Tailored Suits Worth to $45 for $21.95

A glorious repetition of one of the most successful suit sales ever held in this department. When we offered the first lot of these they sold so rapidly that we were sold out of sizes and assortment before the day was over. Act promptly and see to it that you come in time to be supplied. Inspired by the phenomenal sale of this splendid lot before, we wired a rush order for double the quantity, and secured even better values this time than before on account of the larger lot and it being later in the season. They are constructed on the most approved lines for the season's wear; fashioned from the very finest grade of materials and in the most wanted colors and mixtures. Strictly hand tailored, made from cheviots, worsteds, homespuns, stripes, checks, wool mixtures, etc. The illustration is a good picture of one of the styles. Many of them would be good value at $45.
