He is survived by a wife and daughter, Mrs. McPherson Gale, as well as by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Landess, all of Portland. Fell on Soft Earth—Owing to a defect in the king bolt of one of the trucks of the rear car, a slight accident resulted last night at about 10 o'clock. The sudden stoppage of the car caused those occupying the car to be thrown out, fortunately upon a bank of soft earth. Minor bruises were sustained by H. Buckman, living at 246 Fifth street, and W. T. Buckman, 554 Durham avenue. The road resumed operation in a few minutes.

Will Buy Fire Engines—The fire committee of the executive board yesterday recommended the purchase of two third size fire engines for the fire department from A. G. Long. The contract for these engines was formerly awarded to A. G. Long by the Lane executive board which afterwards rescinded its action because Mayor Lane and the fire committee declared that the specifications for bidders prepared by Fire Chief Campbell excluded all other makes of engines excepting that sold by Long.

Mobbed by Dark Haired Youth—Furious residents of Portland and King Heights have reported to the police headquarters that a flashy, dark haired youth, representing himself as an employee of a clothes pressing and cleaning establishment, has during the past two weeks made away with about two dozen suits of clothing and several expensive dresses. More than a dozen families have been victimized. Detectives have been put on the case.

Auto Speeder Hits Man—Irwin Johnson of 854 Kearney street, a nephew of E. J. Thompson of the banking firm of Hartman & Thompson, while driving his uncle's automobile on the Burnside street bridge Wednesday evening, ran down and seriously injured an unknown man. Arrested by Deputy Constable McCulloch Thursday afternoon, Johnson was held by Justice Ball yesterday. Officers proved that Johnson was speeding the machine.

The president will arrive on October 2 at 7 a. m. and will leave the next day at 6 p. m.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS" PLEASING THOUGH NOT OVERLY BRILLIANT

By J. F. S. A whimsical, odd and entertaining little play is "Polly of the Circus" which was offered at the Bungalow last night. It is a something that can easily be torn into shreds, and the company presenting it is not overly brilliant, but taken in the spirit that you would get a real circus—which it will be admitted is a kind of insanity—the fact that it is not convincing, matters not a straw. It has that quality known as "pretentious" which from the boxoffice point of view at least is infinitely more desirable than more cleverness. Polly is a circus rider, but perfectly good in spite of that, who gets hurt and is carried by the wagon and imprisoned in bed. John Douglas up into his best bedroom to recover herself. The circus has to go on without her and she stays with the mind-reading man who has gotten over her injury. Enter the time honored village gossip, who takes the young woman to task and induces her to return to the circus. She does—for a month—when the person comes and takes her and marries her and they never go to the circus any more. Primarily, the story is unoriginal and not overly exciting. Sales of young ministers who marry old maids and the horror of their parishoners are the backbone of the repertoires of this little drama lies in the effort to bring out something of the character of "retro" people, as Polly calls them, and in doing this Margaret Mayo has succeeded remarkably. Anyone who read "Toby Tyler, or Ten Weeks Wild" born at Castleton, N. D., July 19, 1889. He was a member of the Forbes Presbyterian church, a young man of sterling character, loved and respected by all who knew him. His remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

YOUNG MORMONS LEAVE FOR EUROPE

The Granda, Or., Aug. 13.—Earl and Elmer Stoddard, ages 18 and 20, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Stoddard of this place, left last night for the missionary fields of Europe. They will spend three months for the Mormon church. Their services are volunteered and they will receive no pay but that which is freely contributed. Their parents are wealthy. They go to England and Elmer to Germany.

PERSONAL

Cornelius C. Colt, president of the Union Meat company and one of the best known and best liked of the younger business men of the city, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday. It was reported at the hospital today that Mr. Colt had rallied from the operation most successfully and that his recovery is a practical certainty. He will not be able to return to his office for several weeks, however. Mrs. Robert Linda of 701 Twenty-fourth street, prominent clubwoman and society leader, who was thrown from an automobile and seriously injured on the East Line road August 6, is recovering rapidly. It was said at her home where she is confined, that she would be out in a week or so. While the machine was running at a high rate of speed two of the wheels collapsed. Mrs. Lutke was thrown headlong from the car. Other occupants of the tonneau were not unscathed. The machine was driven by Julius Bailey.

AT THE THEATRES

Fight Pictures at Lyric. Those who saw the Ketchel-Papke fight picture at the Lyric yesterday will tell you they are by far the clearest and best ever seen in Portland, that every detail of the fight is so clear that it stands out prominently. Today and tomorrow, matinee at 2:30 and two exhibitions at night, at 8 and 9:15. Reserved seats in the evening. "Doris" Next Sunday. Next Sunday matinee the regular dramatic season opens at the Lyric, when the Athlon Stock company, direct from Chicago, will present the great drama, "Doris," by Rubelman. It is a greater than a sermon, with Priscilla Knowles in the title role, and an elaborate scenic production. The players of prominence are in the company.

THE OAKS

If there has been anything overlooked at the Oaks to make a visit there more pleasant, it would be very difficult to name it. What with beautiful grounds, beautiful environments, charming music and beautiful views, what more could be desired for an afternoon or evening's outing?

MUSICAL MIRTH AT PANTAGES.

A delightful one act musical comedy is offered by the Gardner Trio (and the dog), at Pantages. The two girls are very pretty, with charming voices which they use to good effect in several happy songs. The gowns worn by the girls are dreams and are said to be the finest worn in a vaudeville act. Sensational Acrobats at Pantages. Europe's most marvelous acrobats, the Six Bonasetti, are topline attractions on Pantages' program next week, and they will prove a great sensation in Portland as they have in other cities on the Pantages circuit. Some of their feats have never before been attempted on any stage and are thrilling in the extreme. "Polly" Tonight, Twice Tomorrow. The attraction at the Bungalow theatre tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock, with a special price matinee tomorrow, will be Frederic Thompson's magnificent production of "Polly of the Circus." Ida St. Leon will be seen as "Polly."

HALL'S HIT.

Arthur K. Hall, late of "The Land of Nod," is a real hit at the Grand. Hall is an eccentric dancer and his monologue is a series of smiles. The Les Florets Larellas, French girls, who offer something new in contortion work and acrobatic feats, head the list. J. K. Emmett is heard in a song introduced by the yodling in a merry little comedy called "Artie's Dream."

SPECIAL MATINEE AT ORPHEUM.

There will be a special souvenir matinee at the Orpheum tomorrow, Saturday. Capt. George Auger and company will present a delightful sketch and "The Giant Killer." After the performance a reception will be held upon the stage, and all those present will have WESTMORELAND'S CUT STONE GRAND ARCH IS FINISHED—IT'S A BEAUTY. HAVE YOU SEEN IT? It's about the first arch in all the city of Portland that received its actual finishing touches. Get on the car next Sunday and ride around WESTMORELAND WAY and look at it—stay on the car if you choose, but a car window view of it will not give you an adequate idea of its true massive proportions and beautiful lines. Better to see it from the ground at close range. Seeing this beautiful arch in its finished state will give you a better grasp on the fact that WESTMORELAND is being handled as no other subdivision has ever been. You will be fully able to appreciate the full meaning of the statement that WESTMORELAND grades, curbs, walks and all improvements go in from one end of the property to the other WITHOUT DELAY, and that the whole tract will consequently be immediately benefited.
