AT THE THEATRES

Jewel and Bowles. All the hundreds of admirers of those two popular and superb actors of the old Baker Stock company are going to have one more chance to see them before they bid a final adieu to this city. Next week, starting Sunday matinee, at the Baker, Manager Baker has arranged for them to appear in a grand special production of the famous Bret Harte play "Salomy Jane" and the sale of seats begins tomorrow morning at the Baker boxoffice. There will be a Labor Day matinee.

PETER KROFF MUST ANSWER COUNTRYMEN Peter Kroff, for whom the authorities have been looking since April, 1905, was arrested by Patrolmen Barce and Biglow yesterday and is held on a warrant charging larceny by embezzlement. Kroff was connected with the Red Cross employment agency. He is alleged to have advertised for Hungarians to work at Kalama, Wash., and to have charged them $5 each for their jobs. Then, it is alleged, he skipped out with the money, leaving about 40 singly Hungarians to lament the loss of their money. The men who were duped became so threatening when they learned the loss of their money one night last April that a riot call was sent to police headquarters. Several Hungarians appeared at the police station today who are anxious to prosecute but vitally anxious to recover their $5. Kroff will be held for action by the grand jury.

BOYS GET OFF WITH REPRIMAND Hugh McKinnon, C. E. Mills and Roy McPherson, members of prominent Portland families, who confessed to robbing Korber's curio store, Washington street, between First and Second streets, of jewelry and trinkets valued at more than $100, were allowed to go free by Judge Bennett in municipal court yesterday. McKinnon and McKinnon, both 11 years old, and C. E. Mills, 11 years of age, all testified that it was their first offense. "One path leads to the penitentiary," said the court. "The other to success. You may choose which you will follow. If brought before this court again I promise you boys I will send you to jail."

VISION IN PINK ENTERS CAR AND 'RAH' RAHS TAKE NOTICE It was a pay-as-you-enter car, and it was coming back from the ball grounds Sunday. There were just 24 passengers in the car as it turned into Thurman street, and every one of these was a man. Not one looked to be more than 30 years old, and most of the bunch appeared to be collegians or at least school-boys. Sixteen sat on each side of the car and two were standing, although there would have been plenty of room for others to sit had the seated ones not been greedy of space. For a half dozen occupied as much space as twice that number should have occupied, turned sideways with elbows leaning out of open windows. At Twenty-third and Thurman a frail, sickly looking little woman in black got on the car. She was dressed in an old blouse of an outworn vintage and looked tired. But she stood nevertheless. No body offered her a seat. A "rah" rah group of three sat sprawling on the right hand seat at the end of the car where the tired woman was standing. They looked ashamed and kept their faces out of the window, but they sat. Presently a fat, homely country girl got on the car. She also stood, but understood not. A long time the woman and the girl waited and wished for a duplicate in blue, and a fluffy Ruffian in fawn. In 30 seconds half the men in the car had jumped from the seats and the "rah" rahs were in the lead. Pluffy and the vicious sat down. The fat girl and the tired woman looked at each other, and there was a curl on the lip of each.

A NEW DEPARTURE The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company. Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing caskets and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.

Bulletin No. 36 WESTMORELAND

Yesterday marked the sale of exactly 25 lots at WESTMORELAND, aggregating $17,500. Such a remarkable dog-day record tells the story of the general popularity of this property. Those whom we talk to believe in WESTMORELAND. Those who visit the tract buy. WESTMORELAND won't last long at the rate it is going. While you are hanging back and wondering, it will be entirely sold and solidly built up, and prices will be beyond the ordinary pocketbook. Today offers your greatest opportunity—don't dodge it. Fifty to one hundred dollars to the person that takes hold of a lot today, tomorrow or the two next days—but no longer. What's your answer?
