500 Co-Ed Suits, $25 Values, to go at $12.98

Another great merchandise triumph—and, as usual, it's Portland's Great Bargain Store that makes the wonderful accomplishment. "Busy Burke"—our manager, Mr. Burke—just consummated a great purchase of the stylish, popular Co-Ed Suits; there's 500 in the lot, a big shipment sent to a local concern who were unable to pay for them. They were offered to Mr. Burke at the phenomenal reduction of JUST HALF REGULAR PRICE and the deal was closed just in time to add this "Extra" to our big bargain list for Friday. They're just like the illustration above, made of fine all wool Serges, in reds, browns and navy blues, values that sell all over the city—in fact all over the country—at $25 and more. The irresistible price at which they were secured enables us to offer 'em at this startling low figure, to go while they last at one price.
