

LANE MEN CAN SHOOT STRAIGHT

Cottage Grove Team Takes First Place at Rifle Range Contest.

Cottage Grove, the little city tucked away in the hills of Lane county, sent the winner team in the state team contest to the Oregon Rifle association contest now in progress at the Clackamas rifle range. The four guardsmen composing the team who carried off first prize and their scores are: Lieutenant H. H. Petrie, 112; Sergeant F. H. Snodgrass, 120; Sergeant J. H. Potts, 115; Private E. H. Mooney, 118, making the team's score 465, which was but four points above the team from Company K, Third Infantry.

The third place went to Company D of Roseburg, while the staff team of the Third Infantry took fourth place. The highest individual score, 122, was made by Corporal Romaine of Company K, Third Infantry, while Lieutenant McCormick and Sergeant Snodgrass tied for second place, each scoring 120.

Today's program opened with 115 riflemen firing at 200 and 600 yards and rapid firing. This will complete the state individual match as the firing over the skirmish course was completed yesterday afternoon.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the governor's trophy match, the most interesting event of the meeting, was held. Teams of eight men each from the Third and Fourth Infantry will fire over the short, mid and long ranges.

The Oregon Rifle association met in the range house last night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Major F. S. Baker of Portland, president; Colonel James Jackson, U. S. A., retired, vice president; Dunbar, treasurer, and Lieutenant John B. Hibbard, secretary. An agitation was started to buy the range house from the state and convert it into a clubhouse for the use of the association.

FALL FROM HORSE INJURES WOMAN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Aug. 3.—News reached here today from Mayer creek, five miles north of Bristol, that Mrs. Bryan R. Dorr, wife of President Dorr of the Major Creek Lumber company, was seriously injured Saturday by being thrown from a horse. Her injuries are of so serious a nature that the attending physician would not allow her removal to her home from the house of M. Zimmerman, where she was taken immediately after the accident, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Zimmerman's children are sick with scarlet fever. Mrs. Dorr, a recent bride from Minnesota, suffered several severe bone fractures.

At the last election a few voters got busy and selected a site in their unsettled end of the district. A dispute arose when the contract was awarded for the location of the new schoolhouse. At a meeting Saturday it was voted to hold a special election.

BIG CIRCUS SOON WILL COME HERE

Advance Brigade of "Billers" Now Plastering Country With Signs.

Ringling Brothers' circus is to exhibit in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday, August 24 and 25. In its entirety, from the 1200 people employed, the wonderland of 40 elephants, the 14 acres of canvas, 108 cage zoo, to the pink lemonade man, the circus will be transported to this city in 85 double length railroad cars.

The brigade of "billers" arrived last night, in one of the largest and most modern equipped cars ever constructed for advertising purposes. The interior is handsomely finished in oak and has "all the comforts of home." It contains two spacious offices in which the executive business is performed, a gentleman's smoking compartment, and the berths are so arranged that each person has practically a private section. It is from this car that the first billing matter is posted and distributed. Early this morning six wagons loaded with paper and bill posters were dispatched into the country, where every barn, fence and billboard will be clothed in posters announcing the marvels in store for those who come to town on show day.

This season Ringling Brothers present to the public the largest show in the world. Their big tent will comfortably seat 15,000 persons, and 375 performers take part in the great program. The feats and features are presented in three rings, on two stages, a quarter mile racing track and upon a forest of overhanging appliances. Two thirds of the performers are new to America, having made their debut under the Ringling banner, this season, at New York City, March 25.

Among the animal performers are the Schumann horses, from Germany. These creatures smoke pipes, drink from large glasses and roll one another about in huge beer barrels. Kealey's elephants that telephone, talking with one another from the front to rear end of the big tent; Kerslake's comedy porquines that shoot the chutes, walk the rope, climb ladders, walk on rolling globes and perform various other stunts that never fail to provoke laughter.

The performance this year begins with a grand spectacle and closes with a thriller. Seated in an automobile of tremendous power and ponderous weight, Mile La Belle Roche releases the car and guides the whirling monster down a precipitous steel track. At the incline's terminal the chariot swings from an upward curve and describes two complete midair revolutions before landing safely upon the hippodrome track and spending its terrible race.

The big new street parade, which is making the Ringlings more famous than ever, will move promptly on show day morning at 10 o'clock, following the route usually taken.

Wenatchee Bridge STANDS SEVERE TEST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Wenatchee, Wash., Aug. 3.—The state highway commission has completed its work of examining the Wenatchee bridge across the Columbia river, and a report will be prepared and placed in the governor's hands.

Tests were made with a view of discovering alleged damage to the concrete piers caused by using dynamite for opening holes for the anchor bolts, and also for the purpose of ascertaining whether the anchor bolts were securely placed in the piers.

A pressure of 35 tons was put on each of the bolts, but not one wavered. The result of the work of the examiners will be reported by them to the state board. The result of the test in full has not been given out. Engineer Bowlerman conducted the test for the commission, and the company was represented by the company's engineer, W. Hierzog, who has had charge of the Great Northern work in Tumwater canyon.

PIGEON'S FLIGHT IS 37 MILES AN HOUR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., Aug. 3.—A letter received today from Julius Lühndorf of Visalia, Cal., stated that two of the Homing pigeons liberated in this city July 14 had not yet reached their destination. Six birds were sent to this city from the office of the Visalia district of the International Federation of American Homing Pigeon Fanciers. KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CONVEGE AT MOBILE

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 3.—Knights of Columbus poured into Mobile today to attend the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the national organization, which continues through the remainder of the week.

This morning the national officers and delegates to the convention marched in procession to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, where a pontifical high mass was celebrated by Bishop Allen. Archbishop John J. Glennon of St. Louis preached the sermon. After the services at the cathedral the formal opening of the convention took place in the Lyric theatre. Mayor Lyons welcomed the visitors, and there were addresses by Past State Deputy Majorhorner, Supreme Knight Edward L. Hoarn and Archbishop Glennon. Luncheon was served at the Battle House and at 1 o'clock the convention began its business sessions behind closed doors.

The convention promises to be one of the most notable and eventful in the history of the organization. Several changes in the bylaws will be discussed and acted upon and an interesting report is expected from the committee on the progress made in raising the $500,000 endowment fund for the Catholic University of America.

The election of officers is another matter that is interesting the delegates. Supreme Knight Edward L. Hoarn is retiring from office after having served as head of the order for 10 years. Indications point to the election of James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia, the present deputy supreme knight, as his successor. There is also a likelihood that the men will be chosen to fill the offices of national secretary and treasurer.

The reports of the various officers prepared for presentation to the convention show the affairs of the organization to be in a flourishing condition. The total membership is now 225,000, which is divided among local branches throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Philippine Islands, Cuba, Porto Rico, Panama and South America.
