Good Officer Leaves Force—J. R. Addison, patrolman on the second night relief, tendered his resignation this morning to Chief of Police Cox. Addison stated that it was upon the request of his wife that he quit work in the department, as she did not like to be alone at night, and feared much for his safety while on duty. Mr. Addison accompanied his wife to the chief and gave the same reason. He has been on the force two years. Chief of Police Cox states that Addison has the reputation of making the most complete reports of any man on the force. "He was a good officer, and when he made an investigation of anything, we knew all the details and facts would be reported by him."

Turns Over to Water Board—The fire committee of the city executive board yesterday after considering Fire Chief Campbell's request that the city hydrants be installed decided that the expense of putting in the hydrants ought to fall upon the water board. There is now an appropriation set apart by the council from the water funds with which to buy hydrants but during Mayor Lane's administration the board of fire hydrants should be procured by expenditure from the fire department appropriation. Chief Campbell's request was referred to Mayor Simon.

At Temple Beth Israel—Services at Temple Beth Israel will begin at 8 o'clock this evening and at 10:30 Saturday morning. Dr. Wise will deliver the sermon. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer. The following anthems will be rendered by the choir: "Day is Dying in the West" by Mary Sumner Salter; "Abide With Me" by Neidlinger. Strangers are welcome.

Death of Christopher Harris—Christopher Harris, nightwatchman the past 20 years for the American Car company, died last evening at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Le Roy, 609 Pettygrove street. He was 67 years old and had been ill for three months with a complication of troubles. The deceased was not married and his relatives live at Elvira, Ohio.

Loafers Must Move On—Complaint has been made to the police department that a crowd of boys and men congregate in front of a pool room at 750 Thurman street and make insulting remarks about the police. Chief of Police Cox ordered that the gang be cleaned out and all arrested caught insulting pedestrians.
