

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND ANTI-SEMITE HATRED NEVER MORE PROBABLE GROWING IN RUSSIA

Liberal Leaders Can No Longer Afford to Be Silent or Evasive Regarding This Important Question, Declares John Redmond.

By Thomas Emmett. (Publishers Press Leased Wire.) Dublin, Nov. 6.—It is a hard matter just now to get from politics in Ireland. It is felt that the outlook for a settlement of the whole question of Irish home rule never was brighter. It is firmly believed that the recent Unionist victory in the House of Commons is the harbinger of a new era of peace and stability in the island. The Liberal leaders can no longer afford to be silent or evasive regarding this important question, declares John Redmond.

Not subordinate to the question of justice to Ireland to any other question whatever. I assert that the Irish of Great Britain will cast their votes on home rule alone, that they will discard all other questions. The predominant question for them is the question of home rule for Ireland. They will vote on that question alone, quite irrespective of the interests of any political party.

GERMAN INVASION IS SPOOK IN ENGLISH MIND

Nervousness About Germany, Seems to Pervade United Kingdom—New Gun Designed to Destroy Airships—Many Tobacco Workers Idle.

By Malcolm Clarke. (Publishers Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, Nov. 6.—Herz Dominicus, a government councillor of Strasbourg, has recently returned from a visit to England, and has published an account of his experiences there. His liveliest impression was the "universal nervousness" existing in England with regard to Germany.

German newspapers, followed by the announcement that, after all, the wonderful man was living, have produced again flocking in thousands to seek his advice and treatment.

Among the results of the new tobacco duty is that large numbers of workmen have lost their employment. Seven hundred employes have already been sent away from factories in Hamburg, and further dismissals are pending.

Both here and in London, eloquent tributes have been paid to the late Lord Justice Fitzgerald. The lord chief justice of England expressed his deep sympathy and that of his colleagues with the Irish bench in the loss of "a great judge, a profound lawyer, and a man of wide and varied learning."

In a special report on the relief of the unemployed in Ireland which has been published as a blue book, it is stated that the stream of emigrants who have passed from Ireland to the United States, and to much smaller extent, to the other countries, during the last 50 years, has effectively relieved the labor market of any absolute surplus; but it may be doubted whether, during the last few decades at any rate, the departure of so many of the most enterprising Irish men and women has not had a more serious effect in checking development than in relieving pressure.

Recent Police Order Prohibiting Sale of Sacred Objects to Jews Shows Increased Bitterness—Executions Continue.

By George Frazer. (Copyright 1909 by the Publishers Press.) St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—The feeling against the Jews seems on the increase in Russia rather than otherwise. It is now taking the shape of petty official regulation. For instance: A police order has just been issued prohibiting the sale of crosses, ikons and other sacred objects by the Jews or members of any religion except the orthodox.

Justice of Peace Tells of Cure by Cuticura

"My baby boy was afflicted with eczema. It ran on him until he was full of sores from his head to his feet. Even the bottom of his feet were full of cracks with the blood coming out. I believe that his case was as bad as it generally gets, for he was bleeding all over and could not rest. He was too small to tell anything about it, only to fret and cry. We could get nothing to relieve him until we got the Cuticura Ointment and the first application of the Ointment put him to sleep. Then we used Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap and he continued to improve until cured. The boy is all right now and has been for the last seven or eight years. I believe that the Cuticura Remedies will cure all cases of eczema if used right, as I know that they were the first things that gave our baby relief. D. J. Pierce, Justice of the Peace of Lee Co., Cameron, N. C., Oct. 23 and Nov. 7, 1908."

GLAVIS ASSAILS BALLINGER AGAIN

Claims Secretary Was Spy as Well as Attorney for the "Interests."

Washington, Nov. 6.—Louis R. Glavis opens again the warfare against Ballinger with an article to appear the coming week in Collier's Weekly, wherein he plainly will charge Ballinger, Assistant Secretary Pierce, Commissioner Bennett and Chief of Field Service Schwartz with collusion with Cunningham and others who had fraudulent coal claims in Alaska. Glavis will assert that Ballinger ordered the Cunningham claims to be patented when he knew they were under suspension, urged the enactment of a law he knew would have validated these fraudulent claims and that throughout his service Ballinger threw his influence for hasty patenting in the face of protests that new evidence was being uncovered.

BULLETIN

FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE PUBLIC

Verbatim Copy of Correspondence Passing Between the Building Trades Council and the Trustee Company of Portland

Portland, Oregon, November 2, 1909.

To The Trustee Company of Portland, Oregon—

Gentlemen: In response to your request made at the conference held this date between representatives of your Company and the representatives of the Building Trades Unions, that the latter submit to you in writing the request of the Building Trades Unions there represented, we herewith submit:

We desire Union conditions to prevail for all building trades mechanics employed on the Olds, Wortman & King building. Union conditions to mean union hours, union wages, union rules and union men. We also ask that representatives of the unions interested be permitted on the building at the noon hour, or at working hours, if an emergency arises. In an emergency case, however, the representative of the Union involved to consult with the Architect in charge or his representative.

We herewith enclose, on behalf of the Carpenters' Union, the constitution, by-laws, and working rules of the District Council of Carpenters of Portland and vicinity, calling special attention to pages 16 and 17. (Enclosure No. 1.)

For the Electrical Workers' Union we enclose the agreement in vogue between the Electrical Workers' Union and firms employing union electricians. (Enclosure No. 2.)

For the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union we likewise submit customary agreement between that Union and Union employers. (Enclosure No. 3.)

For the Plumbers, Gas and Steamfitters' Union we submit eight hours to constitute a day's work, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. Wages to be $5.00 per day. Overtime to be time and one-half until midnight, double time after midnight and during legal holidays. Jurisdiction: Plumbers, gas and steamfitters to do all pipe work, except conduit work and sprinkler fitting.

For the Painters' Union we submit their by-laws and their list of union firms. (Enclosure No. 4.)

We likewise ask that all subcontracts be let to contractors employing union men.

Respectfully yours,
BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL OF PORTLAND AND VICINITY.
By (Signed) J. L. LEDWIDGE, Business Agent.

Portland, Oregon, November 3, 1909.

Building Trades Council of Portland and Vicinity—

Gentlemen: Replying to your written communication of the 2d inst., in relation to working conditions upon the building known as the "Olds, Wortman & King building," we beg to say that said building is being constructed solely by us. Olds, Wortman & King have no control over the construction work. The building is called the "Olds, Wortman & King building" because that firm is to occupy the building under a 25-year lease.

If you assent to the proposals stated herein, to control until the completion of said building, we hereby offer:

First—We offer to continue our enforcement of Union hours upon said building so far as same have been specified in your communications.

Second—We offer to pay Union wages on said work so far as specified in your communications.

Third—We offer to observe Union rules as to overtime, double time and holidays, so far as specified in your communications.

Fourth—We offer to enforce Union rules on said work so far as same have been specified in your communications, except where the same may seem to us unreasonable.

Fifth—Replying to your request that Union men only be employed, we beg to say that we approve of labor organization so far as its plans and practices are reasonable and equitable, and we hereby offer to give preference to Union men in all further additions to our force, so long as we can find among those applying sufficient Union men who are competent and who render fair and satisfactory service. We believe it to be absolutely essential in business, the world over, that the employer retain the right to select and dismiss employes, and to employ non-Union men whenever Union conditions become unreasonable. In other words, we believe that "the closed shop" policy takes away from employers the selection and control of employes to an extent that is destructive of business efficiency and injurious to the interests of the public at large, and, in the end, disastrous to the welfare of the employes themselves.

Sixth—We offer to provide a time and place in the building for a meeting in each line of trade where you may desire it, between your representatives and our employes in that line of trade, the time therefore to be provided during working hours on our time, in order that you may have opportunity to invite present employes to become members of your Unions. We will neither coerce nor hinder any man in the matter of joining a Union. We do not, however, deem it reasonable or safe to allow general access to the building during the noon hour (which the men have elected to shorten to 30 minutes), nor during the working hours, either for meetings or individual conferences, except by arrangement with the Architect or Superintendent in charge. The details for any meeting, to be arranged for as above, will be arranged with you by the Architect in charge.

Seventh—Your request that we let subcontracts to concerns employing Union men only seems to us unreasonable, for the reasons mentioned elsewhere herein. We have no desire to secure efficiency in our own work nor low bids from subcontractors upon the basis of wages that are lower or hours that are longer than would be fair and reasonable. We feel that the relationships between your organization and other contractors should be handled between yourselves, and that we should not make specifications to control other contractors in that matter.

Eighth—We beg to point out two rules, more or less common among your Unions, that seem to us unreasonable:

(a) Your rules for limiting the number of apprentices seem to us, in many cases, unreasonable—for instance, the rule allowing but two carpenter apprentices on our building, where we have had at times from 70 to 80 carpenters.

(b) Your rules requiring that foremen shall be members of a Union we consider unreasonable, because it takes away from employers that freedom of selection which is necessary in order to secure foremen with the degree of skill and personal fidelity that is essential in every business organization.

Ninth—Some of your rules and regulations as to what material and labor may be handled by ordinary laborers or by helpers, and as to the work covered by different trades, seem to us unreasonable, because they greatly enhance the cost of certain lines of work in an unreasonable way.

Tenth—We favor the policy of trying to settle general differences between employers and employes, if any arise, by arbitration as to the equity and fairness of the questions involved.

Eleventh—We will be willing at all times to confer with your representatives in every reasonable way as to the equity and fairness of the labor conditions upon our work.

Very respectfully yours,
THE TRUSTEE COMPANY OF PORTLAND.
By (Signed) C. K. ALDRICH, Architect and Manager of Construction.

Great indignation has been aroused here by the awful disclosures made by Professor Inostratseff concerning the disgusting state of the river Neva as the perennial source of infection for the population of this city. Professor Inostratseff has scientifically studied the river and its water for 40 years, and he now states the conclusion at which he has arrived—viz., that the Neva, over the whole of its course of 45 miles, is nothing but a collector of indescribable filth and disease germs from innumerable mills, factories, villages, cemeteries, and 120,000 inhabitants along the banks of the main stream.
