Sribsry Demurrer Gyericoked—Presiding Judge Brenaugh this megning overruled the demurrer in the case of George Potter and Jue Gut, who are alleged to have offered $200 to H. C. Wright, a juror in the Yee Gueng murder case, provided he would the up the jury and prevent conviction. Potter has not yet been arraigned, but he will be brought in soon and the case put in shape for trial. Yee Gueng was convicted last year of the murder of Lee Tai Hoy, a Chinese merchant. Lem Woon having previously been convicted on the same charge, and both are under sentence of death. Other members of their tong were very active in their behalf, the arrest of Potter and Jue Gui following statements by Wright that they attempted to bribe him.

Gentral W. C. T. U.—The opening devotional exercises of Central W. C. T. U. were conducted by Mrs. C. M. Badgley. The election of officers followed. Mrs. Neal B. Inman was elected president. Miss Burns was elected corresponding secretary. Mrs. Monne Houston, treasurer. Delegates were elected to the county convention which meets next Thursday and Friday at the Congregational church, Sunnyside. Delegates were also elected to the state convention to be held October 5-5 at Hood River. Mrs. Badgley spoke of Mrs. Edith Thompson, formerly a member, now ill in St. Vincent's hospital, and requested the members to write to her, or call on her. Mrs. Unruh reported her recent tour in southeastern Oregon, and organizing new unions.

Thomas E. Sherman keeds Programmerat W. T. Sherman, S. J., son of Generat W. T. Sherman, will head a vaude ville bill given at the Bungalow theatre October 29, for the benefit of St. Michael's church. The Rev. Father is widely known throughout the east, not only as a lecturer and pulpit orator, but also, as a reader of great dramatic power. He has chosen for this occasion a poem, entitled "The Hound of Heaven," and will render same, with music accompaniments. E. J. Quillinan, under whose direction the entertainment will be given, is working hard to make this event an artistic as well as a financial success. He has already secured the best professional and amateur talent in Portland.

Property Left High in Air.—Nina W. Woodcock filed a pithy protest with the city auditor today. She has been assessed $7770.70 for her share of the improvement on the Bancroft avenue hill. She says that her property has been left high in the air like the foundations of a coast lighthouse by reason of the grading operations on the avenue and that she has not received any benefit thereby. The grade is so steen, she says, that no team could get up the hill with a wagon and that even a city councilman would require the assistance of an alpenstock to negotiate the climb.

Dr. Grannis to Speak—Rev. Dr. J. W. Grannis, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, formerly known as the American Sabbath union arrived in Portland today and will speak next Sunday morning in the Taylor Street Methodist church, and in the afternoon he will address the congregation of the Eirst Presbyterian church. The Sunday afternoon meeting will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. The subjects of both lectures will be announced later.

Verdict for Mrs. Skillman.—Mrs. Margaret Skillman's estimate of the damages she should receive from the Portland Railway company for injuries sustained in September, 1907, was cut from $40,000 to $996 by a jury in Judge Cleland's department of the circuit court yesterday afternoon. She was thrown te the ground and dragged for some dis-tance by a car at Third and Alder streets. She alleged that it started sud-denly as she was trying to alight.

Vernon School Opened.—The Vernon school opened today with a registration of 343. This brings the total attendance for the week up to 18,505, or more than 1000 in excess of the number attending at the end of the first week last year. The contractors in charge of the alterations on the Davis and Eliot buildings have as yet been unable to inform the school board definitely when the buildings will be ready for occurancy.

Japanese Thank Chamber — Letters have been received by the chamber of commerce from the members of the Japanese commercial expedition who were here last week and from President Shimomura and Secretary Takahashi of the Japanese Association of Oregon, thanking the chamber for the efforts made to entertain the Japanese while they were here, and saying that the members of the party were delighted with their treatment in Portland.

Sues streetcar Company.—Suit for $20,000 damages against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company has been begun in the circuit court by John Warmuth Because of an accident on the Waverly-Woodstock line on January 22. He alleges that a car he was attempting to board at the Vivian street switch started without warning and he was thrown under the wheels, losing one of his legs by amputation. his legs by amputation.

AT THE THEATRES

An excellent program is offered at Pantages this week and among the many feature acts Arthur Deming, the famous blackface artist, Montague's Composition of Cockstone, Miskel, Hunt and Miller, ragtime musicians, and Monetekel, the wonderful London Hippodrome sensation, are especially worthy of mention.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Kaisma, Wash., Sept. 16.—Rev. J. C. Murphy has been reappointed to the work in the M. E. church at Kelso and Ostrander for another year.

Rev. W. E. Cox will enter upon the discharge of his duties as the paster of the Kalama.

The Oaks. There is no question in the minds of regular vigitors at the Oaks that the trip is an ideal experience. The beautiful grounds, the masses of flowers, the band and vocal concerts and the always interesting Trail combine to furnish entertainment of the highest charactes. Only four more days remain of this scason, as the park positively will be closed for this year next funday night. Cars at Third and Yambill or East Morrison and East Water.

"Fifty Miles From Boston." "Fifty Miles From Boston," about which everybody has heard so much, is at the Baker this week, and creating no small sensation, for it is without doubt one of the best of the great George M. Cohan musical comedies. Miss Grace King, as the pretty young postmistress is most winning and the company is excellent throughout. Matinec Saturday.

Great Drama Pleases. "The Wages of Sin," the great object lesson drama that the Athen players are giving at the Lyric this week, is giving great satisfaction. It is a beautiful scenic production with all the members of the company in the cast. Matinee Saturday. You'll like the Lyric,

"Girls" at the Star Tonight. Tonight and the rest of the week, including a Saturday matinee, the beautiful Clyde Fitch comedy, "Girls," will be repeated at the Star, where it has been the delight of all who have seen it this week. If you can't laugh at Rica Ailen's singing of "Love Me and the World Is Mine," you are a hopeless grouch.

Popular Vagrants. The Three Vagrants at the Grand have become highly popular with the patrons of the house. Dolan and Lenharr in "The High-toned Burgiar's Christmas Tree," are making a hit, and the acrobatic comedy of the Stagpooles eclipses anything else in this line that has been seen recently.

PERSONAL

Mrs. J. W. Morris, who has been critically ill at her home in this city, was reported out of danger today and will, her physicians say, he able to resume her social duties within the next few days.

E. B. Piper, managing editor of the Oregonian, was pronounced out of danger this morning. He was operated on a day or two since for appendicitis at Good Samaritan hospital.

Dalles Man Injured, Dalles Man Injured,

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Or., Sept. 16.—George Johnston fell from a train this morning and was seriously injured about the head. Johnston had assisted his sister onto the train at The Dalles and thinking the train would stop at the Umatilla house, remained on board.
When the train reached the Umatilla house it had attained a speed of about 15 miles an hour. Johnston, seeing it was not going to stop, attempted to alight. He was hurled to the ground, falling on his head.

He was taken to The Dalles hospital.
He is in a critical condition.

MAIN BULLETIN (16)

To those who are following these daily articles, who are open to conviction, and who are making up their minds regarding an investment in UNITED WIRELESS stock, we would say: DON'T MISTAKE PERSONAL IDEAS OR OPINIONS FOR FACTS. DON'T MISTAKE GOSSIP FOR KNOWLEDGE, Investigate THOROUGHLY, through COMPETENT AUTHORITIES, AND PASTE THE FOLLOWING IN YOUR HAT:

While walking along a street which was crowded with modern business people, a traveler saw an aged man, carrying a lantern, and who peered into the faces of those he met. Recognizing nim, the traveler cried: "DIOGENES, isn't it about time you gave up your search for an honest man?"

"Friend," answered he, "I am tempted to desist, but you mistake the object of my quest. I found an honest man, several centuries ago. I AM NOW HUNTING FOR THE MAN WHO GIVES ABSOLUTELY UNSELFISH ADVICE ON THE MAKING OF AN INVESTMENT IN WHICH HE HAS NO INTEREST." He continued on his way.
