

With the month of August come the semi-annual clean-up days. Money-saving times for the thrifty furniture buyer. Broken sets, odds and ends from every department, must be gotten out of the way for fall stocks. August is the opportune month to accomplish this. Ordinarily a dull month, these special tonic sales serve a double purpose—to stimulate an otherwise dull business month, keep the force busy and at the same time enable the dealer to clear up his broken stock at about the original cost.
