Umatilla County.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Nov. 20 .- Fitzgerald, promoter of the Washington & Oregon

Traction company, and Max E. Baumeister, in whose name a franchise from this city is held, both of Walla Walla, are here for the purpose of but thousands more of them women devestablishing headquarters for the company, preliminary to commencing the electric line between Pendleton and Walla Walla. In an interview, Fitzgerald stated today that owing to a disagreement with the city officials of Walla Walls, the scompany will make Pendleton their basis of operations, and will comply with the conditions of the franchise by doing a stipulated amount of work before its expiration, which will be in five months.

Ties and rails have been ordered, he said, and work will start immediately. is the intention of the concern to build only a portion of the line to Wes-ton or Athena, and it will not attempt to extend the line to Walla Walla before two or three years.

Fitzgerald also announces that his company will be able to furnish lighting, power and electricity for this city at much lower rates than are received from the present company. The comany also intends to establish a park in this vicinity, and is now looking for a suitable location.
