MISS DISS DE BAR ASKED TO VACATE
 New York, Aug. 26.--Jane Diss de Bar, high priestess of immortality, who was convicted of victimizing Luther Marsh, a New York millionaire, and who was sentenced to seven years imprisonment in London in 1901, has been expelled from the Manhattan institution on West Thirty-third street, conducted by Mrs. Lillian Hobart French.

who was convicted of victimizing Luther Marsh, a New York millionaire, and who was sentenced to seven years imprisonment in London in 1901, has been expelled from the Manhattan institution on West Thirty-third street, conducted by Mrs. Lillian Hobart French.

Mrs. French is reputed to be a member of a wealthy California family. Mrs. French said today: "I was the innocent victim of this woman. When I learned her identity, I promptly asked her to vacate my home. I did not know that she was the notorious creature who victimized Marsh."

 Mrs. French said that it was her belief that Jane Diss de Bar had learned that she was a close acquaintance of J. P. Morgan and F. Augustus Heine and other wealthy men, and that she woman had joined the institute with the idea of later making them her victims.

Crops Boost Land Prices.
 Colfax, Wash., Aug. 25.--That enormous grain yields are advancing the price of Palouse farm lands beyond any previous record is evidenced by the marked increase in the price at which farms are being offered in this section since the beginning of harvest, many lands listed for sale at that time having either been taken off the market entirely or the figure at which they are held raised from 15 to 50 per cent.

Despite the advance of steam, there still are nearly 46,000 sailing vessels in use in the world.
