Good Bill at the Opheum. Valerie Bergere easily holds the top notch of interest at the Opheum this week in a playlet entitled "Billie's First Wife," which gives her about as much opportunity to show her versatility as any one can require.

Don't discharge the office boy, Mr. Business Man, if your letters are blurred after being copied—

More than likely it's the fault of the "tools" he has—

Using sledge hammers to tack on shingles would undoubtedly make a botch of the job—

On the same basis: Poor office "tools" make office work difficult.

The Roneo Copier installed in your office will relieve you of all "copying worry"—

For it copies Letters, Bills, Statements, etc., automatically, without water and without carbon paper.

Blurred letters are impossible. On the other hand, a big saving of time, temper and money is assured every user of the RONEO.

See it in our Third-st. window today; or we'll send one to your office for demonstration if you wish.

Fifteen minutes from the business center to WESTMORELAND, in the best cars in the city, demands attention—your attention.
