

HETTY GREEN IS RICHEST WOMAN

Seventy-five Years Old Tomorrow and Worth $100,000,000.

New York, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Hetty Green, mistress of nearly one hundred millions, will tomorrow enter upon her seventy-fifth year at the same time will begin her forty-fifth year as a business woman, during which time she has accumulated a fortune that is estimated to be the largest controlled by any woman in the world.

When E. H. Harriman died last fall, leaving all of his property to Mrs. Harriman, a report was circulated to the effect that the widow had thereby become the richest woman in the world. Mr. Harriman's wealth in real estate and personal property was estimated to amount to between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000. But there is every reason to believe that Mrs. Harriman's five children, together with his surviving sister and other relatives, had all been substantially provided for in gifts out of hand and trust funds set aside shortly before the death of the financier. Mrs. Harriman's share, therefore, is believed not to have exceeded $50,000,000 or $60,000,000, so that in any event it is erroneous to credit her with possessing a fortune in excess of that of Hetty Green, which is estimated to be close to the $100,000,000 mark, and may possibly exceed that figure.

America's Richest Women.

It is interesting to note that America possesses not only the richest, but probably the three richest women in the world. Next to Hetty Green comes Mrs. Russell Sage, with a fortune of $85,000,000, and third in line is Mrs. Harriman. Mrs. Frederick Cortland Penfield is credited with a fortune of $60,000,000. The four women named inherited practically the entire estate of their husbands. Many other American women have survived their millionaires husbands, but in few cases have the widows received the entire estate.

Thus, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Sr., left an estate of $125,000,000, but the widow's portion was only $20,000,000 and a trust fund yielding $250,000 a year. Mrs. Marshall Field, whose husband's estate amounted to $200,000,000, received $1,000,000 as a wedding present in lieu of dower interest. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont received the whole of her husband's estate of $5,000,000. Mrs. Morris K. Jesup received a little over half of the $18,000,000 left by her husband.

Richest Woman of Europe.

Outside of the United States the richest woman is believed to be Berta von Bohlen, who came into possession of the $80,000,000 left by her father, the celebrated gun manufacturer. The Marchioness of Graham, by the death of her father, the Duke of Hamilton, came into possession of an income of nearly $800,000 a year. The Duchess of Roxburghe, who was Miss Mary Goelet, is credited with possessing a fortune of $25,000,000. Mrs. S. G. Ascher, daughter of the late Barney Harniss, is estimated to be worth $10,000,000. The Countess Szechenyi, who was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, is placed on the list with $12,000,000. Mme. Creel, of Mexico, is said to have an income of $5,000,000 a year. The Baroness von Edersteden, daughter of Sir Blundell Maple, has recently come into the second portion of her father's fortune, making her yearly income something like $250,000.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. T. S. Linscott

Ministers, Sunday school teachers and others interested are invited to write The Journal briefly their views as to the worth of these "questions," particularly if they consider them of value to their work.

The International Newspaper Bible Study club is for the purpose of promoting an unhindered way among the masses to the study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a local club and take up the simple course herein outlined, having only ordained clergymen. All who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 53 questions heretofore explained, to qualify for the prizes, and the back questions may be obtained by addressing this office.

This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear in both the Saturday and Sunday issues of The Journal. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

Conditions of the Contest.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study club and this local club.

2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions consecutively, and must answer each of the five questions of the week in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed 500 words in length and may be less. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer.

The answers must be delivered to this office, and they will be collated at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study club.

The Prizes.

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series—A Teachers' Bible, price $5.00, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next 53 contestants.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write and have ideas are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from the point of view of their educational standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Paul's story of his life. 11 Cor. xii, 21 to xli, 16.

Golden Text—He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 11 Cor. xii, 9.

Verses 21—Do you know any person who has been afflicted with a bodily ailment or of his sufferings than Paul?

Verses 22—Is there any lack of modesty, or good taste, in Paul, or any other true man, giving a full account of his qualifications and his sufferings?

What advantage is it to be born of good stock?

What advantage was it to Paul that he was a Hebrew, an Israelite, and of the seed of Abraham?

Does a true ministry, then and now, always imply much suffering and self-denial?

Verses 24—What is the best word picture you can give of the noble hero who, at the expense of lifelong and unparalleled suffering, gave himself up to the service of his God? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Read until the story of this bitter and prolonged suffering is burned into your memory, and then read the story of Paul's great work and of the wonderful love and grace of God to him, and full love and grace of God to him, and full love and grace of God to him.

(Ministers, Sunday school teachers and others interested are invited to write The Journal briefly their views as to the worth of these "questions," particularly if they consider them of value to their work.)
