SOCIETY

BY DRUSILLA DREW

(Social news is a daily feature of The Journal. Any one wishing to insert such news should send it signed by the society editor, or telephone it before 10 o'clock in the morning.)

Mrs. Fred Droker of Rose City Park entertained at five hundred Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guests, Miss Dills and Miss Miles of Tennessee, who leave for their home the last of this week. The house was elaborately decorated with autumn flowers in brilliant yellow and reds and with Caroline Testout roses. The autumn leaf arrangement was so cleverly done that the large house seemed a woodland bower. The prize was a beautiful set of china plates and was secured by Mrs. Tyson.

Invitations have been issued by the Hawthorne Tennis club for a dancing party, Friday evening, October 23, at Murlark hall. The patronesses will be Mrs. Charles Butterworth, Mrs. D. B. MacBride, Mrs. E. W. Dale and Mrs. Cary H. Harrison. The club members include Clifford C. Harrison, president; Esther Butterworth, vice president; Agnes MacBride, secretary and treasurer; W. H. Barton, Marie L. MacBride, Norman Schmitt, Evangeline Philbin, Waldo S. Miller, Mildred Oviatt, Dale B. Worthington, Dhu Hodges, L. Staude Mills, Alice Holman, Edward J. Corcoran, Beatrice E. Mills, E. R. Kirpatrick, Francis Schmitt, Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, Grace Richardson, Fred W. Rodgers, Norma Graves, Will Booth, Lois Hammond, Raymond Branton, Eva L. Graves, and Earl Hammond.

Mrs. M. J. Delahunt entertained at progressive five hundred Wednesday afternoon at her beautiful home at the corner of East Fifteenth and Tillamook streets, Irvington. This is the first of a series of charity parties to be given for the benefit of the Christian Brotherhood. There were 60 guests and each brought with her a donation, ranging from 50 cents to $5. Assisting Mrs. Delahunt were Mrs. S. H. Rotermel, Miss Elizabeth Hoben, Miss Grace Jennings, Miss Evelyn Bell, Miss Helen Maginnis, Miss Margaret Sheehy, and Mrs. Cyril Maginnis. The prizes were won by Mrs. McKinley Mitchell and Mrs. Dunbar. The next party in the series will be at the home of Mrs. C. P. Maginnis, East Eighth and Holladay avenue, Wednesday evening, October 13.

Miss Lillian Harrison of Evansville, Ind., and E. E. Hardesty of Eugene, Or., were married Wednesday by Rev. Thomas G. Pictou of the Rodney Avenue Christian church, Portland. After a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty will return to Eugene, where Mr. Hardesty is employed in the First National bank.

The beautification of homes and home surroundings is the keynote of a movement in Rose City Park, where there already exists a charming social atmosphere. A campaign is being inaugurated there for carrying out the work, and time is expected to indicate the wisdom of the conception. It is led by the Rose City Park Improvement League, which is offering prizes to the children of the district for the best kept lawns. About 35 members were present at the meeting last night.

After a visit of four weeks in the east, George W. Bates and son, George Bates Jr., arrived home. The objective point of the journey was Amherst college, where Lloyd Bates, eldest son in the family, is a student, and where the father and brother attended the opening exercises. Among the cities visited were Boston, New York, Washington, Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and Salt Lake. Everywhere business conditions were found active, and building operations extraordinary. Mr. Bates is one of Portland's leading bankers.

Mrs. Edward R. Root has returned from a three weeks' visit in Seattle and is at home at 695 Lovejoy street.

A reception was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver and her sister, Miss Margaret Rogers, at the former's new and handsome home at 383 East Twelfth street, north Irvington. The reception was a house warming and the invitation list was large. Friends from the west side were entertained from 2 to 4, and those on the east side from 4 to 6. All of the appointments were elaborate and many handsome gowns were in evidence. The dining room decorations were autumn leaves, ferns, carnations and roses, and the effect most beautiful. A Hawaiian orchestra stationed in the hall rendered delightful melodies while the guests mingled in conversation or partook of refreshments. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. August Staiger, Mrs. Catherine Daly, Mrs. Charles Boss, Mrs. James Tiff, Mrs. A. Tichnor, Mrs. George D. Peters, Mrs. Frank Moffatt, Miss Emmeline Youngs and Miss Ethel Kern.

At Mrs. Arthur Barendrick's linen shower yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ethel Kern, who is to become the bride of William Hendricks, October 27, were Mrs. George D. Peters, Mrs. Henry Frank, Mrs. Lambert Dunbar, Miss Helen Hudson, Miss Daisy Dean, Charles E. B. Johnson, Mrs. Edna West, Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Ben Morrow, Miss Hannah Connell, Miss Edna Church, Mrs. Irving Potter and Miss Ethel Kern.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eastman and daughter, Helen Celeste, who for the past two years have made their home in San Francisco, have moved into their attractive new home in Prospect Park to reside permanently, and are receiving a cordial welcome from their friends.

The Washington chapter of the O. E. S. gave a dinner and entertainment at the Masonic hall, Sixth street and Burnside, last night to provide funds for the charitable work of the chapter. A dinner was served from 5:30 to 8 after which there was a program of card games. Those in charge of the ordinary department were Mrs. D. L. Clouse, Mrs. Craddock, Mrs. E. E. S. Handley, George Johnson, Mrs. Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Quackenbush. The program committee was Mrs. J. N. Wheeler and Mrs. Lillian Shield. At the various booths were Mrs. H. Hatfield, Mrs. Mary Winn, Mrs. C. H. Heller, and Mrs. A. G. Siska. Presiding over the tables were Mrs. B. Fallows, Mrs. Lawrence Newton, Mrs. W. H. Mankin, Mrs. Leo S. Ball, Mrs. J. W. McCreager and Mrs. J. E. Hurber, who were assisted by young women of the chapter.

The Merry Hearts club gave its first dancing party of the season at Murlark hall last night. A good orchestra furnished the music. The committee in charge included Dick Belland, Jack P. Adams, H. M. Kindall, Sybil Brooks, Minnie Smith, Baby Curie and Ethel Clow.

The engagement was announced today between Mrs. Bennett of Merfeldia, Coos county, Or., son of the late George

Your Hair Falling Out?

If so, there are germs at work right at the roots of the hair. The best thing to do? Destroy these germs, every one of them. Any hair medicine made that will do this, and without the slightest harm to the hair? Yes; Ayer's Hair Vigor. You save what hair you have, and you get a new growth besides. Doubtful about this? Then let your doctor decide. Ask him what he thinks of Ayer's Hair Vigor. With his approval, you should feel perfectly safe.

HOOD RIVER WATER COMMISSION REPORTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

Hood River, Or., Oct. 8.—The water commission—personnel, Truman Butler, cashier of the Butler Banking company; E. O. Blanchard, cashier of the First National bank; W. L. Clark, county road supervisor; R. B. Tucker, capitalist; Frank Button, capitalist; Frank A. Cram, merchant, and Dr. H. L. Dumble—appointed by the Hood River Civic Improvement league to investigate the water situation, reported last night its findings and recommended that the city of Hood River grant the present water company a 15 year franchise to furnish the city with water; the water company to furnish a good and sufficient supply of pure water for domestic use and for fire purposes. The water company agrees to give bond to install a water plant that will pump water from deep wells sunk in the center of Hood River, and maintain a reservoir that will hold 1,000,000 gallons for fire protection, the plant to be in operation by July 15, 1910. It also agrees to place 25 fire hydrants within the city limits.

The report was unanimously adopted by the league. A measure is now before the council to place before the voters a proposition to supply the city with water. The proposition has been defeated five times.
