Portland Day Crowds Tax Accommodations at State Fair: Lewis & Clark Pace for $5000 This Afternoon; the Awards.

Salem, Or., Sept. 16.—Portland Day will be the biggest day at the Oregon State fair. At noon today it seemed that all attendance records would be broken. Excursions from the south and north have brought thousands to the city and the Salem; Falls City & Western has been bringing loaded trains from the west all

At the race track this afternoon thousands of people were unable to ain admittance to the grand stand. jam about the entrances from 12:30 o'clock until 2:00 o'clock was such that ft was almost impossible for a woman to enter.

At noon every refreshment stand and restaurant on the grounds was filled to capacity and many of those who were not already provided with lunches had to go hungry until late in the afternoon. In order to see the big events on the track this afternoon, thousands of people sat in the grandstand from 11 o'clock until 1:30 o'clock, when the first heat of the first race was started.

Lewis and Clark Stake.

The biggest race today is the Lewis and Clark stake of $5000 offered to $112 pacers. The entry list is a large one and a fast one. There will be a 2-year-old pace for the Hilhee purse of $500 and an event for horses of the $120 pacing class. There will be a derby and a one half mile running race. Last night the annual meeting of the Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association was held and officers for the following year elected. All the officers of last year were nominated and reelected. They were J. W. Bailey, president; George Chandler, first vice president; N. O. Maris, secretary; Charles at Walter's restaurant on the fair grounds this evening. A committee was appointed last night by the association to make arrangements for a special Northern Pacific freight to carry the stock direct from the Portland Country club at the end of next week to the livestock show at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle the following week.
