Central W. C. T. U.—After the opening exercises of Central W. C. T. U. convention by Mrs. C. H. Moody and some business transacted, the program was taken up. Subject, "Echoes from the Convention." Mrs. A. McFarland told of the beautiful church decorations during the past year. She emphasized the harmonious relations in the convention. Mrs. M. L. Christian spoke of the harmony existing at the convention. Mrs. M. L. Christian spoke of the harmony existing at the convention. Mrs. M. L. Christian spoke of the harmony existing at the convention.

East Side Push Clubs.—The United East Side Push clubs will hold an important meeting Friday night in the Woodmen hall on Russell street and Rodney avenue to consider the Broadway bridge question, the matter of holding a special election to vote on changing the present method of laying water mains and also on the question of consolidating the office of city engineer and water engineer into one office. Several of the push clubs have adopted resolutions favoring the calling of a special election and the United East Side Push clubs is expected to take some action. The speakers will be M. G. Munly, president, who will talk on the Broadway bridge question, L. E. Rice, who will speak on the water question, Ben Riehl, president of the Seventh Ward Improvement League, J. H. Nolta and others. All members of push clubs and other citizens interested in these topics are invited to attend this meeting.

On Arctic Exploration.—The Oregon Academy of Sciences will meet at the city hall building Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Arctic Expeditions." The addresses will be given by Dr. David Walker and L. J. Wolf, both of whom have accompanied expeditions in the past and are prepared to give very interesting addresses. This subject is one of very general interest at the present time not only to scientists, but to all general readers and we hope to have a large attendance. The public generally is invited not only to this, but to all our monthly meetings which occur on the third Saturday of each month. Come by the Fifth street entrance, as the Fourth street entrance is now closed during repairs.

Will Give Reception.—The Portland Women's club will give a reception in compliment to Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis Saturday evening, October 16, in the Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets. Mrs. Moore is the president of the National Federation of Women's clubs and will be in attendance at the Oregon State Federation now in session at Forest Grove. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of women's clubs of the city and their friends to attend the reception and meet this distinguished woman.

Not An Authorized Officer.—A report has been made to the police that a young man about 25 years old has been representing himself to be a collector of the Portland Police Department in the vicinity of the Highland school, and that he was collecting $2.50 a month for services as a policeman at night. Professor Miller, principal of this school, has notified the police that he came to him Wednesday evening and wanted him to subscribe to the fund for his watching. No such man has been assigned to do such work by the police. He has secured a number of such donations.

Fugitive in Eastern Oregon.—Word has come to Portland that Terry, ex-deputy United States marshal, who fled from Portland about a year ago because of a charge of wife beating, has been seen in eastern Oregon following the occupation of a book agent. Officials of the Democratic state central committee in Illinois have asked Marshal Reid to find Terry and arrest him for misappropriation of campaign funds in that state.

Gas for St. Johns.—The Portland Gas company is rapidly extending its mains in St. Johns and is greatly in advance of its franchise requirements. Mains and service pipes have been laid throughout the business district and the residence portion is being supplied at the rate of half a mile a day. The people are signing up contracts rapidly and are much pleased to be able to do away with wood and coal for fuel.

Want Tap Water Main.—Evening Star grange in a communication to the city water board filed in the city auditor's office today, asks permission to tap the nearest water in the main pipe leading from Bull Run. The grange has a membership of nearly 300 people, most of whom live in the grange hall and use the water used in the grange hall is hauled from the lower reservoir on Mount Tabor.

At Temple Beth Israel.—Services at Temple Beth Israel will begin at 8 o'clock Friday evening, October 15, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, October 16, at 10 o'clock. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer. The following anthems will be rendered by the quartet choir: "Day is Dying in the West," by Mary Sumner Salter; "Side with Me," by Neidlinger. Strangers are welcome.

Sent Back to England.—M. C. Hays, who came to Malheur county from England several months for the purpose of taking up a homestead, but who was taken down with typhoid fever and left an invalid, has been sent back to his relatives in England at the expense of the city. It required $150 to send him back and the amount was raised by Vale merchants in less than two hours.

Devotional Services.—The devotional services preparatory to quarterly communion will be held at First United Presbyterian church, Sixth and Montgomery streets, tonight and tomorrow night at 7:45. The pastor, Rev. Frank D. Pindley, will preach the sermon to-night and tomorrow night. Rev. Thomas H. Walker, of the Calvary church, will preach.

St. Andrews Fair.—The St. Andrews fair is being held this week at East Ninth and Alberta streets for the benefit of the church. Children and young people will be served every evening, and supper Friday night. There will be a musical program every evening, and a fraternal societies' voting contest will continue throughout the week.

Missing for Two Weeks.—Henry Ross who has been boarding at 602 Vancouver avenue and working for the Keneddy Electric company, has been missing for the past two weeks. He is about 30 years old and has a light complexion with light brown hair.

Prisoners on East Third.—President C. A. Hines of the East Side Push Clubs has called a special meeting to be held in the club rooms in the Hines building this evening. A full attendance is desired, as the object of the meeting is to carefully examine the proposed franchise for the Southern Pacific railway on East Third street. The corporation has an ordinance before the city council, which if passed will grant the railway a franchise on East Third street from East Pine street to Hawthorne avenue.

Highwayman in Ladd's Addition.—Only the speediness of the driving horse of W. P. Thomas, the team Twenty-sixth street, saved him from being a victim last night of two holdup men. They attempted to stop his horse in the center of Ladd's addition while on the way home. One of the men grabbed at the horse's head and the animal ran to one side, and the driver applied the whip and ran away. The two men called to him to stop, saying they would shoot if he did not. He was soon out of sight. Both men were about 25 years old, and did not wear masks.

Where Dogs Are Numerous.—Twenty dogs to a block and one out of that number with a license tag is the report from the neighborhood of Twelfth and Powell streets. Patrolman John Abbott says the neighborhood is as thick with dogs as some dogs are with fleas. There are little dogs and big dogs, dogs that bite and bark and dogs that roam the streets and violate the afternoon ordinance, but the trouble is that they have not been tagged with a license. He recommends that the pound master investigate the dog question in this vicinity.

The State W. C. T. U. convention convened in the First Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday, October 5, at 1:30 p. m. After the opening exercises Mrs. Henrietta Brown, state president, gave her annual address, a very able paper reviewing the situation. She emphasized the moral advance in civic and industrial life, the demand for cleaner government, the reduction in the saloon evil. Mrs. Brown's address was much enjoyed.

Montevilla Postal Clerk Resigns.—R. Hurdett, for 13 years postmaster at Montevilla, and acting as the postal clerk in charge of the Montevilla station, has forwarded his resignation to Postmaster Young. The clerkship pays $100 a year. It is considered a good berth, as it can be handled in connection with a mercantile business. Postmaster Young will at once recommend a Montevilla resident for appointment to the vacant clerkship.

Death of Robert Robinson.—Robert Robinson, who died Wednesday near Witch Hazel of heart failure, age about 40 years, was a resident of St. Johns until last spring when he moved to a small farm near Witch Hazel. UNITED WIRELESS TELEGRAPH CO.

GEORGE WOODHURST, City Fiscal Apt. 409 Corbett Building, BULLETIN (44) ENDORSEMENTS?

From "Mercantile & Financial World," New York, July 4, 1908.—"Of all the systems in use today, the United Wireless seems to have solved the great secret of commercial success, and this for the reason that this system is simple, reliable and economical." etc.

From "Commercial & Financial World," New York, April 17, 1908.—"This policy (the spending of all earnings above expenses, and money from stock sales in further expansion and development) is one which should meet with universal approval of the Company's stockholders, as it is founded on sound business principles. If this rule is followed out during the next two years, there is little doubt that shareholders will then begin to realize the benefits that will have grown from their faithfulness in investing in the Company's stock." etc.

From "Commercial Journal," Philadelphia, July 2, 1908.—"Certainly the wisdom of the Directors of the United Wireless Telegraph Co. in both instances cited, is a splendid commentary upon the fidelity to the best interests of the welfare of the enterprise with which the details of every department of the Company's business are being carried out." etc.
