

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

(Social news is a daily feature of The Journal. Any one wishing to insert such news should send it to the editor of the social page before 10 o'clock in the morning.)

Miss M. Lillian Edwards and Roy Hayes, both of this city, were married Wednesday morning in the study of the Second Baptist church, East Ankeny street. Rev. H. S. Black performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The first social entertainment of the season of the A. & S. R. H. will be given this evening at the cathedral. A banquet will be a feature of the evening. The patronesses are Mrs. J. C. Olds, Mrs. John Annand, Mrs. R. E. Cannon, Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mrs. E. Butterfield, Mrs. George W. Stapleton and Mrs. W. E. Finser.

Mrs. Rose Hoyt entertained yesterday afternoon at the Hobart-Curtis with a bridge party. Bunches of violets were given at each of the three tables as trophies of the game.

The marriage of Miss Oca Margaret Price and Louis Fred Schuele took place last night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Richard W. Price, the bride's grandmother, 460 East Oak street. The decorations were autumn leaves and chrysanthemums used in profusion throughout the rooms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Nelson Allen of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian church. The bride was given away by her father, H. W. Price. Miss Eva Lillian Graves was the maid of honor, and wore a pretty blue-crepe de chine frock and carried an exquisite bouquet of pink carnations. The best man was Charles Schuele, a brother of the groom, who has recently returned from Manila. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Jaffe, and during the service "Traumerl" was also given by Mrs. Jaffe. The bride wore a princess gown of Justa Manila cloth with pearl trimmings and her flowers were bride roses. Her wedding veil was caught with a spray of orange blossoms. The service was followed by a beautiful reception from 8:30 to 9:30. The "W" club girls, of which Miss Price is a prominent member, had charge of the reception. Those receiving were Miss Mabel Strahan, Mrs. Frank Catlow, Miss Della Bradley, Miss Tot Taggart, Miss Angot Laffen and Miss Della Nealon. In the dining-room all the arrangements carried out the color scheme of red and green, with white and cream being conspicuously used. Punch was served by Miss Edith Knox. Miss Rachel Hollings and Miss Mame Newton. Mr. and Mrs. Schuele left for a stay of several weeks in Los Angeles, and on their return will be home at the home of Mrs. Richard Price, 460 East Oak.

The Harvest dance given last night by the Irvington Tennis club was one of the unique affairs of the season. About 300 members of the club appeared in costumes in keeping with the harvest season. Members not in costume stalk clothes paid the penalty of undergoing various punishments, such as being blindfolded and made to jump over tubs of water, and the like. The club-house assumed all the forms of an old-fashioned country barn dance and the costumes of the swains and maids accorded well with the settings. The orchestra was dressed as country fiddlers and the country idea of square dances was indulged in to the delight of those participating. Credit is due W. J. Hoffmann, who had charge of the arrangements, for a most unusual party. Others on the committee were Lloyd J. Wentworth, Walter M. Cook, W. F. Woodward and Frank Fields.

On Wednesday Miss R. K. Bender, national corresponding secretary of the Needlework guild, will meet the women of the Irvington branch at the home of Mrs. T. A. Sherman, 412 East Fifteenth street north. The guild will hold its annual tea and exhibition of garments November 11 in the Unitarian chapel.

Mrs. T. W. Mordby entertained at five hundred this afternoon at her home, 718 Wayne street, for Miss Groth of Sacramento and Mrs. A. A. Davis of Medford. Miss Groth was one of the hostesses at the California building, Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, and is visiting Miss Cornelius.

Miss Kathryn Cowan of this city left today for a visit with her sister in Albany.

The Fortia club will entertain tomorrow night the husbands of the members at the home of Mrs. George F. Brice.

The Y. W. C. A. will enjoy a Halloween entertainment tomorrow night with all the fortune telling, future reading accessories.

Miss Emma Brune from The Dalles is visiting with Mrs. H. F. Elliott, 354 East Thirty-seventh street. Miss Brune and Mrs. Elliott, who was Lela Johnson, were schoolmates at St. Helen's hall. Miss Brune is an attractive and charming girl and has many friends in Portland and much entertaining has been planned for her during her visit.

Saturday evening a Halloween party will be given at the Y. W. C. A. open to all members and their men friends. There will be the usual Halloween accompaniments of ghosts and witches and fortunes, of cats and owls and pumpkins. This is the first membership party of the season, the forerunner of a series which is being planned for the year.

Oregon commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, entertained over 250 visitors, last night with a banquet in the Masonic Temple. Eminent Commander D. G. Tomassin introduced Hugh J. Boyd as chairman of the evening, who explained that the object of the gathering was to bring together the Masons in the city and cement a brotherly feeling among all branches of the craft. After the address of welcome by Sir Knight Robert A. Miller, the following program was carried out: Oregon quartet; Fred Jones, monologist; Professor Van Herman, Magician; solos by Sir Knight, George W. Morgan, W. H. McCorquodale, accompanist; History of Knight Templarism by Sir Knight W. C. Bristol. At the conclusion of the program of entertainment, the members of the commandery escorted the guests to the banquet hall where a delightful repast prepared by Sir Knight Van Kirk was served. Last night's function brought together the largest number of Masons ever assembled at a similar affair in Portland.

AT THE THEATRES

"The Lie" at the Star.
"The Lie," produced by the Edison company and on view at the Star theatre, is a feature and shows how rapidly the American productions are coming to the front. The story deals with an incident of the Franco-Prussian war.

"The Spillers" Next Week.
One of the most thrilling successes on the stage today is Rex Beach's story of Alaskan goldfields, "The Spillers," which opens a five nights' engagement at the Baker theatre next Sunday matinee.

"Our Boys in Blue" at Orpheum.
The splendid military spectacle, "Our Boys in Blue," has made a ten strike with Orpheum audiences this week. These beautiful drills, both infantry and artillery are executed in an astonishing manner.

"An Innocent Sinner."
"An Innocent Sinner" which will be produced at the Lyric theatre Sunday matinee and for the whole week, has a number of the most remarkable characters that have ever been penned and in the hands of the Athlon Stock company will receive a worthy presentation.

Beautiful Girls at Orpheum.
The De Haven Sextet will be seen at the Orpheum next week, in a charming little operetta called "The Understudy." It is a unique idea worked out in a clever way and has a bevy of beautiful girls.

Banzai for Kitabanzai Japs.
Considered the best troupe of Japanese tamblers and jugglers to visit this country, the Kitabanzai company comes to the Grand next week. A feature of this act is the gorgeous embroidery used.

Miss Florine Coming.
Miss Florine, known around the globe as the most fearless trainer of leopards in the world, will appear at Pantages next week with her troupe of six trained Persian leopards, the most dangerous and viraculous sextet of animals in captivity.

"The Girl From Alaska."
Miss Elizabeth Hale, the famous emotional actress, will be presented by Messrs. Russell & Drew at the Portland theatre for one entire week, commencing Sunday evening, October 31, in "The Girl from Alaska," a play which will be produced for the first time on any stage.

An All Fun Bill.
There is at the Grand an all-run bill this week, a program which scintillates with brightness and merriment. The top of the bill shows Ernest Panizer & Co. in acrobatic novelties.

Girl Who Horsewhipped Warfield.
Miss Frankie Bailey, who achieved fame by horsewhipping David Warfield a few years ago in retaliation for a gross insult, is with Wilson Franklyn & Co. at Pantages this week. She plays an important role in "My Wife Won't Let Me."

Last of Eddie Foy Tonight.
Sam E. & Lee Shubert, Inc. will present Eddie Foy for the last time tonight, in his musical whimsical success "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway." This is one of the most elaborate musical comedies ever presented in this city.

Prune Drier Burns.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Wallawa, Or., Oct. 28.—A large fruit drier belonging to I. S. McDonald of Promise was entirely destroyed by fire Monday evening. Mr. McDonald was drying prunes and the entire lot, a ton in all, was destroyed with the building. He had no insurance.

You can't get away from such value as COBS 9 for 15 cts. Cobs are the biggest value ever given for the money—the big value at the little price. A full yard of Havana in four-inch lengths, roughly made and roughly packed, but good tobacco—smooth, fragrant, delicious—nothing as good as Cobs has ever been sold at the price. The stock in 'em is equal to that of the average three-for-a-quarter well-made brands. Cobs look differently, they taste the same.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Portland People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first; But when you know 'tis from the kidneys; That serious kidney troubles follow; That Diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end. You will gladly profit by the following experience. 'Tis the statement of a Portland citizen. J. C. Buckler, 8 E. Ninth street, Portland, Or., says: "In my estimation there is no remedy equal to Doan's Kidney Pills in curing kidney disorders. There was a constant soreness across the small of my back and stooping or lifting would cause sharp twinges in that part of my body. I tried one remedy after another in an effort to get relief, but without result. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I procured a supply and was benefited by them from the first. I continued their use and they soon completely removed the pain from my back and corrected the action of the kidney, conditions which had been somewhat irregular." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Postoffice Co., Buffalo, N. Y., New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
