

HOYT APPOINTS HIS COMMITTEE

Twenty-one Prominent Men Will Raise Rose Carnival Funds.

Twenty-one prominent business men were this morning appointed as members of the ways and means committee by President Ralph W. Hoyt of the Rose Festival association, and will for the next few weeks be actively engaged in the work of generating the next year's appropriation for the Rose Festival. The work has been going on quietly under the supervision of the officials of the association, but will now go ahead with a rush.

"Only one trouble now presents itself," said Mr. Hoyt this morning, "and that is that many people seem to think that we are starting on our work too soon. We are not, I assure you, but on the contrary, are starting too late. It takes time to get up a show as big as the festival and practically nothing can be done till your money is raised. We can neither figure how big the show is to be nor make any arrangements whatever, until the full amount needed is pledged. This we intend to do this week and the next."

The committee appointed consists of A. L. Mills, W. M. Ladd, J. C. Almsworth, F. W. Leadbetter, H. H. Newhall, C. N. Hugdins, L. J. Wentworth, W. D. Wheelwright, A. D. Charlton, Herman Wittenberg, A. E. Devers, Sig. Eichel, S. G. Reed, Charles F. Beebe, A. B. Steinbach, Ben Selling, H. C. Wortman, C. A. Bigelow, G. M. Brown, T. B. Wilcox, William McMurray, R. M. Gray and Dr. J. R. Wetherbee. Bankers, real estate men, merchants, doctors, railroad men and manufacturers, all of them prominent in the city, are numbered among the 21 and much is expected of them.

Three big hotels each gave $500 as their share to the fund yesterday, and one of these is expected to do still better. The Portland, Oregon and Imperial each contributed this amount with a possibility of the Portland doing more later on. The other hotels will be canvassed soon. Other big corporations will be visited today and tomorrow.

COURT POSES AS PEACEMAKER

Gives Straight Talk to Warring Swain While Lady Weeps Bitterly.

Circuit Judge Gantenbein took the role of peacemaker this morning at the conclusion of testimony in the divorce case of Mary Folkenberg against Joseph B. Folkenberg. Taking the husband and wife with their attorneys into his chambers, he gave them a heart to heart talk and evidently made some impression, for the attorneys decided to submit the case without argument and promised to report at an early date on the progress of negotiations for reconciliation.

Judge Gantenbein took the view that the Folkenberg family differences have been magnified and that husband and wife might mutually forgive and forget. When Mrs. Folkenberg came out of the peace conference she was weeping, but at that time neither side was ready to announce willingness to abandon the case.

The Folkenbergs live at Linnton and have been prominent as members of the Adventist church. Mrs. Folkenberg alleged that her husband was cruel, found fault, humiliated her, and flew into such rage at times that she feared to live with him. Folkenberg on his part objected that his wife disturbed for clean milk believe that an essential step in the campaign for clean milk is an enforcement of the state license law which, by its certificate of inspection and guarantee of quality, will inform dairymen as to what are the requirements which they must live up to, while making every consumer certain that the dairy furnishing milk is operating according to law. Therefore the enforcement of the state system of certification will be insisted upon.

Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, arrived in Portland yesterday evening for an extended absence in southern Oregon. It will become his immediate duty, Dr. Robert C. Yenney, state health officer, announced this morning, to distribute among dairymen the regulations for dairy operation which are being enforced by the municipal health department. The veterinarian will at the same time offer his services in dairy inspection and cow testing as a preliminary to certification of milk for quality and cleanliness by the state board of health.

MILKMEN BEGIN TO GET LICENSES FROM STATE FOR THEIR BUSINESS

L. A. Brandea, proprietor of a milk and cream depot at 117 First street, was the first to apply for a license to conduct his business. This is the result of the crusade to enforce the ordinance governing the handling of milk in Portland.

Several other dealers have taken out their licenses, and complaints have been issued against 52 wagon drivers for not having a license. The cases are not prosecuted if the men secure the required permit.

RUSSIAN THUGS USE BOMBS FOR GUNS

(United Press Lined Wire.)
Odessa, Oct. 27.—Bomb throwing has had a wonderful revival in Russia recently. There were 26 successful or attempted outrages within the czar's European empire and several more in Siberia during September, and the October figures promise to be even larger.

The situation is especially serious from the fact that the czar's efforts to inform everyone concerning the use of explosives have armed the criminal classes with ample ability to manufacture their own bombs.

Outlaws almost invariably go provided with a number of bombs, more serviceable than revolvers in stopping or scattering police pursuit.

The authorities are exerting themselves to the utmost to suppress the unauthorized possession of explosives, but with a large number of experts secretly producing their own, these efforts are producing small results.

WOULD WITHDRAW PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Moscow, Idaho, Oct. 27.—In the district court yesterday afternoon the attorneys for the defendants in the Keeter, Kettenbach and Dwyer land fraud cases asked the court to permit the defendants to withdraw their pleas of not guilty in order to present a demurrer to all of the indictments pending against the defendants. Defendants' attorneys stated that in their opinion all of the indictments were fatal, a demurrer and in support of the motion cited the decision in the Williamson case. Assistant Attorney General Gordon ordered the motion stating that defendants could not withdraw pleas of not guilty to enter a demurrer. The court requested attorneys to present a formal application for withdrawal of pleas of not guilty, stating that it would be vain to go ahead with the trial if the indictments are fatal. Defendants' attorneys believe the court will permit the withdrawal of pleas of not guilty and will consider arguments on a demurrer to indictments.

CLARK WIRELESS

Detroit System Is Being Placed on Several Mitchell Vessels.
The Clark wireless system has been installed and tested on the steamer Letitia Cuddy, of the Mitchell fleet, the first of 47 boats to be equipped with the Clark system, and Manager Thomas E. Clark says it will at once be placed on two more ships of the same fleet. The Shaw-Eddy fleet also will be equipped as fast as possible. (Special from Detroit.)

UMATILLA LINE IS NOW ASSURED

Electric Road to Traverse County Will Be in Operation by 1912.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 27.—That Umatilla county will have an electric road connecting the farm lands with Columbia river is now assured, according to an announcement made this evening. A company known as the Umatilla Railway & Electric Power company, has been incorporated for some time with Douglas Belts as president, George Arthur Brown, vice president, and A. R. Turner, secretary-treasurer. Dr. C. J. Smith is one of the incorporators. This company has a power site on the north fork of the John Day river and has made a preliminary survey, and most of the right of way contracts have been signed. The road will extend from the southern end of the county north to the Columbia, traversing much undeveloped country. Eventually the company intends to extend the line through Grant county into southern Oregon. A party of 13 men will be in the field within 30 days and the road will be in operation within two years. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be subscribed by local capitalists, the remainder being made up by outside interests represented by Mr. Brown. The whole cost of the road is felt to be $1,500,000. Considerable elation is felt here as the road will open up the timber lands and will enable the farmers to ship their grain and stock at cheaper rates.

Change in Department Command.

(United Press Lined Wire.)
San Francisco, Oct. 27.—Despite the fact that he is stationed at Honolulu, Colonel Walter S. Schuyler today became commander-in-chief of the department of California, owing to the departure of Colonel Edward B. Pratt last night for Vancouver, Wash., where he will appear before a retiring board of the United States army.

Colonel Schuyler is the ranking officer and, according to army routine, takes command. He will remain in Honolulu, however, as Major General Thomas H. Barry will take command of the post November 18.

Mohawk Valley Pioneer Dies.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Oct. 27.—Harry Baxter, one of the pioneers of the Mohawk valley, died at his home at Marcola yesterday at the age of 81 years from hemorrhage of the lungs. He was among the first settlers in the valley and lived there continuously till his death. He was prominent in the affairs of his community and was popular with his acquaintances. He was unmarried. He leaves two brothers, Charles and Eliot Baxter, and two sisters, Miss Rose Baxter and Mrs. Frank Stafford.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

(Social news is a daily feature of The Journal, any wishing to insert such news should send it signed to the society editor or telephone it before 10 o'clock in the morning.)

A pretty compliment to Miss Dorothy Holbrook, who has recently returned from Europe, was the tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Laddie Weidner, at her home, 618 Lovejoy street. Autumn leaves decorated the drawing rooms of the spacious Weidner home. The tea table was presided over by Miss Beckie Eddle, Miss Ella Weisinger, Miss Ise Koehler and Miss Maida Hart. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Mary Livingstone and Miss Stella Frohman. Prior to Miss Holbrook's European tour, she attended Miss Schoen's school in New York. About 40 called during the receiving hours to greet Miss Weidner and to welcome the guest of honor.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church held a rally meeting yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the church parlors, Twelfth and Alder streets.

For Miss Frances Hayes of this city, an entertainment was given in Pendleton Saturday evening. Her hostesses were Mrs. Augusta Moule and Miss Moorehouse, and the party took place at the home of Major Lee Moorehouse.

On account of the death of General Oliver Otis Howard, who passed away at his home in Vermont yesterday, the wedding ceremonies of his granddaughter, Miss Grace Whitman Gray and Dr. Cloan Norris Perkins, will be simpler than formerly planned. The wedding will take place according to arrangements at the First Congregational church next Wednesday evening, with the attendants as planned, for the nearness of the date made it impracticable to make any change in the ceremony. However, the elaborate reception which was to have followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. H. Kamm, will not be given, and there will be merely an informal gathering of the immediate family after the church service.

The Tuesday Afternoon club was entertained at the home of Mrs. George Anthony Bateson, at 2834 Margin street, yesterday. Tennyson's "In Memoriam" was the subject for study, and a most interesting and profitable afternoon was enjoyed by the 16 members of the club. The home of Mrs. Bateson was attractive with a generous use of chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. A luncheon was served at the conclusion of the program. The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. A. A. Bailey; secretary, Mrs. Tabler, and treasurer, Mrs. Miles.

An interesting meeting of the Florence Mead Mission circle of the Universalist Church of Good Tidings will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bondurant, 339 East Thirty-fourth street. Visitors should take the Hawthorne avenue car. The topic of the day will be "Women of the Bible" and Mrs. DeWitt Martin of Vancouver will be the leader. All interested will be welcome.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Universalist church has arranged to hold a rummage sale, November 2 and 3, in the vacant store at 16 Grand avenue, White home, Tenth and Schuyler streets, Irvington, for some time. Dr. White recently underwent a surgical operation, and the ocean voyage incident to the journey is expected to expedite the final stages of his convalescence.

Mrs. A. L. McCully gave the first of her series of entertainments at her residence, 321 West Park street, yesterday afternoon. Bridge was the diversion for the afternoon, and prizes were won by Mrs. Herbert Holman and Miss Marshall. Mrs. McCully's guest list included Mrs. Dwight Edwards, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Miss Marshall, Miss Vida Marshall, Mrs. C. W. Hodson, Mrs. J. J. Pantou, Mrs. C. W. Knighton, Mrs. J. H. Hall, Mrs. R. E. Davis, Mrs. C. E. Rumelin, Mrs. W. F. Stine, Mrs. F. H. Fogarty, Mrs. Adolph Dekum, Mrs. William Grindstaff, Mrs. Dan J. Malarky and Mrs. C. Shelley Morgan.

The wedding of Miss Claire Jones to George William Gray, Wednesday, October 20, in San Francisco, came as a great surprise to their many Oregon friends. The wedding was celebrated at the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Rader officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones of Lahlab Meadows and a sister of Mrs. Anderson M. Cannon (Miss Mabel Jones) of Portland. Mr. Gray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, of 247 North Twenty-fourth street, a pioneer family, who have recently moved to this city from Salem. Mr. and Mrs. George Gray are spending their honeymoon at Del Monte, Cal., and will return to Portland within a few weeks to reside.

The Tuesday Afternoon club was entertained at the home of Mrs. George Anthony Bateson, at 2834 Margin street, yesterday. Tennyson's "In Memoriam" was the subject for study, and a most interesting and profitable afternoon was enjoyed by the 16 members of the club. The home of Mrs. Bateson was attractive with a generous use of chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. A luncheon was served at the conclusion of the program. # FARMERS' ROAD TO BE BUILT

Projected Railway From Umatilla to Milton a Certainty, Says Capitalist.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 27.—That the projected farmers' railroad from Umatilla to Milton will be constructed as far as Cold Springs dam if he has to build it himself was the statement made yesterday by A. A. Cole, local stockman and capitalist, who is one of the leaders in the movement. He says that progress on the preliminary work in connection with the construction of the road is moving slowly, and that the line is to be constructed. The proposed route of the road extends almost directly across the center of the government project from Umatilla to the big reservoir and dam. The contracts call for a right of way 100 feet wide and specify that the main line is to extend from Umatilla to Milton and that various branch line feeders are to be constructed. For the time being it is proposed to run cars by steam or gasoline power, but later electric cars will be installed.

Upwards of 300 invitations have been issued to Vancouver and Portland people to attend a reception to be given by the officers and ladies of Vancouver baronets next Wednesday evening, in honor of General and Mrs. M. P. Meau. The reception will be held at the post gymnasium building and is intended to give general and Mrs. Meau the most intimate relation with the people of the barracks and the two cities.

OBJECT TO PUPILS FURNISHING SUPPLIES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Oct. 27.—Parents of school children, to a considerable number in this city are making a strenuous objection to the custom which is being followed in the public schools of having the children make contributions for the purchase of books, pictures, gymnasium and other apparatus. The matter was brought to a head when a plan was carried out by which the pupils were asked to buy library tickets at 10 cents each, the funds to be used in subscriptions for magazines. The charge is made by parents that the requests for small donations for things that should be furnished by the school board, are made almost every week, and that the amounts contributed aggregate a considerable total before the end of the year. It is proposed to take the matter before the school board to see if it cannot be stopped.

Bryan at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 27.—Following a journey across Canada from the Pacific coast, William F. Bryan arrived in Winnipeg today to fill a lecture engagement. Mr. Bryan will speak in Fort William tomorrow, and from that place will proceed direct to his home in Lincoln to vote at the Nebraska state election.

Building material is hauled to all parts of Harney valley, trips requiring from one to twelve days, according to distance.

Vehicle Makers Meet.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—With an attendance representing millions of invested citizens to the convention of the National Association of Automobile Vehicle Manufacturers opened in Chicago today and will continue in session over Thursday and Friday.

THROAT MISERY

Read How a Boston Man Got Rid of Chronic Throat Disease.
"Hyomei did me a world of good when I had chronic laryngitis; in fact effected a cure after all the best specialists had given me up as a bad job. I tried Hyomei the same as I had tried hundreds of other things that people or doctors would recommend. They all failed except Hyomei, and this effected a cure that has been lasting. All my troubles happened 12 years ago and I had ought to be ashamed not to have written you before. At first I waited to see if the cure was permanent or not, and when you realize that for five winters before I used Hyomei that I could not speak above a whisper and sometimes not at all, you can judge why I waited with a good deal of anxiety for time to tell if I was really cured or not."—E. A. Lindsey, 145 South Street, Boston, Mass., April 1, 1909.
Breathe Hyomei in through the inhaler that comes with a $1.00 outfit, and this highly healing and antiseptic vaporized air will promptly relieve and permanently cure catarrh and all ordinary diseases of the nose and bronchial tubes. It gives great relief to consumptives. Sold by leading dealers everywhere and in Portland by Woodard, Clarke & Co.
