Petition Asks for Sale or Partition of Real Property.

Partition or sale and division of the estate of the late Congressman Thomas H. Tongue, the appointment of a receiver to administer the business of the estate, and an accounting from the receiver, E. B. Tongue, of all moneys collected and appropriated by him during the course of the administering of the estate, are asked of the United States court in a suit filed by the Pacific Grain company this morning.

It is alleged in the complaint that at the time of Mr. Tongue's death he was possessed of large land holdings in Washington county. E. B. Tongue was appointed administrator of the estate, which was finally settled, each one of the six children and the widow being given a one seventh interest in the estate. It is also alleged that the portion of the widow has never been given her definitely.

During the present month, the complainant states, Mrs. Gay Lombard, one of the daughters of Mr. Tongue, and her husband sold their interest in the estate to the complainant company. Since no division has ever been made of the estate, the suit is brought to force the division and apportionment of the portion purchased by the company.

CONFESSES DEED

Mrs. Lena Helney and her adopted baby, Evelyn, whom she murdered. That Mrs. Lena Helney, who killed her 17-month-old adopted daughter and took her own life under the wheels of an O. W. P. train yesterday morning near Linneman station, had contemplated and decided upon the deed several days ago, is evident by a note found in the home by the husband.

WOMAN SHOT TO MAKE IMPRESSION

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. William Morley, 448 Gilliam street, for discharging firearms within the city. She is accused of shooting at her husband Saturday night when he came home. The bullet lodged in the door sill of the Green Tree saloon, which is across the street. She has admitted shooting at Morley, but stated that she wanted him to come home and be happy.

Constantine Wilkowski Explains Why He Left Home and Wife.

"My wife asked me to go to town and buy her a dress pattern. She described it, and I did the best I could, but when I came back with it she said she would not live with such a looking thing as I was to bring her a pattern like that. She threw it across the house and jumped at me and scratched my face."

Thus did Constantine Wilkowski tell of his woes in trying to live on the same farm with Eva Lena Wilkowski back in Oklahoma, where he married her in 1902. He finally gave it up and left her in possession of the children and the farm, which he says is worth over $5000.

Six other applicants were more successful and marched way from court with the smiles of freedom. Four of the happy ones were wives and two were husbands.

BAY CITY MERCHANTS CAPTURE RUNAWAYS

Seven Greeks and Italians tried to flee the firm of Frost & Vancouver of Bay City out of $200 worth of merchandise the first of last week. As a result of the attempt three of the seven are now in jail at Astoria and the other four are in the city jail awaiting shipment back to the scene of their alleged crime at Bay City.

PORTLAND MURDERERS COLLAPSE WHILE FINAL PREPARATIONS ARE IN PROGRESS FOR HANGING OF OREGON CITY MAN—FIRE OCCURS

(Halem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Oct. 22.—Spectacular scenes marked the closing hours of Math Jancigaj's life, murderer of Mary Smreker of Oregon City, who expired his crime upon the gallows at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The fire broke out in the second tier, in cell 23, a few minutes before the execution. Because of the fireproof construction of the cell the fire was allowed to burn itself out. Two convicts occupy cell 23. They were ordered to lie in a far corner while the fire was in progress. All of the bedclothes were consumed. The fire was started by one of the convicts, who dropped a lighted match and a piece of paper into a bucket. The paper was saturated with kerosene. The prison warden believes the fire was accidental.

Jancigaj was a Slavonian, scarcely 28 years old, and was convicted of killing Mary Smreker, also a Slav, at Oregon City. Miss Smreker was the sweetheart of the murderer. He killed her because she would not marry him. The conviction was secured November 20, 1908.

MEETS DEATH CALMLY

Heart action ceased within 13 minutes after the trap was sprung, according to Prison Physician J. N. Smith. The last sacrament was read in German to the condemned man by Pastor Hildebrand. The department has detailed Byron Hunt, assistant agriculturist of the United States department of agriculture, to accompany the demonstration train which leaves Portland next Monday evening for a four days' trip on the Harriman lines.
