

DEDICATE HALL AT WILLAMETTE

Governor and Supreme Court Justices Participate in Ceremonies.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Willamette University, Or., Sept. 21.—Ceremonies in dedication of Eaton hall began this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist church, when the large audience was called to order by Governor Benson. The principal address of the day will be made by Bishop Charles W. Smith, who has just returned from the Methodist conference at Cottage Grove.

A splendid address was made by A. E. Eaton, of Union, through whose generosity it was possible for Willamette university to obtain the magnificent structure which bears his name. Formal presentation of the building on behalf of the building committee will be made by T. S. McDaniel, chairman of the board of trustees of the university. Bishop Smith, in his address, delivered the dedicatory address, will offer the dedicatory prayer upon the formal presentation of the building by Mr. McDaniel.

Justice Alliance speaks. Last night a large throng filled the auditorium of the First Methodist church to listen to a practical address delivered by Chief Justice of the Idaho supreme court, Justice A. L. Albright. He is an alumnus of Willamette university and was introduced by Justice Robert Eakin, of the Oregon supreme court, also an alumnus of Willamette. Yesterday was alumni day of the jubilee exercises.

Opportunities Offered Young Men in the Western Country and How to Take Advantage of Them was the theme of the Idaho Justice. He compared the conditions of the west with those of Europe. He said on the continent men were born in a class and never attempt to lift themselves above that class. No matter how lowly one may be born in the west the opportunity is given him to make himself the most honored and respected citizen and most useful to his state.

At the end he propounded the question of what should be taught the young people in our schools and colleges to make them more ready for the great opportunities and concluded that "A return to sanity, to the simplicity and downright integrity of the fathers, to the best part of Benjamin Franklin's code of business ethics," was the answer.

COLONIST TRAVEL HEAVY IN SOUTH

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Sept. 21.—Colonist travel to Los Angeles and other southern California points promises this year to be heavier than ever before in the history of this section. The low rates that went into effect September 15 are supposed by local traffic agents to have been the cause of the heavy influx of homeseekers of the last three days. Sunday 16,000 persons are reported to have left for points east of the Rocky mountains. The Salt Lake road carried 26,000, the Southern Pacific 25,000 and the Santa Fe 11,300. Yesterday the Santa Fe brought 12,400 prospective future citizens, the Southern Pacific 5,700 and the Salt Lake 13,000. Today and tomorrow is expected by railroad officials to break all records for September. All available equipment on transcontinental lines has been pressed into service.

FATHER CROWLEY IS STRUCK BY TAXICAB

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Rev. D. O. Crowley, pastor of the Holy Trinity cathedral, an institution that cares for homeless boys, was struck by a taxicab early last evening and sustained serious injuries. His skull was fractured and his lower jaw broken. Father Crowley is one of the most widely known priests in the city. He is 60 years of age. Dr. J. A. Haderle, who is in constant attendance upon Father Crowley, reported today he would in all probability recover. After sleeping fairly well during the night, Father Crowley awoke early, and was suffering intense pain. There will be no operation unless the surgeons ascertain that there is a pressure against his brain from the fractured frontal bone.

KNIVES USED IN LABORERS' QUARREL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Castle Rock, Wash., Sept. 21.—Knives came near causing the death of two men Monday morning at Castle Rock, on a route from Seattle to Portland. A crew of railroad laborers, bound for Seattle, boarded the train at Castle Rock. Shortly after passing Napavine a dispute arose and knives were drawn and used with such effect that two men are now in the city jail here nursing serious wounds. George Payne, one of the combatants, received a dangerous wound in the right side and another in the left thigh. His antagonist, Tom Marcellus, received a frightful gash about five inches in length on his left thigh. Payne is a Scotchman. Marcellus is a Russian.

When a man or woman finds sickness coming on, such as indigestion, weak eyes, kidney trouble, etc., it is time some attention is given to the subject of food and drink.

In practically all such cases where coffee or tea is the drink, one can obtain relief by quitting the coffee or tea and taking Postum, for he leaves off a drink that is an active producer of disease and takes in its place a powerful liquid food that contains elements for rebuilding the nerve centres which have heretofore been torn down.

OWNERS MUST DISPLAY TAGS

City Auditor Issues Order Pertaining to Vehicle Licenses.

City Auditor Barbur sent a notice to Chief of Police Cox this morning notifying the police department that owners of vehicles that do not display the 1908 license tag leave Thursday, September 23, are violating the city ordinance, and should be arrested. "These violations have been going on long enough, and I intend to see that the law is enforced from now on," said the city auditor this morning. "The city is already in possession of thousands of license fees that could not be collected because the referendum was invoked on an ordinance passed to replace the present one. This was defeated at the last election, and since then we have been waiting for the council to pass another ordinance. The mayor, however, has vetoed the measure put through at the last council meeting and left this office no alternative but to proceed with the collection of the vehicle tax at present in force."

BROKEN AXLE CAUSE OF SOUTHERN ACCIDENT

According to the official report made General Manager O'Brien of the Harriman line the derailment of the Ashland passenger train in Cow Creek canyon yesterday was caused by a broken axle on the tank of one of the locomotives hauling the train. The report states: "Local passenger train No. 20, from Ashland to Portland, had two engines detached one half mile east of Brandt, in Cow Creek canyon, between Westfork and Glendale, caused by a broken axle on the tank of one of the engines. Both engines overturned and one tank went into the ditch. The track was torn up for 11 rail lengths, or 300 feet. The engineer and firemen were slightly injured. No passengers were hurt. The track was cleared by 7 o'clock last night. The San Francisco express, No. 13, was delayed seven hours and 45 minutes by the wreck, and the Shasta limited, No. 15, seven hours and 15 minutes."

PRISONERS OPEN UP NEW ROCK QUARRY

The new Linnton rock quarry received its first consignment of prisoners yesterday, when four men sentenced in the municipal court were introduced to the new rock pile by Superintendent A. M. Frost. More men will be added as fast as the city court sends them out and no more city prisoners will be sent to Kelley Butte. It is expected that the city men at the quarry will be transferred, though no order has yet been made by the county commissioners. The prisoners on the ground are opening up the quarry and the crushing can be started in a few days. Rock will be supplied as soon as the bids for the improvement of the Linnton road, which is badly in need of repair, particularly in the town, where it was torn up by the United Railroad.

SHINGLE MILLS ABOUT TO CLOSE

Millmen Say They Cannot Pay Present Scale, Much Less an Advance.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Hoquiam, Wash., Sept. 21.—As a result of a meeting of the Shingle Manufacturers' association late yesterday afternoon it is probable that every mill in this vicinity will be closed by next Saturday. A few mills have been running by according to the demands of the shingle weavers for an advance in wages. These mills, however, have some to an understanding with the other manufacturers and will close down to await better market conditions. The millowners declare they cannot meet the old wage scale, much less a demand for increased wages. They are standing firmly to their demands and will fight for a higher scale.

THUGS BEAT AND ROB FARM HAND

Enticed to Lonely Spot on River, George Williamson Loses $140.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Ellensburg, Wash., Sept. 21.—Enticed to a lonely spot on the Yakima river, two miles below this city, on the pretense of a fishing trip, by two chance acquaintances yesterday afternoon, George Williamson, a farm laborer, was beaten into insensibility, robbed of $140, the savings of six months, and two watches and left in the bushes for dead by his assailants. Yesterday evening Emmett Mitchell, a paroled convict from the state penitentiary, and William Handon, also believed by the officers to be an ex-convict, were arrested in Cle Elum and returned to this city. When arrested the men had $135 in their possession and were positively identified by Williamson as his assailants. Williamson tells the following story: "I met Mitchell and Handon yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock, and although I did not know them very well, they invited me to go fishing with them to the river. Near the brickyard, about 50 feet from the river, the attack took place. We were walking along a narrow path, Handon in front, myself in the middle and Mitchell behind. I had taken out my watch to see what time it was. I had just noticed that it was 20 minutes to 2, when Mitchell hit me from behind. "I do not know what he used, but it knocked me down and almost put me out. The two of them grabbed me and started through my pockets. When I showed fight Mitchell took me by the shoulders and put my head across his knee, slamming my head across his leg in an attempt to break my neck. After they had taken my valuables they stuck me with wooden handles down my throat and threw me into the bushes away from the path. I lay there for 20 minutes, too stunned to move. When I was sure they were gone I got to my feet and started to town. Mitchell is well known in this city. He was sentenced to the penitentiary from Snohomish county for highway robbery. He has a wife and two children in this city. Little is known of Handon. He is a bricklayer by trade, and it is said that he learned the trade in prison.

Road Will Tap Grand Ronde Valley, Crossing Snake River into Idaho.

Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 21.—Engineers of the North Coast line are commencing the survey through the city today, and the camp is established on the side of town near the mountains, which shows the company intends running the line through, and not to Walla Walla. The road enters town from the west on Ninth street, and thence out the city up the Mill creek survey. Actual work will be begun, it is said, on grading within a few weeks, as soon as the line is definitely settled. Such is the information given out by an official here.
