Pire Destroys Besidence Fire de-stroyed the residence of A. Anderson at East Forty-eighth and Shaw streets at 9 o'clock last night, causing a loss of about $3500. Neighbors discovered the blaze and broke into the house, the family being absent, but on account of family being absent, but on account of the lack of water pressure were unable to get a stream on the fire. Engine company No. I responded to the alarm but was unable to fight the fire except with a bucket brigade, which carried water from the hydrants in the nearby yards. Fireman Fred Nash was overcome by smoke but was soon revived and suffered no other injuries. The first alarm came from the residence of H. Homire at 850 Going streef. The house, a small cottage, was totally destroyed, entailing a loss of about $1000. In this as in the Anderson fire, the family of the owner of the house was absent when the blaze was discovered.

Desth of Mrs. Bertha Kohn—Mrs. Bertha Kohn, a pioneer of 1865, died suddenly yestorday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Fuller, 394 Salmon street. She was 77 years of age and had been extremely feeble for the past few years. She is survived by five children, Mrs. A. B. Steinbach of Portland, Arthur Kohn of New York, Mrs. Fuller of Portland, Mark Kohn of Portland and Mrs. John Weln of Butte. Mont. Mrs. Kohn was born in Germany in 1832 and came to America as a young girl. The family settled in New Orleans and there she married Joseph Kohn. In 1864 she crossed the isthmus and came to Oregon by way of California. Her husband died in 1884.

Grace Sent to County Jail.—C. S. Grace, accused of the theft of a suit of clothing from the room of Charles Mar. shall, a Tacoma, Wash, traveling man, was sentenced to serve a term of 20 days in the county jail by Municipal Judge Frank S. Bennett today. Arrested by Detectives Hellyer and Maloney Saturday morning in a Park street rooming house, Grace was booked as a vagrant, Marshall refusing to appear against him, although the suit of clothing was found in his room. Grace pleaded guilty to the vagrancy charge, admitting that the detectives had sufficient evidence to convict him of larceny. The theft of the clothing occurred in Tacoma, Wash.

The usual matinee performances at theatres were called off for today on account of the performers, all of whom are coming from Seattle, being unable to reach this city in time. James H. Errickson of the Orpheum received a telegram from Chehalis. Wash., at 10:30 this morning, saying that the train bearing the performers, and which was due here at noon, was held up by a burned bridge and would not arrive in Portland until 3:30 this afternoon. Managers of the three vaudeville theatres immediately announced that their houses will be closed this afternoon, but will be open as usual tonight.

Failed to Leave Town.—Carl Lesh, convicted of vagrancy in municipal court two weeks, ago, given a 60 day sentence and released after serving 15 days on a promise to leave town, was arrested. Saturday night by Patrolman Fred Graves and jailed on a charge of contempt of court. Lesb will be arraigned Tuesday. Lesh, when first arrested, was suspected of association with fallen women, and it was through a letter sent to his imamorata, now confined in the city is it, that he was capfined in the city jail, that he was cap-tured the second time. The woman will be released in a day or so, and Lesh planned to meet her.

Gadsby Damage Suit.—November 1 is the day set for trial of the suit of Beatrice L. Gadsby against her husband's parents, William and Nellie Gadsby, in which she demands $200,000 damages for alienation of the affections of her husband, Walter M. Gadsby. An earlier date had been fixed on application of the defendants, when it was set for trial before the court without a jury, but the plaintiff has since paid the jury fee and it became necessary to name a later date. Mrs. Gadsby alleges that the elder Gadsbys, because of an unreasoning dislike for her, induced her husband to leave her.

Sues for Personal Property—M. J. Janney has begun suit in the circuit court against John Rabyer and his wife for possession of $2000 worth of personal property, comprising furniture and wearing apparel, which he says he left at Rabyer's house and the latter now refuses to turn over. He says he lived with the Rabyers from April to June at $71 East Everett street, when he went to Long Beach, Wash. He demands the return of the property and $150 damages.

Broke Arm While Skating.—Vanity caused the breaking of Geary Thornton's right arm at the Oaks skating rink Sunday night. Proud of his ability to gyrate about on the rollers, Thornton, a 19-year-old Oakland, Cal., youth, was attempting to execute fancy figures, when he fell, his right arm twisting under him. In great pain, Thornton went to police headquarters, and was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in the Holman auto ambulance. He is not seriouly hurt.

Body Is Sent Home .- Coroner Norden Sody is sent mome.—Coroner Norden Sunday sent the body of Ruth Bickell, who committed suicide at the Portland sanitarium, Saturday, to the home of her parents at Olympia. Wash. The body will probably be buried today. Miss Bickell, who was only 19 years old, had been at the institution for only a few weeks, though she had been ill for three years.

The mainstay of the piece is the work of Grace DeMar as Tillie Day. She was rather funny at times and at least was lively. There are occasions when mere liveliness is diverting. Edward Hume as Jonathan Joy—a role with possibilities—was also lively, but not very diverting. Edward Lynch, a good looking young fellow with the best voice in the company, was billed as Marco, a Corsican. That seemed rather peculiar because if there was one in the entire cast that was dressed and acted like an American it was Marco. But that's an-

"JOHNNY KNOW IT ALL" winks wisely, and says: "If WIRELESS was the good investment some people claim it is, the rich men would quickly buy up all of the stock. They slwaps do."

DO THEY? Then how, in the name of McGuffeys Arithmetic, does it happen that the STEEL CORPORATION has 116,000 stockholders, of which 18,000 are steel workers? PENNSTLVANIA RAILROAD, with 60,000 stockholders, of which 28,000 are women? UNION & SOUTHERN PACIFIC, with 30,000? SANTA FE. with 25,000? NEW TORK CENTRAL 22,000? AMERICAN SUGAR, with 25,000? BELL TELEPHONE 28,213 (an average of 41 shares each)? AMALGAMATED COPPER, 18,000? CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL, 18,000? ERIE R. R. 10,000? PULLMAN COMPANY, 12,000? SMELTERS, 18,000? And STANDARD OIL, with 5560?

Would these stockholders keep their stotck, unless they were receiving their dividends? The stock of most of our large corporations was originally sold to the public, as UNITED WIRELESS is being sold today.

The millionalres have their stocks and bunds, BUT THE PUBLIC HAS the CASH; and that is what NEW enterprises must have. CHEER UP, JOHNNY, IT ISN'T TRUE! WATCH THIS SPACE.
