Chicago Schools in Need of Husky Women to Bathe Poorer Class of Children.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Aug. 21.—The Chicago board of education is advertising for 17 scrub women to be employed to scrub some of the children attending the schools before they are permitted to enter the class rooms. No one but a widow need apply, and she must be husky, even tempered and in every way capable of handling any squirming youngster who attempts to escape the soap and water so heartily favored by numbers of youths of the poorer districts.

LIGHTS OUT AND CARS ON STRIKE

Breaking of High Power Cable Puts Public to Annoyance.

A high power cable carrying 10,000 volts broke down at the central distributing station of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in Seventh and Alder last night about 6 o'clock and put out the lights and stopped the cars over a big section of the downtown district. Workers were rushed to the scene by Chief Inspector Pape, who had the burned out wires replaced sufficiently to start half of the machines in half an hour after the accident happened. As it was, however, the cars north of Washington and the elevators in many of the downtown buildings were left without power for some time and dinner bound people were forced to resort to the old primitive system of using their feet to get home.

GIRLS MUST NOT GIGGLE OR FLIRT

Those Are the Objections to Girl Students Declares President Wheeler.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 21.—The law has been laid down to the co-eds of the University of California by President Benjamin D. Wheeler, who addressed them at a meeting of the Associated Women students. In part he said: "There are a lot of you who come to the university because you do not know what else to do. Many of you are entirely too immature to know what you want or why you want it. It seems to be a common plan for girls to take up teaching as a profession merely to find something to occupy time until the right man proposes. Such teachers are the burden of our high schools."

FIRE OCCURS WHEN ANARCHIST PLOT AGAINST CZAR

Waitsburg Farmer Is Notified of Loss of Grain After Policy is Written.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Dayton, Wash., Aug. 21.—"I'm going to town to have my grain insured," remarked John Lance, a well known Waitsburg farmer, to his wife yesterday as he started for town. Lance lives on a ranch eight miles west of Waitsburg. Starting at noon, he did not reach town until 2 o'clock. It was 4 o'clock before he found time to drop into the insurance office of J. E. Houschens & Co. and have the policy written. He had not left the insurance office when a telephone message from the ranch announced that 15 acres of his grain had been destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock, causing a loss of from $500 to $600. An altercation has arisen over the exact loss.
