

INSISTS ON FIRE DOORS IN SCHOOL

Sunnyside Push Club Dissatisfied With Board's Action.

Fire Chief David Campbell and Fire Marshal W. R. Roberts presented another complaint in writing to the school board yesterday in regard to the unsafe condition of the fire doors and chimneys of the Woodrow Wilson school. The complaint was referred to the building committee. The Sunnyside Push club is dissatisfied with the action of the board on a request from the club that fire doors be provided in the Sunnyside school building. The committee to which the request was referred came to the conclusion that the fire doors were not needed, and so reported to the board. The secretary of the club forwarded a copy of a resolution adopted at its last meeting in which the sense of the organization was that "the reply of the school board is unsatisfactory, and the citizens of Sunnyside insist upon the provision of fire doors as urged."

HOLIDAY ASPECT AT CITY HALL

Offices Close in Honor of the Visit of the Chief Executive.

Nearly all the offices in the city hall were closed all day in honor of the president's visit, or else were closed from 10 in the morning till noon, in order that employees might have an opportunity to see the parade. The city auditor's office was open from 10 till 12, and from 12 till 1. The civil service commission's office and that of the auditor general were not open at all. Employees of the health office and of the plumbing inspector's office were permitted to attend the parade, being let off for the day at 10 o'clock. The city engineer's office was not opened at all. The water office and the assessor's office were obliged to keep open, but only the clerks absolutely necessary to wait on the public were kept at work. All the others were allowed to go early.

WATER SUPPLY WAS IN DANGER

Serious Accident Narrowly Averted in South Portland.

Portland again came near being supplied with Willamette river water as the result of an accident last Thursday afternoon, when Water Superintendent Dodge and Meter Man Murphy lost control of the door to the gate chamber at Mill and Water streets and the heavy door crashed down between the by-pass and endangering the life of Foreman Albertini, who barely had time to escape with his life. The trouble came during a test of the mended Bull Run pipe line, which was broken under the river last winter. Dodge and Murphy, in hitting the door, presumably did not lift evenly and it got away from them. Foreman Albertini was below. The door missed him but broke the connecting pipe or by-pass between the two big pipe lines. With a roar the waters poured into the chamber and Albertini scrambled for the top, drenched to the waist. A force of men is still at work making repairs on the broken by-pass. A fire engine was called into service Thursday evening to assist in controlling the water.

GHOST WILL WALK IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Owing to the great confusion that results on pay day every month when nearly 700 school teachers crowd into the office of the school clerk, the board of education at a meeting yesterday afternoon authorized the clerk to send pay checks to the different buildings. The board adopted the blanket form of insurance policy as recommended by R. L. Sabin. Hereafter the buildings to be insured will be grouped and instead of taking out a great number of individual policies the number will be comparatively few and more easily handled. Many parcels of real estate changed hands in and around Lebanon lately.

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES

"I am satisfied with Oregon," said William Bradford, Rogue River, at the Imperial today. "I have been in the state a little less than a year. I bought a ranch, paying $20 an acre thereat. One day last week I was offered $75 an acre and refused it. It is not set with fruit, either, but it is good soil and will raise anything on earth. I am so well pleased that I have written for six other families to come out from the east and locate in this wonderful country."

"SWAPS" POPULAR

Amateur traders are having the time of their lives at present. A more happy and thoroughly contented contingent would be hard to locate anywhere. Parties who have used The Journal's "swap" column during the past week are reporting successful trades almost daily. People from all walks of life are indulging in "swaps." Many lasting friendships have been started by two persons having come in contact with each other through the medium of a little "swap" ad. If you wish to keep your identity dark, you can do so with ease. You can insert your "swap" ad and have the answers addressed care of The Journal. Regular trading agencies are using The Journal classified pages as a medium to get their various propositions, for trade, before the public.

Mrs. Fred Jacobs will be hostess today with a luncheon and matinee party in honor of Miss Grace Hamilton and Miss Frances Meyers, the guests of Mrs. C. F. Adams.

Miss Carolyn Benson entertained today with a plate shower for Miss Grace Gray whose marriage to Dr. Cloan Per-

FALLS THROUGH SHAFT TO DEATH

Frank Ryan, Laborer, Killed in New Building.

Frank Ryan, a laborer employed on the Portland Railway, Light & Power company's building, Seventh and Alder streets, fell from the fourth floor of the structure yesterday afternoon and sustained injuries, from which he died while being taken to the hospital in an ambulance. Ryan lost his footing while trying to get on the elevator at the fourth floor. Falling to the basement, his skull was fractured, his jaw broken and other internal injuries received. Ryan was carrying a heavy concrete form when the accident occurred. Trying to step over an open space near the elevator, he slipped and dropped the four stories. Dr. Ralph Fenton was called, and after examining the man ordered him taken to the hospital. Little is known of Ryan.

NUMBER OF SCHOOLS WILL START MONDAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Oct. 2.—A large number of the schools of Linn county, which have not yet started their year work, will open next Monday. Among the largest schools are the Shedd school, which will be in charge of Professor V. K. Kallman of Seio, who will be assisted by Miss Kathryn Kerman of Salem. The Tangent school will start Monday, with Principal M. M. Gilbert of Creswell in charge, assisted by Miss Rova Hayes of Albany. Both of these schools will carry on the work through the ninth grade.

AT THE THEATRES

"The Octopus," at the Lyric. Tonight will be the last opportunity to witness the production of "The Octopus" at the Lyric theatre by the Athen Stock company. The great question that is now before the public, frenzied finance and the intricacies of banking are placed before the audience in their entirety.

"Texas" at the Baker Tonight. The last performance in this city of "Texas" will be given at the Baker tonight. This is one of the most interesting western melodramas seen here in a long time, and with its swagging cowboys, cattle owners, cattle thieves and general odds and ends of characters to be found in the great cattle country, never fails to appeal strongly to the lover of the romantic and picturesque.

Pantages Presents Miss May. Miss Dainty May is charming Pantages patrons this week with her singing and dancing. She is one of the cleverest actresses seen in Portland for a long time and introduces several of the latest New York song successes, including "A Jungle Homecoming" and "Lady Love."

At the Grand. Before it is too late, see the champion ice skaters at the Grand. This is one of the greatest novelties that a vaudeville house has shown in Portland for a long time and introduces several of the latest New York song successes, including "A Jungle Homecoming" and "Lady Love."

"D'Nether Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeton, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Buckle's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Bolls, Burns and Piles astounded the world. 25c at Woodard, Clarke & Co.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism. IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for widowhood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-stimulant and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
