignment. He has many friends in town and will doubtless be the center of much attention in his new capacity. Mrs. Sears and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Sears, have been visiting in the city and attended his graduation at West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin entertained at dinner at the golf club last week for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wood and the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Warren Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Foulhoux, Miss Grace Warren, Miss C. J. Jeffords, Carl Wernicke and Mr. Summerville of Victoria.

Jacobs Bond, the son of Carrie Jacobs Bond, was in town last week and called on some of the prominent musical people. In February his clever mother will be here to give a concert of her own songs, which have become so popular with all singers the past few years. This should be a most interesting event for Mrs. Bond has a charmingly artistic manner of singing her songs.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Warrens left Monday to visit Mrs. George Flanders and the Misses Flanders at Ecila, where the Lewis and Flanders families have such an extensive summer home. The Allen Lewises and the David Lewises are among the party who are now visiting at Ecila, with Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Miss Sally Lewis.

Mrs. Frank S. Rigler is the guest of Mrs. Clara E. Farnsworth of Seattle. Last week she was one of the honor guests at a bridge tea given by Miss Lella Whittier at the Algonquin and she presided at the tea table. The Whittiers leave today for New York to sail for Europe, where they will remain a year.

Miss Mary Withington left Tuesday after several weeks' visit with Mrs. William Ladd and Miss Genevieve Thompson. She was joined Monday by her brother Holbrook Withington from Medford and both went north to visit their sister, Mrs. Hamilton Abbott in Canada.

Mrs. Frank Branch Riley has been entertained a good deal in Seattle during her visit over there. At a large tea given recently by Mrs. Angus Mackintosh and Mr. Amos Brown at their home on Highland drive, Mrs. Riley assisted in serving and received much attention.

Mrs. Sol Rosenfeld and her family have taken a cottage at Long Beach for the summer. Mrs. Rosenfeld's daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Wise, who has just returned with Dr. Wise from their wedding trip, is being shown much attention. They are home at the Kings Heights apartments.

Dr. Belle J. Macdonald and her daughter, Mrs. James Brooks of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Macdonald. Dr. Macdonald's youngest daughter recently was married to Bert Kerrigan in San Francisco, where they are now making their home.

Mrs. Walter A. Goss and her sister, Miss Margaret Catlin, entertained Friday afternoon for Mrs. Walter A. Bethel, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Strong. There were four tables of bridge and later several came in for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heath Brooks and her daughters, Miss Genevieve and Miss Margaret, returned last week from Washington, where they have spent the year. They will be with Mrs. Brooks's sister, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, at Seaside, this week.

Miss Fanny Barber and Miss Hannah Schlotz left Tuesday for a two weeks' stay in Seattle. Miss Helen Barber and her cousin, Miss Clara Barton returned the middle of the week from a visit with Miss Dorothy Gilbert at Ridgefield.

Rev. J. H. Cudlipp of Grace Methodist church, Dr. Benjamin Young of the Taylor Street Methodist church, and President William Young of the University, will leave Tuesday for the Yellowstone park, to be gone two or three weeks on a vacation trip.

T. B. Wilcox and J. Wesley Ladd were visitors last week with their families at North Beach. Mrs. Helen Corbett and her daughter, Mrs. Corbett, returned to Seaside for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Finley returned last week from a three months' journey in the mountains on foot. They spent a good deal of time at O'Brien's place, Mackenzie river, Foley springs and Gate creek. Later they spent a few weeks at Newport.

Eugene Roemer, who has been one of the popular bachelors of Portland the past year and who lives in an attractive bungalow on Council Crest with C. H. David Jr., will leave tomorrow for Rochester, N. Y., to make his home.

Mrs. Chauncey Winslow and her little son have returned from several weeks' stay at Banff and are with Mrs. Winslow's mother, Mrs. W. S. Sibson. Mr. and Mrs. Couch Waindars also have returned from Banff.

Mrs. Grelle and her daughters, the Misses Lisa and Freda Grelle of New Jersey have gone to Seaside for the summer out here and have apartments at the Nortonia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns and their daughters have opened their cottage at Gearhart Park and are entertaining friends. The Peter Korns and the De of honor at a number of informal affairs for the past month that they have spent in Portland.

COMING EVENTS

The Women of Woodcraft are assembled in their grand circle session in this city and will probably not complete their deliberations inside of two weeks. The circles of this city have prepared different forms of amusement for the delegates during their stay here. There are reception, picnics, excursions, and trolley rides planned. Friday night, August 6, the grand circle officers, grand circle delegates, and the visiting teams that are here to compete for the prizes offered for fine floor work, will be in reception at the rooms of the Commercial club. A short program has been prepared. The address of welcome will be given by Dr. Wetherbee, president of the Commercial club; Miss Elizabeth Harwas will sing and short talks will be given by E. E. Werlein and Judge T. G. Koforow. All members of the Women of Woodcraft are invited to be present. The reception will be from 8:30 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Barde will hold a reception this afternoon at 418 Fourth street in honor of their son Harold's confirmation.

WEDDINGS

Thursday, at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. W. F. Shumway, 123 North Fifty-seventh street, William Beeda and Miss Kate Millett of Glendale were united in marriage. The bride wore a gown of soft white tulle and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The rooms were decorated with sweet peas and the ceremony was performed and a wedding bell of the same fragrant blossoms. After a wedding supper they left for Woodbury where they will reside and go immediately to housekeeping.

At Seaside, at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Benson, George E. Millington and Miss Georgia E. Benson were married Thursday evening. A large number of relatives and friends were present. Rev. J. Bowersox performed the ceremony. J. O. Jones served as best man, while the bridesmaids were the bridesmaids. The Millington brothers and Mr. Cooper of Vancouver played mandolin during the ceremony and the evening.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Merrick, daughter of W. H. Merrick of this city, and Charles W. Detering was celebrated at the residence of his brother, July 19. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Benjamin Young of the First Methodist church. Mr. Detering is well known in bank circles, both in this city and in St. Louis, his former home.

Jacob Jenne and Miss Adella Schroeder were united in marriage at the residence of E. Englehardt, 142 East Clay street, last Sunday afternoon by the Rev. J. J. Staub of the Sunnyside Congregational church. Charles Jenne, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Mattie Windler as bridesmaid. The ceremony was witnessed by numerous friends and relatives.

Miss Edna Pearl Rock and William Milne were married last Saturday evening by Dr. Frank D. Findley, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church at the parsonage. Only the immediate relatives were present.

Arthur Wilson and Miss Millace Stinchcombe, both of Portland, were married Wednesday afternoon by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher in the reception room of the White Temple.

Captain M. P. Strandwitz of the S. S. Henrik Isen and Fredriche Hansen were married at the Norwegian Lutheran church, East Tenth and Grant streets July 25, Rev. O. Hagos officiating.

Nels Doving and Jenni Muller were married July 24 at 604 East Tenth street by Rev. O. Hagos of the Norwegian Lutheran church.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gumbert announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Josephine Gumbert, to Abe Friedman. They will be at home today from 2 until 6.

MUSIC ITEMS

The personnel of the choir of the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) for the coming year, is: Ralph W. Hoyt, organist; Mrs. May Dearborn Schwab, soprano; Miss Metta Brown, alto; W. G. Rodson, tenor; and John Claire Monteth, baritone. After three successful seasons as director of this choir, Mr. Monteth has been again chosen to fill that position. The church board is arranging for an organist for the service and the choir will give special attention to the evening music.

Efforts were recently made by the First Presbyterian church of Seattle to secure Mr. Monteth as baritone soloist in their choir during the summer months, but he declined.

Harold Vincent Milligan returned last Saturday night from his two years' stay in New York. En route home he visited a week in Yellowstone Park. Mr. Milligan, whose success in musical work in New York has been marked, will substitute as organist at the First Presbyterian church during August, while Mr. Courson is out of town. He has been organist and choir director at some of the more prominent churches in New York and the latest honor that has come to him is his election to the American Guild of Organists, admission to which is governed by strict examinations. Mr. Milligan made the highest standing of any candidate.

Eva Vore, one of Miss Grace Wilton's talented students, recently played with much success in Boise, Idaho. The young girl was awarded a gold medal in June for proficiency in her studies.

Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller will conduct the music and be soloist at the White Temple during August. With the return of the quartet in September she will continue as contralto soloist.

PERSONAL

The Misses Signa Lack and May Fenderson of Portland and Miss Hilma Brant of University Park are guests of Miss Josephine Beach at a week end house party at Tangwood cottage, Gearhart Park.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Wilton, is spending the summer at Seaside. Mrs. George Libby of Tacoma, with her daughter, Miss Katherine Libby, and her sister, Miss Anne Shannon, Moore of Portland, are spending a fortnight at North Beach.

Mrs. H. Koertman and Miss Hazel left last week to visit friends in Seattle.

Miss Laurie McCann, who has been

(Continued on Page Four.)

Agents for Fay Hosiery for Children

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

Agents for Henderson's Corsets

REMEMBER
SILVERFIELD'S
FURS.
MERIT MADE THEM FAMOUS.

Silverfield's
Cor. Fourth and Morrison Sts.

WRITE
FOR OUR NEW
FUR STYLE BOOK
FOR 1910.
MAILED FREE.

GREAT EXPANSION AND ALTERATION SALE STILL GOING ON

Further price reductions made in order to clean up the odds and ends which naturally accumulate during a great sale of this character. We mention in brief some of the remarkable values offered throughout our different departments.

Unmatchable values in Ladies' Lingerie and Linen Dresses, actual values to $50; sale price, ranging from $9.85 to $21.89.

A limited number of beautiful Silk Dresses, fine quality taffeta, pongee and foulard, in all the pretty shades that are fashionable this season, actually worth to $50, which we close out at ridiculously low price, $11.89.

Lingerie and Tailored Linen Waists still further reduced. We positively will not carry over any of our summer waists, so we have made further price reductions. Our loss is your gain.

NOTE THESE VALUES:

Dainty Lingerie and Tailored Linen Waists, Values to $8.00, for $1.98

Dainty Lingerie and Tailored Linen Waists, Values to $6.50, for $1.29

Dainty Lingerie and Tailored Linen Waists, Values to $2.50, for 59c

Will afford an opportunity for every family or office occupant to secure the needed furniture or floor coverings at a reduction.

TWO BIG WINDOW SPECIALS

Iron Beds

$24 Value

This
Week
Only

$11.50

Princess Dresser

$25 Value

This
Week
Only

$14.50

These are very attractive looking Beds, of the very latest and newest designs. They are well made and will last a lifetime.

These are full swell Quartered Sawn Oak Dressers, with extra quality of workmanship. They must be seen to appreciate the value we offer you.

Refrigerators and Porch and Lawn Furniture

25 Per Cent
to 33 1/3 Per Cent Discount

Home of Good
Furniture

Henry Jennings & Sons

Corner Second and Morrison Streets

Largest Stock
of All Grades of Furniture
and Carpets

Leedsdale Co.
GOWN AND COATMAKERS
504-505-506-507 Marquam Building