

STATE SAYS LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

Able Brief Filed in Crater Lake Road Case Supports the State Aid Act.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Aug. 28.—The brief of the appellants in the case of J. K. Sears vs. George A. Steel as trustee, and F. W. Benson as secretary, of state, commonly known as the Crater lake road case, an appeal from the decree of Judge William Galloway, has been filed in the supreme court. The brief is very comprehensive filling sixty-two pages of printed matter and is full of quotations to sustain the points of authorities and arguments of the appellants.

The second point upon which respondents pressed their right of belief is that the legislative act is unconstitutional because section 22 of Article 5 of the constitution provides that the legislative assembly cannot pass special or local laws for laying, opening and working highways. Appellants claim that the complaint of the respondent does not state facts sufficient to entitle respondent to relief for the reason that it does not set out facts wherein said act is unconstitutional and void or where it contravenes the constitution.

It seems therefore to be the settled doctrine of this state that the legislative assembly may appropriate money to aid in the construction of a state road, provided it does not operate wholly within one county, and which is not limited to a particular county or local road, or other portion of the state. Our constitution has no provision prohibiting the legislature from passing a law granting aid for the purpose of improving highways, provided it is a provision requiring all laws to be general and uniform in their operation.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. T. S. Linscott

Ministers, Sunday school teachers and others interested are invited to write The Journal briefly their views as to the worth of these "questions," particularly if they consider them of value in their work. The International Newspaper Bible Study club is for the purpose of promoting in an unfeigned way among the masses a wider study of the Bible, the basis of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, having only ordained clergymen. All who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes. Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes, and the back questions may be obtained by addressing this office. This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere that they will appear weekly in both the Saturday and Sunday issues of The Journal. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

Conditions of the contest. 1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study club and this local club. 2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions for 13 consecutive weeks, commencing Sunday, March 14, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period. 3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed 500 words in length and may be less. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the page. 4. The answers must be delivered to this office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent judges, and the prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study club. The Prizes. First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $6.50, to each of the next five contestants. Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next five contestants. Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. Persons who can write and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the practical application of the principles of the Bible.

Cocoa Fact No. 9

The following is the first known cocoa advertisement; it appeared on the 16th of June, 1657, in the London Public Advertiser: "In Bishop's Head Alley, at a Frenchman's house, is an excellent West India drink called chocolate, to be sold, also unmade at reasonable rates."

You cannot make a good cup of cocoa out of poor cocoa; a poor cook couldn't spoil Ghirardelli's COCOA in the making. Fragrant, delicious, nourishing. Less than one cent a cup. Don't ask merely for cocoa —ask for Ghirardelli's.
