BERKELEY MEN FEEL WINNERS INTO LAST PLACE

Betting Odds Backing Down Toward Even Money—Strong Team.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 12.—After four years of defeats at the hands of Stanford rugby teams, the University of California student body feels more confident this year of a victory than at any time in the history of the new game on this coast. Every cent that has been put up by the Cardinal supporters has been promptly covered by local collegians, until the odds of 2 to 1 that prevailed earlier in the training season have been backed down almost to even money, with little more offered. One of the Stanford fraternal societies sent $300 to the house of the corresponding fraternity here, offering 10 to 5. It was gobbled and an acceptance was sent within half an hour.

Thursday night's smoker at Harm Gymnasium gave an indication of the spirit that prevails this year at California. Graduates and others spoke before members of the team were introduced, and when the team appeared the cheering continued more than 15 minutes.

Students at California appreciate the fact that the team this year is the strongest that has been put together in blue and gold suits since the rugby game was introduced here. The pack, though heavier, is faster than ever before, while in Carl Elliott and Dwight Diggins there remain the strongest of last year's backs, reinforced this year by a wealth of new material.

Trained to the hour the team was given an absolute rest yesterday. After the smoker rally Thursday night, Coach Schaffer put his men early to bed and issued strict orders that they were to remain at home during the day.

California's routing section at Stanford will contain between 1000 and 1100 men.

Features of Rugby.

Following is a brief statement of the "A B C's" of Rugby football, prepared for the benefit of persons not familiar with the Rugby game, and is interesting in that it shows the difference between the Rugby and the so-called American game.

Passing rally—When several players run down the field, passing the ball from one to another, whenever the man with the ball is in danger of being tackled. This takes the place of "interference" in the American game.

Drubbling—This term is used when, in a rush, a player kicks the ball a little way ahead of him and recovers it himself, or allows one of his teammates to recover it. This is sometimes repeated many times, gaining much ground, and then is known as a "drubbling rush."

Scrum—The ball originally is put in play by a kickoff from the center of the field, but later it is put into play by "scrumming." The scrum is formed by the interlocking of the arms of the "forwards" of the opposing teams, the two "packs" facing each other with heads bowed and bodies bent, while the ball is thrown in between them. In the "scrum" it is the endeavor of the forwards to force the ball out to their respective teammates for play, but this must be accomplished with the feet, and no member of either "pack" may touch the ball with his hands.

Goal in Touch—The side lines are called "touch lines," and whenever the ball goes outside the side lines it is said to be "in touch."

Try—When a player places the ball on the ground behind his opponents' goal line he makes a "try," which corresponds to the American "touchdown."

Converting—After a try, what is called in the American game "kicking the try" is called in Rugby "converting the try."

Penalties—Players are penalized for picking the ball out of the scrum with the hands; for hitting the ball forward with the hands while running; for "off-side" when the player farther forward than his teammate who kicks the ball touches it before it has been touched by an opposing player or before the man who kicked it has run forward as far as the ball; for a "forward pass" in which the player with the ball passes it to a teammate farther forward than he.

Rice Picks Stanford.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Archie Rice, who has picked the winner of the Stanford-California football game successfully every year since 1898, with two exceptions announced today his belief that Stanford would defeat California tomorrow by a score of about 24 to 13. He says in part:

"California seems to have an advantage in open field, ground kicking, punting down the field, and in distance gained through free kicks. But as a class, experienced, fleet and opportune set of players, the Stanford fifteen should win on superior all around ability in the heavy game, and by their clean and well backed up passes, a feature of the play in which California has shown alarming looseness and uncertainty."

KETCHEL QUILTS RING TILL AFTER NEW YEAR

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Stanley Ketchel today emphatically denied that he had agreed to fight Jim Flynn in Los Angeles this month, or any other month. The middleweight champion, when informed of the announcement contained in the dispatches to the effect that he had agreed to meet Flynn in a 10-round go before Tom McCarey's club, stated that it was news to him.

"I have not only not agreed to fight Flynn," he said, "but I have not even clinched a match with anyone. I have made no plans whatever, beyond deciding not to fight before the first of the year, if then."

M'INTOSH BIDS FOR JEFF JOHNSON BOUT

Sydney, Australia, Nov. 12.—Promoter McIntosh has called an offer of $75,000 for the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Arrangements have been made by the promoter to post the necessary forfeit in New York by December 1, when the bids are to be opened. Johnson has said that he would not fight in Australia, but if McIntosh's bid is accepted he will pull off the fight in London.

PORTLANDERS TO SEE NO MARATHON RACING

Portland will have no Marathon race on November 21, as appeared certain. Tim McGrath could not afford to pay the prize demanded for the Oregon holiday for three hours of the Sunday afternoon and he and Haves, St. Yves and the others left yesterday for Vancouver, B. C., where they will hold a race.

Portlanders looking for "strangers" will find a letter at this office for strangers with the weather.

PORTLAND ACADEMY VICTOR OVER OLD RIVAL BY 14 TO 0 SCORE.

Betting Odds Backing Down Toward Even Money—Strong Team.

The Lincoln high school football team holds last place in the interscholastic league as the result of being beaten by the Portland academy football team yesterday, 14 to 0. The boys from the high school outplayed the academy team and made good gains in yardage each time. The features of the game were the field runs by Cobb and Wilson for touchdowns.

Cobb intercepted a forward pass in the first half with the ball on academy's five yard line and made the run of the entire field for the first score of the game. Wilson intercepted another forward pass, which would have meant a touchdown for the high school boys had it succeeded, and by making a fast run of the entire length of the field, made the second touchdown.

Cobb, who played a brilliant game, kicked two goals. A safety was scored by the academy boys in the second half near the end, when Jack Day juggled a punt and was tackled behind the post, making the score 14 to 0 in favor of the Portland academy squad.

Cobb, quarterback for the Portland academy, outplayed Jack Day by a small margin. Cobb made several punts which sailed for 40 or 45 yards.

The Lincoln boys outplayed the academy boys through the first part of the opening half and the first part of the closing half, when the academy boys loosened up and made a few gains by making smashes against the high school line.

Loss 60 Yards.

The high school boys were penalized four times, which totaled 60 yards, while the boys of the academy were penalized once for being offside. This only amounted to five yards.

The playing of the backfield of the Lincoln high school was good. End runs made by them netted gains each time they were tried. Stiles broke away in the second half with the ball and after running 30 yards was brought down by Cobb after the latter made a good run to overhaul him. Gunnel was forced to retire in the second half on account of injury, his place at quarter being taken by J. Day. Trine replaced Day at left half. Cookingham of the academy was forced to retire on account of an injury received in scrimmage.

The teams lined up as follows:
P. A. L. H. S. Curran, C. G. L. H. S. Condon, R. G. L. H. S. O'Neill, R. T. L. H. S. Gerspach, E. E. L. H. S. Toomey, Lewis, L. E. L. H. S. Cookfield, T. G. L. H. S. Searer, Staley, L. E. R. H. S. Alcott, Wilson, L. H. R. H. S. J. Day, Trine, Cookingham.

Summary—Touchdowns, Cobb and Wilson; goals kicked by Cobb, 2; safety, high school 1. Referee, Means; umpire, Lewis; line judge, Jordan; time of halves, 25 and 20 minutes.

FAMOUS ENGLISH BANTAM IN ACTION

Harry Thomas, the English bantam weight, who is considered about the classiest bit of fighting machinery that Johnny Bull has sent to these shores in a long time. He is said to possess all the qualifications of a champion boxer and brings with him a fine recommendation from Jim Driscoll, who defeated Abe Attell here at the National club. Thomas wants to fight Johnny Coulon, Monte Attell or any other bantam weight who will draw the money, and the Harvey-Johnson stable has a big roll to back him.

AGGIES ROUND TO FOR GAME TODAY

Metzger's Eleven Strengthened by Return of Wallace to Game.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 13.—Working in slushy mud and sawdust and soaked to the skin, O. A. C.'s novice squad has rounded into form for the game against the husky Washingtonians today. It has been a trying experience for coaches and players since the Whitman game, as they have not had the privilege of working on a dry field since the return from Walla Walla. If good fighting spirit is of value the Beavers have a chance of holding their heavier opponents today.

The team was cheered up when they trotted out for the final hard practice Thursday to find Hawley back and in a state. Hawley will add wonderfully to the strength of the line and can be counted on to fight all the time.

A large crowd is expected at the game and to take care of them three new bleachers have been built with seating capacity for 1,200. It will be the only stadium for the local people to see a big game on the home field.

WHITMAN TEAM PLAYS TIE WITH WHITWORTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Nov. 12.—A game that could easily have been Whitman's on points Whitworth's eleven prevented the missionaries from scoring and the game ended 0 to 0. Whitman came mighty close to it three times in the last half and it is almost up to us to critic to say that Beit's poor generalship lost the game for the mauls and blue. The chance came late in the last half three minutes to play and the missionaries had the ball on the 35 yard line with first down. An onside kick went to Whitworth and Whitman never had the ball in her possession so close again. An end run to get the ball in front of the goal, followed by a place kick, might have done things.

The game was full of spectacular forward passes, onside kicks and open plays. Borleske, as usual, got away for a couple of 40 yard runs. His team gave him magnificent support. Lewis, at end, made a wonderful showing, getting pass after pass that seemed sure to go into the hands of the visitors. Cox and Beit played well, and Oldright, on the right end, played a splendid game.

New Addition for Kennwick.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Kennwick, Wash., Nov. 12.—Omitted Addition to Kennwick, a beautifully laid out, parked and boulevarded tract of 440 acres, has been placed on the market by the Northern Pacific Irrigation company. The addition was designed and planned by Olmsted Brothers of Brookline, Mass., a year ago when it was yet virgin sage brush land. Since that time the irrigation company has worked a great transformation and the entire tract is now leveled and green with a fine growth of clover.

Lived 124 Years.

Wm. Perry Wagland's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 122 and lived 26 years longer. People should be youthful at 124. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth. There's a goodness to weak sickly run-down or old people. Try them. See at Woodruff, Clark & Co.

CLEVER BOXERS FOR BIG SMOKER

Gene Sullivan, the former amateur who has turned professional and engaged in a number of bouts down in California, and Eddie Cerf, a crack California boxer, will furnish one of the 10 round exhibitions before members of the Rose City Athletic club for the smoker to be held the first week in December.

The other 10 round exhibition will be between Freddie Couture, the former Olympic club amateur, who appeared in the tournament here a year ago last spring, but who has been in the professional game several months, and Jockey Bennett, a crack featherweight.

PENDLETON SMOTHERS UNDER BAKER ATTACK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Nov. 12.—The husky eleven of the Baker City High school defeated the local high school by a score of 30 to 9 yesterday. The home team was greatly handicapped in weight and was unable to stop the fierce line plunges of the heavy Baker backs, and Jockey Bennett, a crack featherweight.

TIME CLOCK PLACED ON HARRIMAN'S GRAVE

Middletown, N. Y., Nov. 12.—To be certain that the grave of the late Edward Harriman are visited nightly by watchmen, at specified times, Mrs. Harriman has caused to be placed at the tomb a time clock, which records the time of the watchmen's nightly visits.

The clock is inspected by a member of the Harriman family each day, to ascertain if any watchman is derelict in duty.

OREGON-IDAHO GAME ON TODAY

Big College Elevens in Annual Clash on Multnomah Field.

The University of Oregon and the University of Idaho football teams had their last practice on Multnomah field yesterday and afterward the coaches pronounced them in excellent condition for the game today.

The heavy rain will give Oregon a slight handicap over the mountaineers, who are essentially a dry field eleven. Clarke took no part in Oregon's practice yesterday, but he will be in the lineup today, according to Coach Forbes, if he shows any signs of being able to last through the first half.

New Service to Texas.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 12.—The Rock Island management has perfected arrangements for the inauguration tomorrow of a new train service between Kansas City and Fort Worth. The new train, which will be known as the Texas limited, will leave this city daily at 5:45 p. m., and reach Fort Worth the following morning.

Wisconsin and Minnesota Battling for Highest Honors in Western Football.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—The football eleven representing Wisconsin and Minnesota will fight it out on the gridiron here this afternoon for the middle western championship. Both teams have been putting up a splendid article of ball and the game is sure to be hotly contested. If Minnesota wins she will be entitled to the championship.

If Wisconsin wins she will have to win from Chicago to clinch the championship.

Hundreds of victors are already in the city to witness the contest and interest in the game is at fever heat.

The scores of the Minnesota-Wisconsin games since 1890 are as follows:

1890—Minnesota 63, Wisconsin 0.
1891—Minnesota 26, Wisconsin 12.
1892—Minnesota 32, Wisconsin 4.
1893—Minnesota 40, Wisconsin 4.
1894—Minnesota 6, Minnesota 0.
1895—Minnesota 14, Wisconsin 10.
1896—Wisconsin 6, Minnesota 0.
1897—Wisconsin 29, Minnesota 0.
1898—Wisconsin 28, Minnesota 0.

Alameda District Attorney Will Make Arrests on First Racing Day.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 12.—District Attorney W. O. Donohue of Alameda county, after a conference today, announced that in his opinion the Walker-Otis anti-betting bill prohibits oral betting, such as now is in vogue at the New York tracks, and that he will start prosecutions under the new law as soon as the Emeryville race track opens, which is expected a week from today.

Donohue met Earl H. Webb, president of the California Anti-Racing League, and Assemblyman Frank Otis, one of the authors of the anti-betting law. At the conclusion of the conference it was announced that prosecutions would be started as soon as the track opens.

There is little or no doubt that the oral betting will be attempted, as it has been declared legal under the new law. The result will be a big legal contest. The anti-racing interests, it was stated, are prepared to make a strong fight, and Donohue's announcement is an indication that it will be a war from the first day.

EUGENE HIGH CHARGES FRIGID PEDALS HERE

Eugene, Or., Nov. 12.—Efforts have been made by Manager NeSmith, of the Eugene high school football team, for some time past to secure games with the Columbia University and Washington high school football teams of Portland, but without success, the managers of the respective teams saying that it is impossible for them to come here.

Manager NeSmith wanted one of the teams here for today and offered to pay all the expenses of the trip, but his efforts were in vain. The local players think the Portland teams are afraid of them, as they defeated Portland Academy easily two weeks ago.

Unless a post-season game is arranged with one of the other teams, Manager NeSmith says he will claim the state championship, and he thinks there is no probability of securing such a game.

At the New England league meeting it was voted to begin the season of 1910 on April 22 and close September 10.
