

THE LITTLE JOURNEYS OF NIP AND TUCK-- VERSES BY W. R. BRADFORD DRAWINGS BY JNO. R. NEILL

1. Nip and Tuck through old Sherwood did start to see friend Robin Hood! And Dingleberry went along to see that they did not go wrong. He'd been there once before, you know, and knew the proper way to go.

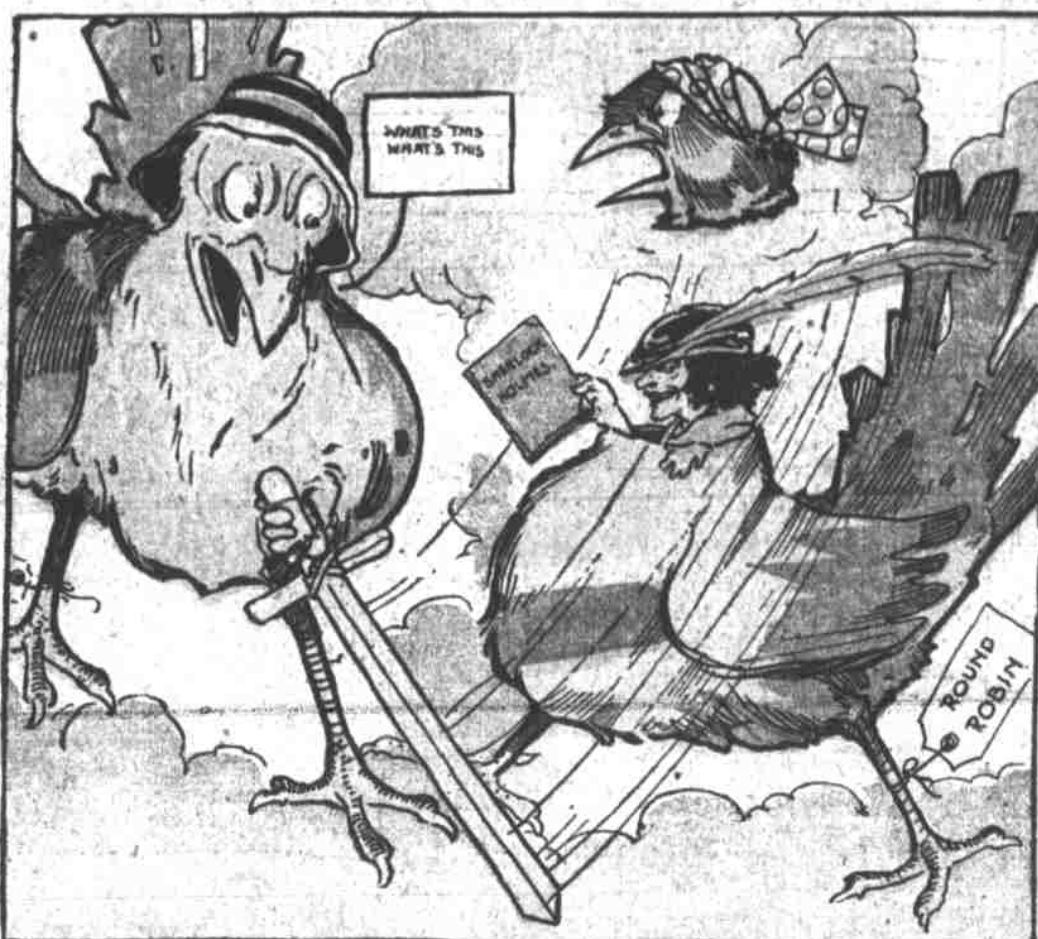

2. "Hold! Who goes there! What would you do! I am Cock Robin; who are you?" They all fell back with startled eyes, the children taken with surprise. Before them old Cock Robin stands, the terror of the Sherwood lands.

3. They soon recovered from their fright. Cock Robin said: "I'll lead you right! Get on my back; I'll take you there and will not charge you any fare." Cock Robin straightforth then did hike at good speed down the eggshell pike.

4. "Hands up! Hands up!" a voice did cry. "The children cried in terror, "My!" Round Robin bold, a robber he, did fight Cock Robin gleefully. Cock Robin drew his sword and fought, as every brave Cock Robin ought.

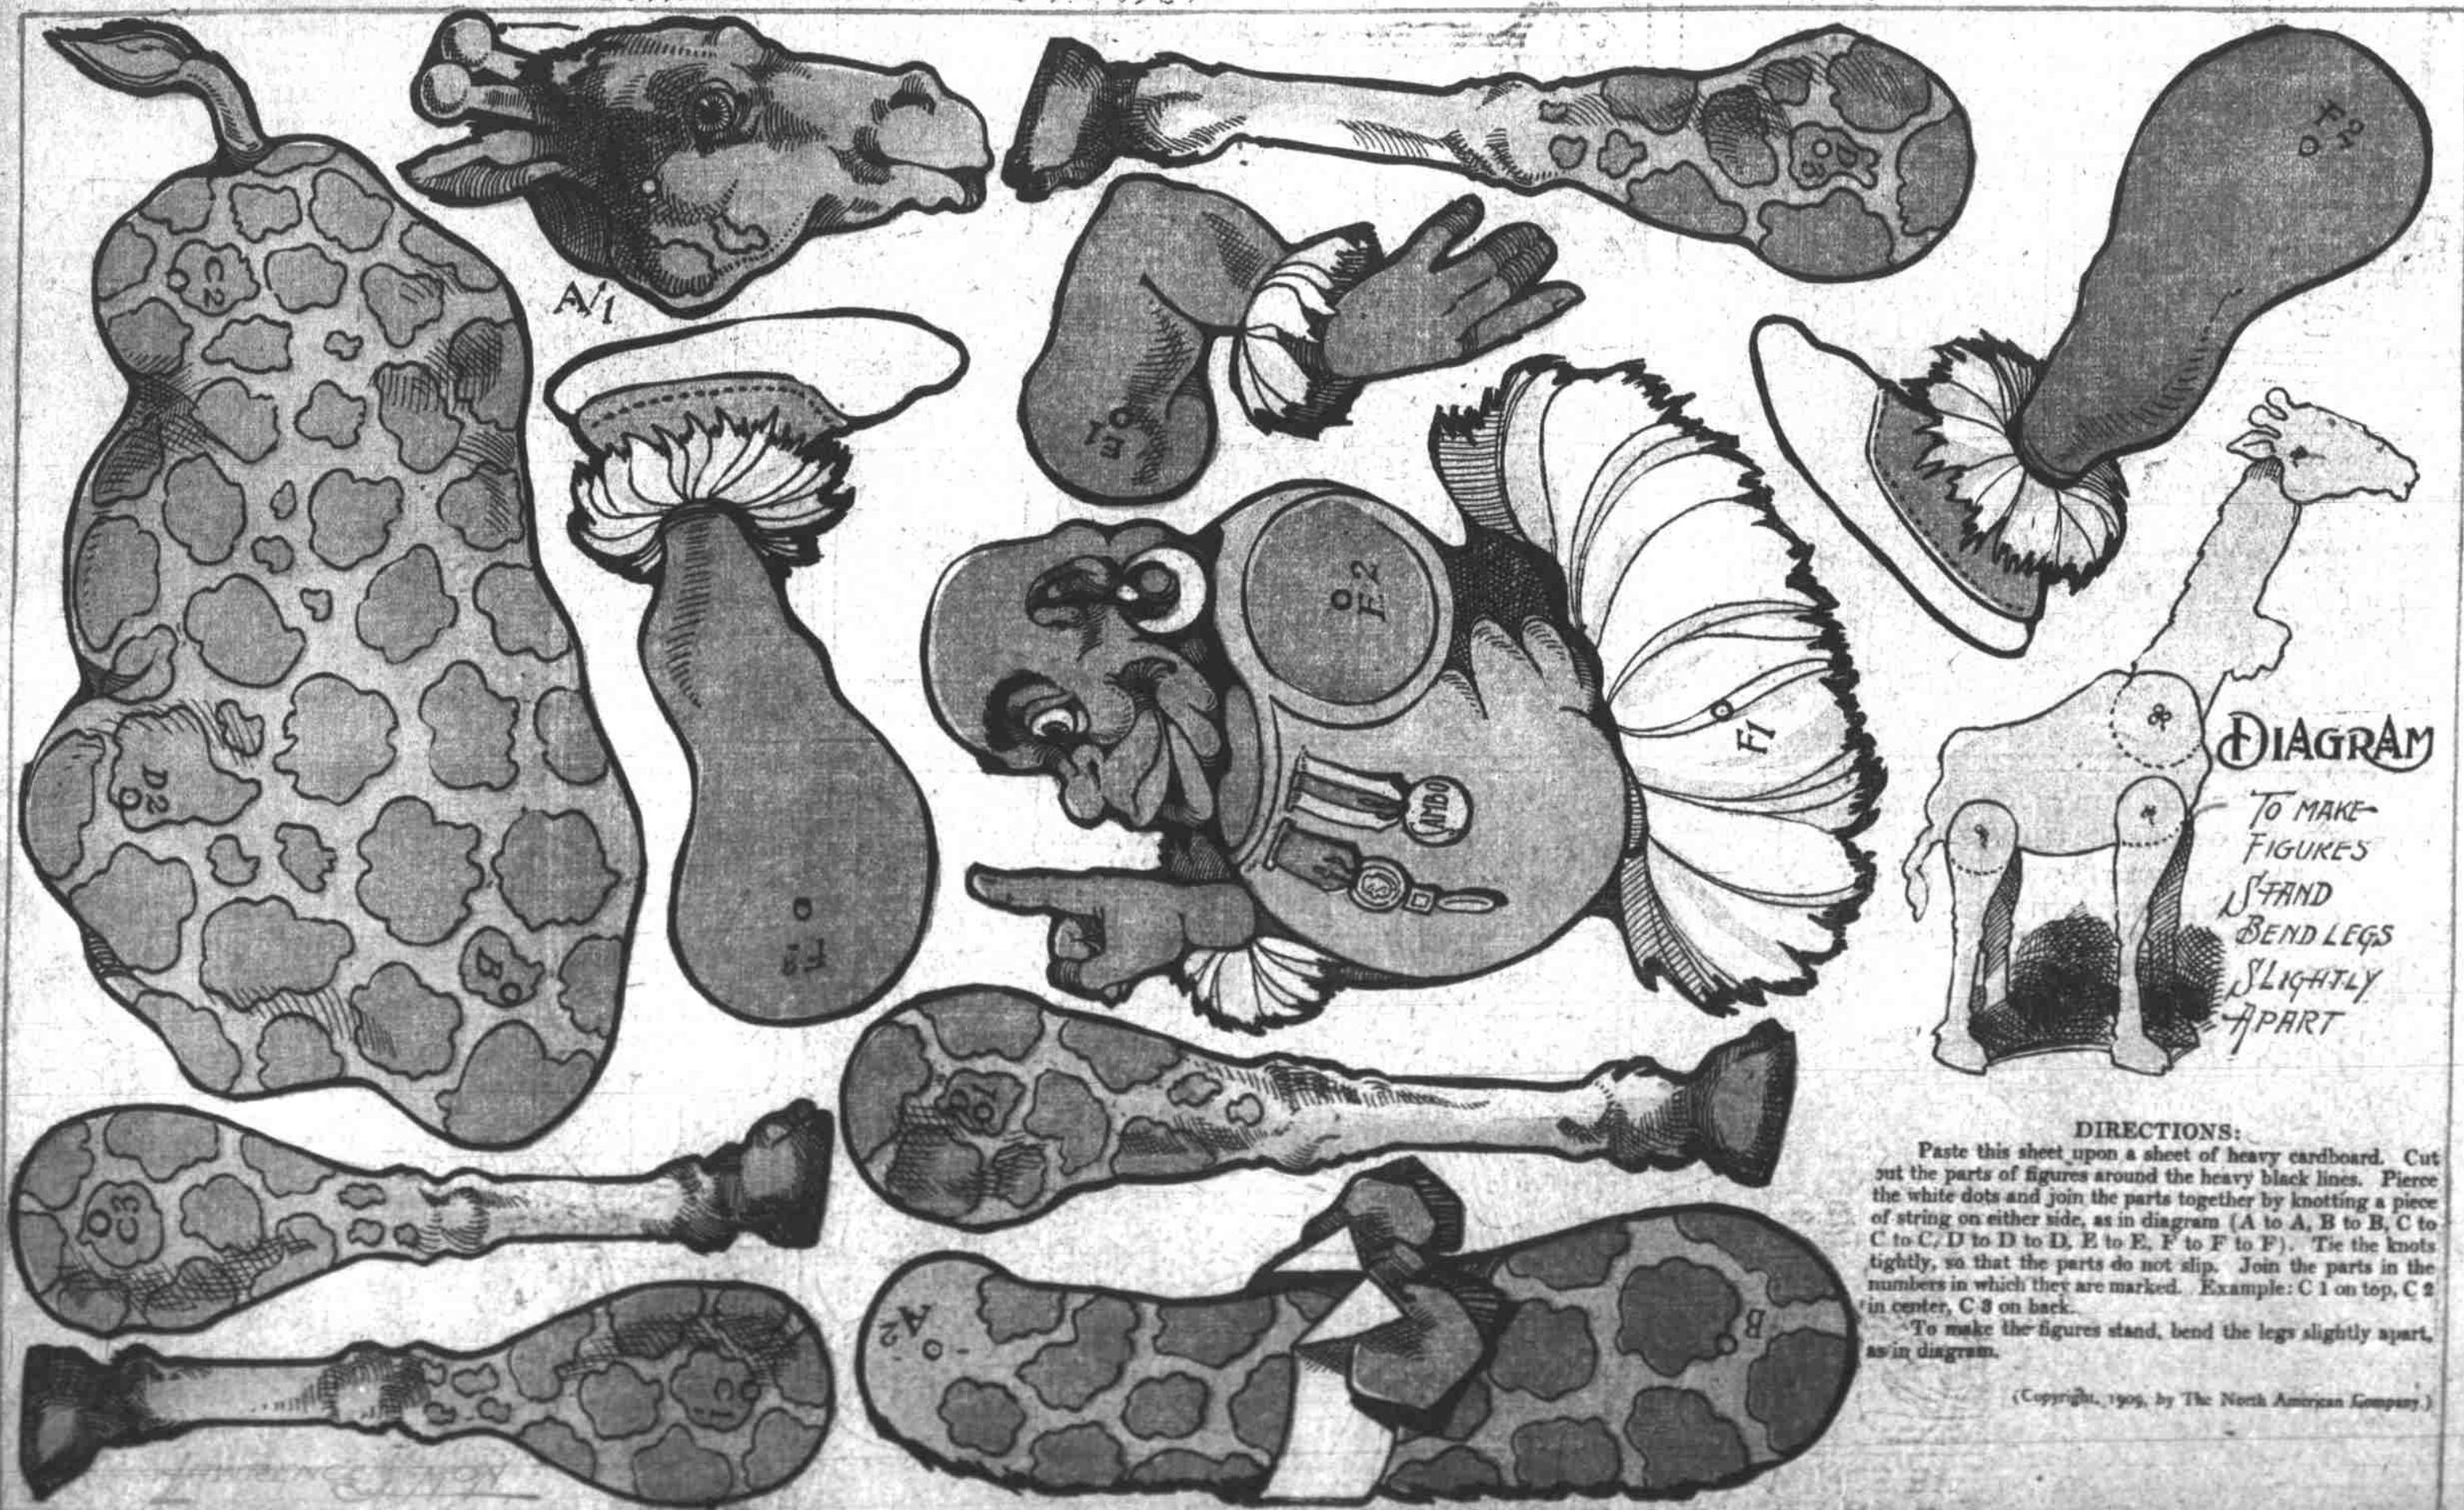

5. Then fiercely did the battle wage, and to the children seemed an age. Cock Robin cried, "He's dead! He's dead!" as he cut off Round Robin's head. "What's this?" At once Cock Robin spies Sir Robin Hood in this disguise!

6. "Ha! ha! You're fooled," said Robin Hood. "I'm pleased that my disguise was good. 'Tis Sherlock Holmes I'm reading, see! A great detective I will be! And you shall be my pupils, too, and I'll instruct the art to you!"

SAMBO AND THE GIRAFFE--A CUT-OUT THAT WILL AMUSE

DIRECTIONS:
Paste this sheet upon a sheet of heavy cardboard. Cut out the parts of figures around the heavy black lines. Pierce the white dots and join the parts together by knotting a piece of string on either side, as in diagram (A to A, B to B, C to C, D to D, E to E, F to F to F). Tie the knots tightly, so that the parts do not slip. Join the parts in the numbers in which they are marked. Example: C 1 on top, C 2 in center, C 3 on back.
To make the figures stand, bend the legs slightly apart, as in diagram.
