the directors and prosecute them criminally.

As soon as the report of the experts, who have been at work on the books of the bank, is turned over to the district attorney's office, the grand jury will begin an investigation to see whether it is possible to return indictments against the five directors, W. H. Moore, E. E. Lytte, Leo Fried, W. Cooper Morris and H. E. Moore.

Those who have seen what was contained in the report as partially completed, and who have knowledge of the transactions of the Oregon Trust bank, contend that indictments would surely follow, provided the statute has not barred them from the courts. It will be the first case of the grand jury to ascertain whether or not the statute has run against them.

Unfavorable Turn Causes Gravest Fears—Senator Makes His Will.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, Oct. 15.—It is generally believed here that State Senator Patrick H. McCarren is dying.

Dr. Hughes, who is attending him following an operation for appendicitis, has issued the following bulletin:

"Senator McCarren's condition has changed. His temperature is normal, but his pulse is irregular. He is suffering great pain from gases and has made his will. This is all that I can say at this time."

PRESIDENT AWAITS LAWSHIE'S RECOVERY

(United Press Lessed Wirs.)
Gallup, N. M., Oct. 15.—The president has received the resignation of Third Assistant Postmaster General Lawshie on account of ill health. On recommendation of Postmaster General Hitchcock, who is on the presidential train, President Taft will withhold his acceptance of the resignation for the present in the hope that Lawshie may recover his health. Lawshie who is at Fort Bafrd, N. M., is said to be suffering from tuberculosis!

Conference at Forest Grove Take Up Milk Question and Voice Strong Feeling in Matter.

Directors of the old Oregon Trust & Savings bank cannot now be proscouted criminally for criminal mismanagement of the institution, and any action of District Attorney Cameron and the grand jury to indict or prosecute them will come to naught, so lawyers say.

Because of long delay and procrastination on the part of the receiver of the institution and its attorneys, and of the district attorneys office, the statute of limitations has run against practically all of the offenses which had been alleged against the directors, and no criminal action can now be brought under the law.

Time Limit Has Expired.

Oregon's state board of health meets in session extraordinary this afternoon and the meeting will be of very great importance in the campaign for clean milk. The activity of the state board in directing the crusade has so far been confined to the formulation of plans and regulations. Following this report women arose in all parts of the auditorium demanding that the "unfaithful officer" be ousted from office, and a man be put into the position who could consider the place not a salary producing snap, but an opportunity to serve the people.

Resolutions condemning every influence opposed to the good milk campaign were the feature of the session, and were unanimously adopted.

One of the most active, devoted and efficient of the unofficial campaigners for clean milk said this morning:

"We must demand of our officials that they actually do things now. Favorable announcements must lead to a belligerent attitude against impure milk evils; the belligerent attitude and lead to imvolve aggressive action and lead to im-

Henry Tischner, chauffeur.
When the accident occurred the machine was speeding at 36 miles an hour.
The party had approached a sharp curve on Hopkins street which Tischner was attempting to negotiate, when the heavy automobile skidded and crashed into the iron pipe on the side of the street and turned over. The passengers were thrown out on all sides. Mrs. Edwards was hurled in front of the machine. She struck on her head and died, almost instantly.

Anargyros fell from his seat just before the automobile capsized. He was still alive when picked up, but died on the way to the hospital. There was not help hear, so those who were able to do so walked to the nearest telephone station and sent in a call for aid. Automobiles were dispatched from Oakland and the injured were rushed to a hospital.

Utica Editor Publishes Let-Squads From Italian and ter in Which He Named John A. Johnson.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Prentiss Balley, editor of the Utica Observer and a warm personal friend of the late Grover Cleveland, twice president of the United States, today publishes what he believes is the last letter of any length written by Cleveland.

The communication is interesting in view of the letter Broughton Branden-burg, the magazine writer, sold to the New York Times, in which Cleveland was quoted as declaring for Taft for president. In the letter to Editor Bailey, Cleve-land declared he was still a Democrat and entertained much hope for his party, in the event of the nomination in the last presidential campaign of the late Governor John A. San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Marines from the Italian cruiser Calabria and the Japanese cruiser Lizumo were rushed ashore last night fully prepared the Japanese cruiser Agains were rushed ashore last night fully prepared to assist in extinguishing a spectacular fire which started in the Crown ore mill near the waterfront and from the vessels appeared to be threatening the city with a second conflagration. Their assistance, however, was not needed, so the sailors stood by and watched 150 firemen right the stubborn flames which did damage aggregating $100,000 before they were subdued. Seven firemen were slightly injured during the progress of the fire.

The fire spread from the mill to the M. Friedman warehouse at $47 Brannon street, where the chief damage was done. The warehouse was stored with furniture, and a chair valued at $5 was the only thing saved from destruction. The landing party from the Calabria was made up of 40 men. They reported at the southern police station, where the officer in charge stated that the sailors had come to assist in righting the fire which from the cruiser appeared to be threatening San Francisco. They were thanked and were preparing to retire when a landing party, ordered ashore by the captain of the Idaumo, came trotting up to the station prepared to turn to and fight fire. The Japanese party was made up of 50 marines, including a lantern bearer and a color bearer. They brought along a hand pumping hose track.

Murder of Ferrer the Last Straw-People's Not to Be Averted-Anti-Clericals and Anarchists in Common Cause.

London, Oct. 15 .- Five bomb explosions are reported to have taken place in different parts of Barcelone today. According to reports, many people have been seriously injured

By Charles P. Stewart, European Mana-ger of the United Press. London, Oct. 15 .- The throne of King Alfonso is tottering. Every city in the kingdom is in the throes of a revolution of its own, and although the climax may not come for weeks or months, the end of Alfonso's reign at a time not far distant seems inevitable.

It may be postponed for years, but there is every belief that, following the white heat of public disapproval engendered by the action of the government in the "murder" of Professor Ferrer at Barcelona, a general outbreak is very near.

Recent developments indicate that there is the gravest danger that the revolt may extend to every Latin country voil may extend to every Latin country of Europe.

I have just returned from a personal investigation of the conditions on the Spanish peninsula. The situation is 100 per cent graver than I found it at Barcelona during the July uprising.

Disease Is Now Past Curing.

At that time the disorders were largely socialistles and anti-military. Since then the anti-clerical factor has become vastly greater and the anarchistic propaganda has spread throughout every district of the peninsula.

So universal is the disaffection and the spirit of revolution that, in my opinion, no scheme can be evolved to solve the problem peacefully.

Capitalist war Back of It All. Capitalist War Back of It All.

Conditions in Spain have been is for a long time. But it was ous for a long time. But it was the outbreak of the war in Morocco that precipitated the crisis. This war was entered into for the benefit of private corporations, backed mainly by foreign corporations, backed mainly by foreign capital.

The inhabitants of the Catalonian provinces, being the most progressive and enlightened in Spain, were first to rebel. With Barcelona as its center, the flercest of the fighting between the oppressed and revolting liberals and King Alfonso's soldiery taged for about a fortnight, late in July and early in August Ever since there has been intermittent trouble and constant minor outbreaks.

Thousands of Executions.

Theusands of Executions.

How many persons have been shot down in the street battles or disposed of later by firing squads in Montjuich fortress, where Ferrer faced his executioners, no one knows. Not even the authorities could tell the extent of the slaughter. For orders were generally given in person or by telephone. A great many mistakes were made, and with no records by which to trace them, there was naturally much confusion.

The total number of victims unquestionably runs into the thousands, perhaps 2000 or 4000—though, of course, the government denies it.

Impossible to Get News Out.

Of what has occurred since the actual rioting was suppressed in Barcelona, with bomb outrages and assamsinations still going on briskly, it is impossible to tell in detail, because no one can get the news out of Spain day by day as it happens and a great deal of it is lost altogether.

The mere offering of a felegram setting forth the truth of the situation would insure the author's arrest and imprisonment if he were a Spaniari or his expulsion from the country if he were a foreigner. The mails are carefully overhauled and letters ad-
