Abandons Six Children—Six children, left in charge of the Children's home in April by their father, Charles Rosky, were apportioned among three charitable institutions by Judge Bronaugh in the juvenile court yesterday, and unless the father appears within 30 days they will be permanently placed for adoption. Rosky, when he turned the children over, said he had secured work with a contractor at Grand Dalles, Wash., and would pay $5 per month for the support of each child. Since then he has not been heard from, and letters have been unanswered. The children range in age from 2 to 14 years. The two oldest were awarded to the Boys' and Girls' Aid society, three to the Children's home and the baby to the Baby home.

Alder Street Owners Object—City Auditor A. L. Barbur sent out the notices of assessments on Alder street property yesterday to pay for the straightening of the jog where it enters Washington street. The property owners were charged approximately $6.40 a foot for this improvement, making the man who owns a couple of lots pay $640. The removal of the jog was done by shaving E. J. Daly's triangular lot at the intersection, and the cost of the change foots up to something like $43,-000, which charge has been distributed along Alder street from Stout street to the river. The owners on the lower end of the street feel much aggrieved and say they will remonstrate not only with fire but with effect.

Falls Thirty Feet and Is Unhurt—Little Iris Hill, 3 years old, miraculously escaped death yesterday, when she fell from the roof of a building at 311 Second street, in the rear of the Auditorium hall. She dropped 30 feet. The girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hill of 211½ Second street. Iris was playing on the roof with other children and climbed upon the parapet. Losing her balance, she fell. No bones were broken and she was only badly shaken up and frightened. She is able to be out today.

Funeral of M. D. Wisdom — Some changes have been made in the final plans for the funeral of M. D. Wisdom, who died Thursday afternoon. The funeral will take place at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon from Trinity Episcopal church, corner of Nineteenth and Everett streets. The services will be held under the auspices of the Elks' lodge, of which Mr. Wisdom was a member, with Rev. W. R. Powell, chaplain of the Bishop Morris Memorial chapel at the Good Samaritan hospital, officiating.

"National" Entertainment—A national entertainment will be held at the Swedish Salvation Army hall, 420 Burnside street, formerly the old Swedish Lutheran church. An interesting program will be given, in which five nations will be represented. Captain Jensen from Tacoma will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by the officers and soldiers of the corps. An interesting feature of the program will be a piano selection from Miss Anderson.

Horses in Bad Condition—Cruelty to animals was the charge preferred against V. Lalone last night by Humane Officer Crate, the man being confined in the city jail for several hours last night. He was driving two horses with great sores on their backs when arrested by the officer. Lalone will be put on trial in municipal court Monday.

On Ground of Cruelty—Suit for divorce on the ground of cruelty has been begun in the circuit court by Olive D. Ten Eyck against Levi E. Ten Eyck. She says he has choked her, and went to dances with other women. She was married at Grand Junction, Colo., in July, 1900.

Wanted in Spokane—John Pechak, wanted in Spokane on a charge of giving full title to a mortgaged farm, was arrested last night by Detectives Maloney and Mallet. He will be held until an officer from the inland city is sent for him. Pechak faces a swindling charge.

Cashier Company Incorporated—Allen Todd, C. W. Meadows and W. L. Barnum have filed articles of incorporation of the United States Cashier company, with a capital of $200,000. It will deal in a patented change machine.

BELIEVES WORLD SHOULD SEE LAKE

Archbishop Christie Returns From Central Oregon.

"No wonder the Indians of Oregon wove beautiful and fantastic legends about Crater Lake, for it is wonderful enough to awake the imagination of even a savage's mind." In this spirit Archbishop Christie returns to Portland from a trip through central Oregon and the Klamath country.

Called by the missionary duties of his church the archbishop has been making an extended tour of the interior of Oregon. On the trip to the Crater Lake country he went by automobile from Medford and returns charmed with the wonderful scenery and the great possibilities of the vast empire through which he journeyed.

"I am very sorry," said the archbishop, "that the $100,000 provided by the legislature for the construction of the Crater Lake road has been held up in the courts. In my mind the completion of that road would be a most powerful advertisement for the state. Crater Lake is one of the great wonders of nature. The surrounding country is wonderful and sublime. I was only there for a few hours in the early morning, but the short glimpse I had, with the sun just rising across the lake is something I will never forget.

"The roads in the national park are good, and considering the roughness of the country, the roads leading to the lake are good, but if a road were constructed from Medford it would be a great thing for Oregon."

The noted traveler is also enthusiastic over the future possibilities of the central portion of the state and all of Oregon in general.

"I am convinced," he said, "that Oregon is to be one of the greatest states in the union. I believe that Medford will be a great city in the future. It has a wonderful country around it, a district of great fertility, vast resources and beautiful climate. I believe it has a great future.

"The world knows but little of Oregon, of its varied resources, of its vast reaches of timber and rich land awaiting development. My trip has opened my eyes as they have never before been opened. I believe Oregon is to be a great state of many people, large cities and continued prosperity."

Archbishop Christie returned to Portland about two weeks ago and for the past week has been at Columbia college attending the annual retreat of the priesthood of the state. He returned to his residence yesterday.

PINCHOT SPEAKS HERE AUGUST 30

Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot, whose controversy with Secretary Ballinger has stirred up official circles all over the United States, will be in Portland August 30 and will not only be in consultation with the conservation commission here and the lumbering interests, but will speak in public on "Conservation and the Plain People."

It is expected that in this address, delivered in the heart of the timber section, Forester Pinchot will state his own position and explain just where he and Secretary Ballinger have fallen out.

August 26, 27 and 28 Forester Pinchot will be present at the First National Conservation congress, at which the following Oregon delegates will be present: J. N. Teal, Ben Irwin, W. L. Findley, H. D. Langille of Portland, and C. W. Thompson of Cascade Locks. At the conclusion of this congress Forester will come to Portland as the guest of J. N. Teal.

Forester Pinchot's address will be given at the Unitarian church, corner Seventh and Yamhill streets, at 8 p. m. on Monday, August 30.

AT THE THEATRES

"Girl From Rector's."

The attraction at the Bungalow theatre, Twelfth and Morrison streets, for the week beginning tomorrow (Sunday) night, will be the sensational New York comedy success, "The Girl From Rector's." Seats are now selling at the Bungalow theatre for the entire engagement. A special price matinee will be given Saturday.

Orpheum Has Big Bill.

There are just four more performances of this week's bill at the Orpheum, matinees today and Sunday and the shows tonight and Sunday night. Crowded houses throughout the entire week prove the popularity of this splendid bill.

Rohrs Ride Tomorrow.

The three Rohrs will ride at the Grand tomorrow, as usual, and this will close the engagement of this sensational act. The Rohrs have accomplished a most sensational and thrilling feat at the Grand this week. Vera De Bassini, the Italian nightingale, is another of the big hits on the bill.

Choir Appears Only Once.

There will be only one opportunity for Portland music lovers to listen to the famous Tabernacle choir which is booked at the Baker theatre Tuesday, August 24, as the 225 singers leave immediately afterward to take part in the open contest which is scheduled to come off at the A.-Y.-P. exposition in Seattle, the last of the month. Seat sale opens Monday morning, 10 a. m.

Double-Header at Pantages.

Two topline attractions on a single bill is the feature at Pantages, where Mary Hampton and her clever company are appearing in Edmund Day's bright satirical sketch, "The Melodrama," and the six Bonesettis are presenting marvelous acrobat feats, many of which have never been attempted before.

The Oaks.

Visits to Portland are not complete without including the Oaks. In addition to all kinds of amusements provided for the entertainment of patrons, there are free concerts by Donatelli's celebrated Italian band, and an exhibition for a limited time by Mme. Schell and her performing lions. Take cars at Third and Yamhill.

Last Time "Doris" Tonight.

Tonight is the last performance of "Doris," the drama with a moral greater than a sermon, at the Lyric. Pretty Priscilla Knowles is playing the title role, and the other members of the company are seen to advantage. You'll be sorry if you miss this opening bill of the new company.

Timber Valley Couple Wed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Aug. 21.—Whether the physical examination law had anything to do with it or not is not stated, but Wasco county is richer by the price of a marriage license fee granted to James F. West and Mrs. Hattie Claxton, who were married in this city yesterday. Mr. West is a prosperous farmer of Timber Valley, and Mrs. Claxton was also somewhat of a farmer in that vicinity until a few days ago, when she established a residence here.

Reception to Pastor Cook.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Or., Aug. 21.—On Thursday evening a farewell reception was tendered Rev. F. L. Cook in the First Christian church on Eighth and Court streets. Rev. Cook leaves today for Portland, where he has accepted the position of associate to Rev. J. F. Gormley, pastor of the Central Christian church.

WOULD MAKE CEMETERY PAY

City Officials Will Have Lone Fir Case Investigated.

At its meeting yesterday afternoon the street committee instructed Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson to render a report as to the liability of cemetery associations to pay for public improvements by which they are benefited. Pending the receipt of this report the committee postponed action on an ordinance appropriating $5000 to pay for the construction of a retaining wall along East Stark street to protect the graves in Lone Fir cemetery.

While a steam shovel was at work grading the street near the cemetery several weeks ago eight bodies were disinterred. It is believed that the graves in which these were buried were located on property belonging to the city and that lots had been sold for the purpose by the cemetery association, of which Wilson Benefiel is manager and a large stockholder.

Since the published reports of the exhumation Benefiel has been besieged by anxious people who have buried relatives and friends in Lone Fir. Councilman Kubli said yesterday that Benefiel had told him that more than 1000 letters from all parts of the United States have been sent him and that he receives 50 telephone calls a day inquiring the names of the dead whose skeletons were dug up by the steam shovel.

Councilman Kubli will ask the council at its next session to make an investigation of the cemetery association and to ascertain especially where the eight bodies were reburied. He thinks these were put back in one grave.

For Nervous Disorders
Take Horsford's Acid Phosphate. Especially recommended for the relief of nervous headache, exhaustion and insomnia.

Neurasthenia

Also Known as "Nerve Tire" and "Nervous Exhaustion"

has, during the present generation, come to be known as the "National Disease" of America. So prevalent has it become that it is almost an exception to find a person without it. It is usually found associated with nervous dyspepsia, which is often the most prominent symptom. In this age of hurry, worry, hustle and the strenuous life in business many people overwork their nervous systems and put too much strain upon them, which eventually causes a partial or total breakdown. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, through its tonic and rebuilding constituents, will cure these troublesome nervous complaints by supplying the system with those vital elements which it needs to bring about a complete restoration to health.

The processes of tearing down and building up are constantly being carried on in the body, and if nothing interferes with these important processes health results; but when something occurs to check them disease is sure to follow. Duffy's Malt Whiskey overcomes the disease by stimulating the heart and nerves, which quickens the circulation of blood, enabling the system to properly assimilate the food from the alimentary tract; also to adequately eliminate from the system through the lungs, pores, kidneys and intestines those waste products such as uric acid, toxins, etc., which result from the disintegration of the old tissues of the body, and the decomposition of alimentum in the alimentary canal.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

If weak and run down, take a teaspoonful four times a day in half a glass of milk or water.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold everywhere by druggists, grocers and dealers, or shipped on order for $1.00 a bottle.

Our Consulting Physician will send to every reader of The Journal advice, and an interesting illustrated medical booklet, free of charge. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y.

Bulletin No. 28

WESTMORELAND

We stood on the corner of Morrison and Third streets waiting for our car. There is nothing strange in that—we've done it before.

We waited half an hour, and while we waited we watched—mostly the cars that passed and the signs that indicated their destinations.

Fifteen cars passed in that stretch of thirty minutes that would have connected us with our dinners had we been going WESTMORELAND way—but we weren't. An East Ankeny car was the arbiter of our fortunes and our appetites that evening.

And so we waited.

Some day—and the time is not far distant—we're going to fool that fellow that runs the cars. We're going to live in WESTMORELAND.

When our stomachs say it's time for food, we're going straight and get it—without a wait.

That's one reason why we're going to live in WESTMORELAND.

We know of others.
