

OVER 20,000 IN PORTOLA PARADE

Greatest Ever Seen in West—Many Nations Represented—2000 Chinese Participate—King Alfonso Sends Greetings.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Oct. 21.—With almost every nation of the world represented in costumes varying from the modern frock coat and silk hat to the Indian blanket; from the flowing plumes of Spanish grandees to the gorgeous gowns of the Chinese mandarins; from the kites of Bonnie Scotland to the silken robes of Nippon—embracing in 300 floats, horsemen and men on foot practically every branch of industrial, fraternal and commercial life, the great Portola parade passed up Market street today between solid walls of spectators who had come from all parts of the coast to participate in the three remaining days of the celebration of San Francisco's reconstruction. It was the greatest and most brilliant street parade ever seen in the west.

King and Queen Represented.

Don Gaspar de Portola and Queen Virginia occupied magnificent floats and each was guarded by the gorgeous Portola dragons, in their brilliant colors and glittering armor.

The parade did not include the official floats, which have been withheld for the illuminated parade which will mark the close of Saturday night, of the five days' fiesta.

The parade today, however, could hardly have been more brilliant. It was composed of 14 divisions, each elaborate and arranged after weeks of careful preparation.

There were 18 brass bands in the line of march, which extended from the Ferry building, through the length of Market street to Valencia street and almost to the Mission Dolores, where an emblematic ceremony was held.

Over 20,000 in Parade.

More than 20,000 persons participated in the parade and it was witnessed and cheered by hundreds of thousands.

The official representatives of all the nations were given prominence and a section was set aside for the army and navy officers. The fraternal orders were represented with floats and many with drill corps.

Secret Orders Represented.

The Elks' white squadron from Los Angeles was given loud applause all along the line.

The Red Men and the Eagles were represented with big delegations in full regalia.

The Knights of Pythias, the Woodmen of the World, the Knights of the Maccoches, the Royal Arcanum, the Modern Woodmen and many others were in line.

The Sons and Daughters of the Golden West appeared in elaborate floats and gay colored costumes.

Spanish War Veterans.

One feature which won great applause was a detachment of Spanish war veterans under command of Brigadier General James F. Smith, who recently returned to this country after having served as governor general of the Philippines. The veterans carried the largest American flag ever made. It was displayed in the Hudson-Fulton celebration at New York, and was brought to San Francisco to be carried in the parade today.

2000 Chinese in Parade.

The foreign divisions were probably the most interesting of all to most of the visitors. The Chinese colony was represented by a delegation of about 2000 celestials in gay native costumes. Three hundred Chinese, in two shifts, carried the largest Chinese dragon that was ever imported to this country. It spouted flame and smoke all along the line of march and presented a sight such as accidental eyes have seldom looked upon.

Spanish Societies Prominent.

The Spanish societies were prominent, as the fiesta is in fact a Spanish celebration in honor of Portola, the Spanish soldier. Spain was represented specially by Marquis de Villalobar, the minister of Spain to the United States, who brought the greetings and congratulations of King Alfonso.

The Japanese colony was represented with a brilliant and elaborate display. The Scottish, the Greek, the Swedish and the Italian societies were all represented by floats and men in gay costumes, accompanied by musicians of their native type.

Aside from all the special features, the parade included all the features usually seen in street parades, and altogether composed the greatest display of the kind ever seen in the west.

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES

"There is room in the west somewhere for a national weekly publication on the order of Collier's or the Saturday Evening Post," said Professor Bay at Boston, Mass., at the Oregon, "and if my plans do not miscarry I think there will be one established at Portland or Seattle before the end of next year. There is room for many more people here in the great west and a great deal of publicity is needed. I do not care to discuss my plans any further, however."

A. S. DeVore, Steamboat Springs, Colo.

"With the coming of the Moffat road into Routt county, business in all lines has taken on a much brighter outlook, and a new era of prosperity seems to be on the way. Our section of Colorado is looked upon by outsiders as a cold, barren country, but such is not the case. While the summer season is short, we manage to raise most of our vegetables and we have the finest cattle, range in the state. Routt county should be a mecca for homeseekers when it is opened up with railroad facilities.

Frederick Brown, Omaha, Neb.

"It is a peculiar condition, but it seems as if nothing ever happens at Omaha. My business, that of buying and selling livestock, takes me all over the country, and I read the papers vainly in an effort to learn of news from home, but I never see it. The Omaha date line is a scarce article. News from Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake, Portland and other places seems to be plentiful, but there is never anything done in Omaha."

San Francisco apparently intends to try to get our Panama jubilee fair away from here," said A. R. Kenworthy, San Diego, Cal., at the Portland. "San Diego announced her intentions of holding a world's fair upon the completion of the canal, over three months ago. Now San Francisco comes out with a similar announcement. San Francisco is dominating and her people think their city is all there is to California. However, San Diego will go right ahead and hold the fair regardless of San Francisco's wishes."

Carriage makers at Racine are up against a mighty hard slump, and their outputs are growing smaller yearly," said Charles Bigford, Racine, Wis., "and unless they go into the automobile business they will be out of the wall. The automobile is certainly playing havoc with the carriage business everywhere."

PULLMAN CAR CO. MAKES ITS REPORT

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 21.—The Pullman Car company, in its report submitted to the Oregon railroad commission this week, sets forth that its total gross earnings for the year ending June 30, 1909, were $1,448,572.70, of which Oregon's proportion on a mileage basis is approximately $238,649.02. Oregon's proportion, also on a mileage basis of business of the Pullman company originating in this state, was $74,335.94. The value of property owned by the Pullman company in Oregon is placed at about $10,000, which is $2000 less than the figures submitted to the commission last year. Oregon's mileage proportion of the total expenses of the car company were $5572.36.

Irrigationists at Ontario.

Ontario, Or., Oct. 21.—Arrangements are being made for the annual meeting of the Oregon State Irrigation association in this city. The date will probably be Friday and Saturday, December 3 and 4. At the same time the formal opening of the Interstate wagon bridge across the Snake river, one mile east of town will be celebrated. It is planned to have a display of vegetables and products of the fields, also a livestock exhibit.

Improvement Club Meeting.

The second meeting of the Westmoreland Improvement club will be held Friday evening, October 22, in the hall connected with the offices of the Columbia Trust company, Board of Trade building, corner of Fourth and Oak streets. Westmoreland property owners are requested to be present at 8 p. m. Meetings will be discussed and reports made.

RYAN'S LAWYERS CONTINUE FIGHT

Allegations Are Made in Effort to Quash Indictment Against Dixon's Slayer.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 21.—The fight to save Mike Ryan, the slayer of Edward Dixon, was continued yesterday morning by the filing of a motion to quash the last indictment. The arguments of attorneys were heard on this motion. The attorneys for Mike Ryan now allege that he was not indicted by a legally constituted grand jury, that he is being deprived of his liberty without due process of law.

It is alleged that the jury list was made at the January term of the county court by the county judge and county commissioners acting together, whereas it should have been done by the county judge alone. It is further alleged that the given or Christian name of the jurymen should have been given in full, whereas approximately half of them only had initials.

It is further alleged that the list was not certified to by the clerk, that it was not placed on file in his office and that no minute was made of the drawing for the September term. Finally it is alleged that the name of Robert H. Wilcox was drawn as a grand juror, whereas the only Wilcox appearing on the original jury list is R. H. Wilcox; that the name of M. R. Yates, who was drawn as a grand juror, appears on the original jury list with his postoffice as Pendleton-Starkey, and it is noted that Starkey is in Union county. District Attorney Phelps has filed counter affidavits denying most of the allegations.

WALLOWA COUNTY SHIPS MUCH STOCK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 21.—Extensive stock shipments were made from this county last week. Twenty-six cars of sheep were shipped from this county Sunday and today eight cars of hogs and 30 cars of cattle were shipped. Within a week there will probably be a total of 50 cars from the north end of the county alone shipped to Portland and other markets. There will probably be from 1000 to 1200 hogs marketed this year.

Dayton Miss Weds.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Dayton, Wash., Oct. 21.—Miss Haldea Dorothy Miller, daughter of Superior, Judge and Mrs. Chester F. Miller, and Loyd C. Black were married this evening at the home of the bride's parents in Brooklyn, the Rev. F. M. Baum of Grace church officiating. An informal reception followed the service. More than 50 guests, including a number from out of town, were present.

"D'Kather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeton, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Bolls, Burns and Piles astound the world. 25c at Woodard, Clarke & Co.

REMOVAL SALE

REMOVAL SALE

Furniture Reduced 15 to 25 Per Cent

Last year was our first year in business. We outgrew our quarters in one year; this, too, despite the fact that we had already added about one third more space than originally provided for. Our VERY LOW, NO-RENT PRICES WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS MARVELOUS GROWTH. Since the first of the year we have been crowded to the ceiling, and had six overflowing warehouses. Early in the year we arranged to erect a large new building, one covering a quarter block, with four floors and a double basement—the whole to be occupied by our Furniture Store. This building will soon be ready for occupancy. WE ARE GETTING READY TO MOVE. We have a stock exceeding $50,000. Also we have some TEN CARLOADS OF FURNITURE which will be turned loose by eastern factories about November 1. Our business has been increasing each month by leaps and bounds, but it is ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY TO DOUBLE OUR SALES in the next 30 days or we will be swamped to begin with, in our new store. Therefore we are making sweeping reductions throughout the store. You cannot afford to miss this REMOVAL SALE.

15 TO 25 PER CENT REDUCTION

On Rockers, Dining Tables, Buffets, China Closets, Parlor Sets, Davenport, Turkish Rockers, Dressers, Chiffoniers, Dressing Tables, Library Tables, Hall Trees, Couches, Go-Carts, Carpets, Rugs, Stoves and Ranges, Pictures, Parlor Tables, Book Cases and Other Articles

In connection with this sale it is well to remember that it was our very LOW REGULAR, NO-RENT PRICES that made us in twenty months ONE OF THE LARGEST FURNITURE HOUSES IN THE CITY. It is these same low prices that prevent us from giving a 40 and 50 per cent Removal Sale Reduction. Only houses who mark their goods very high can do that. It puts us at a disadvantage in making a BIG SPECIAL CUT, but at the same time we are proud of the fact that such is a fact; it is conclusive proof that we price our Furniture very low; for if we ever wished to make an impression, one calculated to move Furniture rapidly, it is now.
